Ogden, Aug. 31.-Tomorrow the tax sayers will be given an opportunity to lecide at the polls whether they want he city to own its own waterworks ystem or not. For the benefit of those tho wish enlightment upon the waterrorks question a meeting will be held his evening at the council chamber and addresses will be made by Mayor brewer, President L. W. Shurtliff, Rev. father Cushnahan, City Attorney De-dine, President Browning of the city puncil and a number of other promincitizens. The meeting will be called s o'clock.

it's o'clock.

The proposition of the city purchasing the waterworks system has been sublished several times during the past nonth so that most of the taxpayers and readers of this paper are fully onversant with the deal. The conract that has been entered into by the tire of Orden through its property. ract that has been entered into by the ity of Ogden through its mayor and ity council is to take possession of he waterworks plant on January 1, 999. The first payment of $155.400 which the city is to make is to come rom special 10 mill tax levy on all avable property in the city.

rom special 10 mill tax levy on all axable property in the city.

To complete the purchase of the saterworks system two courses of axion are presented to the property owners of Ogden: The first is the question chereby the voters will vote on the groposition to bond the city for $450.00 which if carried will be transferred or the bonds of the Ogden water-rorks company and that latter comany will go out of existence. If the onds are voted down the purchase of he system will probably go through ust the same with this difference: The ity will be required to maintain the resent corporation under its existing harter and the present holders of the 400,000 bonds will hold them as security as a mortgage on the plant.

Harry Hill, Alonzo Clark and E. C. Aldrews, Saturday night with the ducks and guns in their possession. For some weeks past there has been considerable killing of ducks in the river bottoms but the hunters evaded arrest. The game wardens went to the hunting ground Saturday evening shortly before sunset and concealed themselves in the brush along the river. They had only been there a short while when the wary hunters were on the ground slaughtering the ducks.

Another hunter by the name of Dave Penman, it is alleged, threw his gun and ducks into the river, when he saw the wardens approaching. As the law requires the violators to be caught with the game in their possession, Penman was not arrested.
