Testimonial to Dr. E . L. Plant. About six weeks ago I was perfectly cured of a cancer in my tongue. The suffering through which I passed previous to its removal, cannot be described. The cure was effected without any surgical operation, and I gradually experienced great relief from the commencement of Dr. Plant's skillful treatment. The entire cure was performed in six weeks. I am sixty-one years old, and am prepared to answer any or all enquiries in relation to the matter. But the case, to myself, seems so wonderful that I think it my duty to take the present means of communicating the fact for the benefit of others.

Brother Adcock and the elder of the two beys managed to get out with their lives, but the younger lad, about five years old, was carried down and drowned. Five men were employed until Sunday afternoon watching the stream and searching for the body of the unfortunate little fel-low, but up till that time it had not been found. The load was also lost, and, as a natural consequence, tressed about the fate of his son.

wo men who committed the stage robberies in Juab county on the nights of May 80th and 81st were brought to the city yesterday, in custody of a deputy U. S. Marshal, accompanied by Mr. G. Huntsman, Gilmer & Salsbury's acting agent at Fillmore, and were placed in the

The parties who effected this capture of the two desperadoes had a couple of close brushes with them. On the arrival of the robbed stage at Fillmore, on Wednesday morning, Mr. Huntsman, Mr. Whitbeck, who was the driver, and Ma Roy McBride, proceeded to the stand of the robbery, in the coach. They found tracks going north, which they followed till dark, when they took position in the coach ready for an attack. When a bout 125 yards from a rising ground, called Chicken Creek Hill, they met the down coach, the driver of which, Mr. Bird, shouted to them, "Are you going on to give up what you've got? McBride then got one of the horses from the down stage and rode forward, Huntsman and Whitbeck fellowing behind in the coach. When McBride reached the summit of the rising ground he saw one of the robbers and fired at him. The other persons came up, standing in view of the robbers, while the latter were concealed in the cedars a short distance off.

The party then took position in Sentence of Death.

Works, corner of Tenth Street and Clark Avenue, exploded with terrific force, demolishing the nertheastern part of the building and severely injuring several employes. Nicholas Dickendorf, fireman, was badly bruised, scalded and injured injured. Jno. Brenuan, foreman, was badly hurt on the neck, but not dangerously. One or two others received injuries, but not serious. The loss is estimated at $20,000.

The party then took position is the coach, the driver with a pistol and the other two on each side with guns, and drove past the ambush, without being fired upon, and went to Whitbeck's station. From there Mr. Huntsman was immediately driven north to Nephi on the stage, where he secured the services of three men, R. Rellins, E. Sparks, and A. Mc-Cune, to aid in capturing the desperadoes, and in the meantime McBride and Whitbeck had been sleeping on the trail of the robbers, taking it up and pursuing it at daylight next morning without breakfast. Huntsman and the Nephi fast. Huntsman and the Nephi boys drove to Kettleman's, where they procured horses, but were minus one saddle, and after some trouble, they managed to get one, plause. under promise to return it at noon They then followed the trail, and at half past eleven found it leading west, when Mr. Huntsman went back to return the saddle, according to promise, and the three Nephi boys went forward. In the meantime McBaide an Whitbeck had overhauled the two rothers near the Church corral, a short distance north of the Sevier river, and the pursuers and purposition of the National Zeitung regards the pacific view recently taken by sued opened fire on each other, but the pursuing party were at a great disadvantage, Whitbeck's gun being disabled on the first shot, causing the two to retreat until they met the Nephi boys, when they tion by the Fort Wayne and Pennsylvania route, illustrated with scenic engravings.
