The Congregational Church in Andover theological seminary, voted on Wednesday night to invite Plymouth Church to unite with them in an ecclesiastical council for investigation in the accusations made against Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. This vote expresses almply the church's sense of the need of an examination, and of the inurious influence of delay. The importance of the action is suggested by the fact that this church is con-nected with the eldest copyrega-tional theological seminary with which have been associated more than one third of the acting Con-gregational ministers and more than .000 clergymen Zata aveira
