PROVO. A very enjoyable reception was given Thursday evening at the Sixth Ward Social hall in honor of the marriage of Miss Zella Litchfield and Frank Roberts, which took place in the Temple at Salt Lake City, Wednesday. The bride was attired in a pretty blue silk wedding and carried a bouquet of white roses. The reception and dancing room was elaborately decorated in white and pink, in the corner of the room a punch was served, a booth being prettily arranged with lace curtains and decorated with dahlias and green foliage. The lunch room was in blue and white, with large vases of white roses on each small table. About 100 guests enjoyed an evening of dancing and music. Many beautiful presents were received by the popular young couple.

Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Dora Pennington and Charles Chase.

CHILD'S DRESS OF BLUE VELVET.

Velvet will again be much used this season for more dressy costumes, and somehow or other the dignified, regal fabric is particularly becoming to children's fair skin and delicate coloring. This model of rich, blue velvet is particularly suited in its grace and simplicity to show off the beautiful material, and the collar and cuffs of white lace brighten up the rather somber dress. The very broad belt of blue leather is particularly becoming to the slender little girl.
