DESERET EVENING NEWS SATURDAY JUNE 13 1908

. . . Mr. A. L. Williams, formerly a Salt Lake business man, interested in coal mining and later paymaster of the U. S. army in the Phillipines, reached New York a few days ago on a trip around the world, which has already consumed a year and a half. Mr. Wil-liams was met on lower Broadway by some of his UIAh friends and hearty greetings were exchanged.

At the New York conservatory and also at the studio of Mme. Ashforth, Miss Isabel Slater has made good progress the past year in music. Miss Slater, whose home is in Salt Lake City, expects to visit there the com-ing summer. . . .

Another Utah girl, Miss Ruby Lind-say, is in from Bradford, Penn., where she has been playing lead in stock all the season. Miss Lindsay's notices are excellent, and she is preparing to go into vaudeville soon. Her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, are expected here shortly on a visit.

Joseph Santley and brother, Utah actors, are in the city. Mr. Santley has been playing in "From Rags to Riches," a melodrama, and also in the County Chairman."

The two last girl students of Columto reach home; two days in Washingto reach home; two days in Washing-ton, where they will visit with their old friends, Mr. and Mrs, Gardine, one week in Chicago with friends, and then nome. Misses Caine and Smart nave been active members of the Utah colony and the friendships they form-ed while here have been among the pleasant remembrances of their stu-dent life. Those left behind said fare-well with many regrets, but wish them both success wherever they may be.

Messrs. Barton and Davis, two of Salt Lake's well known merchants, have been in the city for a week. They have stopped at the Waldorf and have been doing some sightseeing with friends. . . .

Mr. George Young, son of John W Mr. George Young, son of John W. Young, has been in the city for a week visiting his father and brother, J. Wes-ley Young. He expects to return west in two days as he has only a short leave of absence from his work on the railroad, a business he has been engaged in for some years.

At today's services in the Latter-day Saints' hall, Mr. Alvin Beesley and Mr. Royal W. Daynes, two leading music dealers of Sait Lake, were visi-tors; both gentlemen came to attend the plano convention which meets and transactis bushness at the Hotel Astor the plan convention which meets and transactis business at the Hotel Astor. Tuesday evening a banquet will be given in the large dining room of the Astor, and Wednesday evening the opn-vention goes to Coney Island, there to take a dip in the briny deep and see the wonders of Coney. Friday the gentlemen will leave for Boston, and make the trip to Sauth Royalton, Vt., to see the Prophet Joseph's monu-ment, then back to Boston and New York before starting for home. Busi-ness and pleasure combined with the time of year are making the trip a de-lightful one.

Tonight sees the close of Mrs. Viola. Pratt Gilletts' engagement at the "Col-onial." She will leave for the west in a few days. JANET.

of their authors. Sometimes you agree, sometimes you don't. A good musical instrument? Yes. It expresses your own sentiments, is always in harmony with you.

The Packard is just such a friend. Strong, inspiring, brilliant when you are joyful. Mellow, tender, sympathetic when you are sad. Always perfect, true, dependable.

Come in. It will be a pleasure to run over this instrument. Its touch is so responsive, its tone so plastic, it expresses your every mood.

HE coming hig event in music circles is the production of "The Merry Grafters," Harold Orlob's omic opera, at the theater next Four performances will be given week. in all, next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Wednesday afternoon with matinee pext Saturday-the last named date having been added through the cancellation of the date by the company playing "The Thief," Mr. Orlob is putting the finishing touches on the presentation and is well pleased with both cast and chorus. He directs attention to the fact that three of the cast. Fred Graham, George Margetts and S. B. Clawson, are sons of pioneer theatrical figures, John C. Graham, Pall Margetts and H. B. Clawson, and he feels sure that the sons of their sires ball have arranged an attractive proi .st M. E. church tomorrow, both for the afternoon and evening services. A male chorus will be a special feature.

hand concert tomorrow afternoor which was interrupted by the rain last week, will be given on time and will include 11 popular numbers.

has returned from a year's music study in Boston, where his voice has been praised by able critics like Philip Hale. Mr. Kennedy has been appearing with credit in recitals in Wisconsin. His sister is an accomplished pi-

Held will have 50 musicians in the band he is to furnish for the U. C. T. parade, the largest band for parade purposes that has yet appeared on the Invitations are out for a vocal and plano recital to be given by the pupils of Mme. Lillian R. DeLory, assisted by Mr. B. Morris Young, violinist, at Unity hall next Wednesday evening. The plano numbers will be given by Miss Ethel Beesley, Jack O'Donnell, Miss Jeanette Brockman, Miss Grace Rollo, Miss Zola Roberts, Mrs. Stella B. Otterstrom, Miss Ruth Brockman, Miss Norma Cummings, Mrs. Orpha R, Walker, the vocal numbers by Miss Zola Bagley, Miss Vera Oviatt, Miss Ethel Beesley, Miss Clara Raleigh, Miss Edd, Mrs. Charles Bodel. Invitations are out for a vocal and Miss Hazel Udy, Mrs. Charles Bodel.

Arthur Shepherd expects to leave

The New York Symphony orchestra presented the following instrumentation Wednesday evening; eight first, eight second violins, four violas, four cellos, four stringed basses, one harp;