

the name of John Lee Webster, Missouri withdrew that of ex-Mayor Webster of St. Louis, and Georgia announced that it once had a candidate but that it desired to second the nomination of Senator Fairbanks.

"Are there other nominations?" called the chairman.

"Hearing none it only remains for me to declare Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, the candidate of the Democratic party for the term commencing March 4, 1905."

WITH FLAG IN HAND.

Beveridge, silk-hatted and with a flag in his hand led a round of cheers. Great confusion reigned and it was difficult to control the proceedings. The convention was on its feet, and cries for "Fairbanks" began.

A NOISY SCENE.

It was with difficulty that the chairman obtained order, so noisy was the demonstration for Fairbanks. Order could not be restored until Mr. Cannon announced that Senator Fairbanks was not in the hall.

TO NOTIFY NOMINEES.

Senator Doolittle was recognized, and offered a resolution providing that Chairman Cannon and Temporary Chairman Root should respectively head the committees to notify President Roosevelt and Senator Fairbanks of their nomination. The resolution was agreed to with a will.

OFFICIAL REPORT.

A resolution was agreed to, presented by Senator Knute Nelson of Minnesota, directing the secretary of the convention to prepare and publish a complete report of the official proceedings of the convention.

THANKS TO EVERYBODY.

Resolutions of thanks, offered by Senator Heyburn of Idaho were agreed to, in which were mentioned the temporary and permanent chairmen, Cannon and Root; the secretary of the convention, his assistants, the sergeant-at-arms, and his deputies.

A resolution by Gov. Murphy of New Jersey was passed, expressing thanks of the convention to Sam P. Raymond, chairman, and the members of the Chicago committee on management, also the members of the sub-committee of the national Republican committee, the citizens of Chicago, etc., "for the hospitable and perfect provisions made for the convention, and the entertainment of delegates, alternates and visitors."

Announcement then was made of the committee to notify the candidates of their nomination.

MUCH CONFUSION.

As is usual in all conventions, the closing was full of confusion. The delegates enjoyed themselves while the officers struggled with the routine that was necessary to complete the record. The galleries were empty by the time the clerks had shouted the resolutions and only here and there did a handful of delegates wait to see the end of the Republican national convention of 1904. Graeme Stewart of Illinois was recognized and moved "that the convention do now adjourn sine die."

CONVENTION ADJOURNED.

Chairman Cannon put this motion amid great confusion as the delegates and spectators were leaving the hall. He declared it carried, and brought his gavel down with a resounding whack at just 2:25 o'clock.

The 71 survivors of necessity remained on the island. They were short of provisions and when the Thetis found them they had only 600 pounds of rice left. The Thetis brought all the survivors to this place, where they will be sent back to Japan.

Japanese Outposts Attacked.

General Kuroki's headquarters in the Field, via Fusan, Korea, June 23.—Russians from Suifu attacked the Japanese outposts in force yesterday afternoon, apparently for the purpose of testing their strength. Washington, June 23.—Surrounded by members of his family President Roosevelt received the announcement that he had been nominated unanimously by the Republicans at Chicago. The news was received by telephone at the White House by a reporter of the Associated Press in advance of its receipt over the special telegraph wire running from Chicago to the executive offices.

At 2:13 p. m. the bulletin was given to Secy. Loeb. Some time before the president had left his office in the executive building and had gone to the White House for luncheon. Secy. ## UNIONISM AT CEMENT WORKS.

Men Go Out on Strike Because Their Demands Are Not Complied With.

STATEMENT BY THE COMMITTEE

Company Will Treat With Them Individually, but Will Not Recognize the Union.

Thirty men working for the Portland Cement company, at Fifth West and Eighth South streets, are on a strike because of their objection to having wages cut. The men have appointed a press committee, and the same present for publication the following statement of the situation:

"The cement makers and all men connected with the plant, with the exception of a few, went out on a strike yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock on account of a cut from one to eight cents per hour in their wages. The committee met the management at 5 o'clock yesterday morning and waited on the management again, but were informed that the written contract they presented was refused. A conference with the company was held this morning when the company absolutely refused to treat with the men as a union but would consider the application of each man individually. The cement makers are organized in the American Federation of Labor and Affiliated, the State Federation of Labor. In view of the fact that there was no agreement on wages and that the men were not given any notice of a cut until the evening of the day before, the men think they have been treated unfairly and after trying to bring about an amicable settlement, and failing, they walked out. Everything possible is being done to settle the difficulty."

EXPERIENCE WAS VERY EXCITING.

Salt Lake Man Tells of the Stage Holdup Near Silver City, Idaho.

HIGHWAYMAN WAS A BOLD ONE

Rifted the Mail Pouches, Singlehanded And Alone, as Though Used to The Business.

Fred H. Perkins, the well known mining engineer, had an experience in Idaho yesterday which he does not particularly enjoy. He had been to Silver City, a mining camp located about sixty miles south of Nampa, on professional business. He started home early yesterday morning and while coming along the regularly traveled road, about two miles out of the town, he ran into the clutches of a bold highwayman. Mr. Perkins returned home this morning and gives quite a thrilling account of the affair in which the robber made a complete success and got away with a good bundle of money; how much, Mr. Perkins was unable to say, but believes it must have been quite a large sum, inasmuch as the mail pouches carried on the stage coach were rifled of their contents and a number of registered letters taken by the robber. The previous day was pay day at the De Lamar mines and merchants sent out their remittances to Boise banks.

AN OLD HAND.

The bandit was evidently an old hand at the business, according to Mr. Perkins' account. He was bold and deliberate, and prosecuted his work with dispatch. Altogether thirteen persons were lifted up on the roadside at one time, and after relieving them of their valuables, sent them on down the road. Afterwards the bandit encountered some freight teams. He relieved the drivers of what they and then took to the hills. The fellow had no accomplices, as far as known and the weapon carried was a double barreled hammerless shot gun.

ROBBERS WERE SURPRISED.

The stage leaves Silver City for Murphy, the terminus of the Boise Nampa & Owyhee railroad about 20 miles away. Every morning about 9 o'clock, so it was planned to hold it up as it was about to pass the selected point. The stage contained six passengers exclusively of the driver. Mr. Perkins was in a private conveyance with four other persons, which left Silver immediately before the stage. The robber was not expecting the special conveyance and he was taken somewhat by surprise as the team rounded the bend of the road. He already had the passengers in the stage lined up and when he saw the Perkins conveyance he lost no time in covering it with his gun, at the same time calling to the driver to come on, that he wanted to see him. The passengers, however, he lost no time in shifting of pocket books at this stage of the game. Mr. Perkins placed a wallet containing all his money, excepting a few dollars in change, in his pocket, and he was taken somewhat by surprise as the team rounded the bend of the road. ## MR. HAWLEY WITHDRAWS.

Unexpected Result of a Difference of Opinion.

New York, June 23.—Edwin Hawley of this city has retired from the executive committee and directorate of the Southern Pacific Railroad company. His resignation was a prominent factor in the property, and his retirement, says the Herald, will cause great surprise in railroad circles. It is supposed his resignation was handed in two weeks ago, although persons in a position to know, absolutely refuse to discuss the matter or to make public Hawley's reasons for leaving the company. The Harriman interests over the management of the Alton railroad is, however, thought to have been the cause.

HOW IT WAS DONE.

This much does the robber make a talk to his victims. He stated in a polite way that he was very sorry to detain them; but that he felt compelled to call upon them for their valuables, and that none of them would be harmed if they obeyed. Before making the talk, the bandit took his position about 100 feet in front of the team. Beginning with No. 1 he called upon each person to come forward about half the distance and empty their pockets on a bare spot of ground. This the robber obliged everyone into their respective vehicles and they were told to proceed down the road as rapidly as possible. As the party moved on, the robber discharged his weapon into the air. No stop was made until the first telephone station was reached and the sheriff's office at Silver City informed of what had occurred. A posse was promptly formed and the search for the robber began.

NOT THE LEAST NERVOUS.

Mr. Perkins says the highwayman displayed not the slightest nervousness during the ordeal, except when the horse balked. He remained calm after he had covered him as was cool and collected as anyone could be.

SCHEME DIDN'T WORK.

An incident of the affair was the effort of one of the passengers of the stage to conceal a part of his belongings in the lining of his coat. In getting into the stage after the "line-up" he accidentally struck his coat against the wheel of the vehicle. This caused the robber to stop. The robber heard the jingle and the passenger had to disgorge. A drummer, who had been making collections from the merchants of Silver, dropped a wallet containing over $1,000 into a waterbucket. This the highwayman overlooked in his hurried search of the coach, but he found a package containing several hundred dollars hidden under the stage drivers' seat, which the latter was taking to Murphy for a farmer, residing near Silver. Several watches and rings were taken. Mr. Perkins was fortunate in saving his, however, by slipping it on the inside of his pantaloons.

There were two ladies among the passengers. One of them had a small child with her. Not to exceed 10 minutes' time was taken up in completing the job, but the relieving of the passengers of their valuables was done, Mr. Perkins says, almost in a twinkling. The victims of the hold-up were F. H. Perkins, a mining engineer; Fred Perkins, Salt Lake; S. C. Gardner, Silver City; A. Bird, Malley; John McCormick and H. W. Pound, Texas; George Parks and wife, Jordan Valley; Mrs. J. Paulding.

HAS AN EYE ON PIOCHE DISTRICT.

San Pedro is Likely to Extend To the Nevada Camp Soon.

CLARK IS MUCH INTERESTED.

Senator Will Use His Influence if Metallurgist's Report is Favorable—Death of Fred Rockwell.

The San Pedro has a covetous eye on Pioche. It is the opinion of at least one well known official that recent developments in that neighborhood will lead the railroad company to soon head its spikes in that direction. While nothing conclusive is known of the present report submitted by Prof. George W. Maynard to the Pioche-Coe Mining company's interests, it is generally believed that the report was favorable.

In this event, Senator Clark, who has identified himself with the undertaking, will undoubtedly urge it upon the San Pedro to extend into that camp. Of course, the resources of the Pioche country have long been known to railroad and mining men and it is not likely that the San Pedro will permit them to go unexploited. The tonnage from that source today, according to the "News" informant, ought to be, with favorable tariffs, equal to that of any locality that the San Pedro will tap on its journey to the coast. To old-timers this is no secret.

FRED ROCKWELL DEAD.

Well Known Railroad and Cattlemen's Sudden Demise at Caldwell.

Local railroad circles were as grieved as they were startled this morning to hear that Fred Rockwell was dead at Caldwell, Ida. He was so well and favorably known, and was seen here in good health so recently, that the whole of railroad row seemed stunned.

The first news of the event came by wire to Mr. Neilsen of the Burlington. It stated merely that Mr. Rockwell died yesterday of pneumonia. The details received thus far show that he had received two trains of cattle at Caldwell, Idaho, and started on his journey. When only 72 miles out of town he became suddenly ill. He was taken back to Caldwell and his son, who was along, was so alarmed that he called for his mother, who was in Galesburg, Ill. She started immediately and passed through Salt Lake this morning, only to learn that she was too late to see him.

Mr. Rockwell was formerly live stock agent for the Burlington out of Denver, but he spent as much time in Utah as in Colorado. Everybody was glad to know that in those days and when, finally, he became a partner in the live-stock firm of Ballentine & Rockwell, he died largely to the advantage of the community. He was in Salt Lake only last Wednesday and Thursday, hale and hearty, boasting of his good health and behind the counter at the Burlington office as an accommodation to Mr. Neilsen, who was alone at the time. That he should contract pneumonia and pass off so suddenly in this season of influenza is almost incomprehensible to his many friends.

JUDGE MORSE SHAPES VERDICT.

He Tells the Jury to Find Kelley Not Guilty of Letter Forgery.

THE DEFENDANT DISCHARGED.

District Attorney Smith Gave Notice of An Appeal to Make Test Case in Supreme Court.

Upon the instructions of Judge Morse, the jury in the case of the State of Utah vs. S. J. Kelley, charged with forgery, this morning returned a verdict of not guilty. Judge Morse sustained the motion, made by Attorney L. R. Rogers yesterday afternoon, to quash the information on the ground that it did not charge a public offense. The attorney for defendant then requested that the jury be instructed to return a verdict of not guilty, and the request was granted and the verdict returned by the jury without the formality of leaving the jury box.

A motion to quash was argued at length yesterday afternoon and it was contended by Attorney Rogers that, under the statutes, the instrument, which it is alleged was forged by Kelley, is not such a one that can be forged. It was charged that the defendant forged the name of G. H. Olmstead, division superintendent of the Oregon Short Line, to a clearance letter made out in favor of Emil R. Densch. Judge Morse in ruling on the motion said that there are 9 different instruments specified in the statutes which can be forged but that a clearance letter is not named, hence it is evident that an instrument is not subject to a forgery.

District Attorney Smith gave notice of an appeal to the supreme court in order to make a test case of the question raised by Attorney Rogers. As the jury returned a verdict for defendant upon the instruction of the court, the state has, under the statutes, a right of appeal to the supreme court.

MILLER CHANGED PLEA.

Concludes That He is Really Guilty of Embezzlement—Gets Off Easy.

Isadore Miller appeared before Judge Morse this morning in the criminal division of the district court and withdrew his plea of not guilty to the charge of embezzlement and entered a plea of guilty to the same. His attorney, Soren Christensen, requested that he be allowed to plead guilty to the embezzlement of a sum less than $50 and the request was granted. Miller waived time for sentence and was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail, with the option to pay a fine of $57 or in lieu thereof to serve 30 days in the county jail. Miller will pay his fine.

THREE BOTTLE AT HER.

More Lucin Cut-Off Suits.

Three suits for $15,000 each were filed in the federal court today against the Southern Pacific. The plaintiff in each case is James Ingretsen, attorney and administrator of the estates of Panagiotis Arsenis, Demetrios J. Arsenis and Nicholas Arsenis. They were three of the Greek laborers killed in the explosion at Jackson siding on the Lucin cut-off, Feb. 19.

A singular coincidence shown by the complaints is that each of the dead men had exactly $100 on his person at the time of the explosion.
