Cattle became fat and sheep in good condition and remained in fair to good condition throughout the remainder of the season, although the dry weather that followed resulted in short grass in many sections. Water for irrigation was generally abundant and more plentiful than in the season of 1901, except in the Loss river districts and a few other sections of the southeast counties. Crops having practically matured, the necessity for weekly crop bulletins has passed. This will be the last publication of the present season.

Owes His Life to a Neighbor's Kindness Mr. D. P. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Sumner counties, W. Va., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was almost hopelessly afflicted with diar-rhoea; was attended by two physicians who gave him little, if any, relief, when a neighbor learning of his serious brought him a bottle of Cham berlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrho Remedy, which cured him in less than twenty-four hours.
