Legal Battle Begins Over the Estate of James E. Horrocks.

D. S. L. CUTOFF WORK STOPPED

Frof, Driggs Reappointed Head of Deaf and Blind School -A. O. U. W. Files Answer.

Special Correspondence. Ogden, April 8 .- Hearing on the last will and testament of James E. Horrocks, who died in this city March 18, 1905, was called before Judge Howell in the Second district court yesterday. A petition was filed by Beatrice L. Horrocks, daughter of deceased, through her guardlan, protesting against the probating of the will, alleging that at the time of her father's death he was of unsound mind, and that he was unduly influenced by his other, who is named in the will as executrix. At the time of Mr. Horrock's death. hat month, he was owner of certain real and personal property situated in orden City valued at over $10,000. Of his amount, according to the will he beyeathed to his only daughter, Miss batrice L. Horrocks only statute, alies hatrice L. Horrocks only $1, the re-mainder of his estate going to his hether, Mrs. Patrick Martin, with whom he was residing. The daughter has been living at Plain City, Weber county, with her aunt, Mrs. James L.

complished but a small amount of work, possibly to the amount of $1,000 in all. There had been employed on the job only about 20 men and teams, and should the railroad company decide to continue the work, that already done will not be lost. The orders to stop work came from the office of Chief En-ginger Ashton and as those user more son the antice of the onice of the En-gineer Ashton, and as there was no special contract with the construction company for this particular job, the railroad company could, by paying for the work done, order its discontinuance. It is the belief of some who have given the matter consideration, that perhaps the railroad company has concluded that the cut-off is unnecessary at the present time and have therefore aban-doned it. PROF. DRIGGS REAPPOINTED.

Prof. F. M. #### HON. JOSEPH PARRY.

On April 4, 1905, Hon. Joseph Parry of Ogden reached the eightleth mile stone on his journey of life. His sons and daughters-14 in number-arranged a surprise on their patriarchal progenitor. They had gathered from different parts of the state, and from Idaho. About 5 o'clock p. m. they entered his ome and the surprise was complete. They immediately repaired to the front door of the house, where a photographer was waiting. A photograph of the noble family group, consisting of Mr. Parry, his wife Olive Ann, and the 14 sons and daughters, was taken.

Among those present beside the guest of honor and his wife, sons and daughters, were President Charles F. Middleton and Joseph Hall of the High Council, Bishop James Wotherspoon, Counselor Peter Anderson, Mrs. Ellas Morris (his niece) of Salt Lake City, Mrs. T. Marriot. Other relatives and friends swelled the number to 70, and a happier, merrier, more joyous comtany seldom assembled on any similar occasion. The time until about S o'clock was spent in congratulatory speeches to the host in chief on the return of his natal day. Then followed mirth and music, both vocal and instrumental. The numerous guests then sat down to an elegant repast. All could not be seated at once, so they filled the social board in companies. All partook of the feast with a zest, and all were satisfied. Sociality continued till a late hour, when the guests departed with many expressions for Mr. Parry's continued longivety, peace and happiness. He is at the present hale, hearty, and able to attend to his duties as High Councilor, and render other valuable Farvices in the Weber Stake of Zion.

Elder Parry has had 22 children, eight of whom are dead: 41 grandchildren, 18 great grandchildren, all living. His numerous progeny are spreading abroad, and increasing to build up and solidify his house.

Mr. Parry has been one of the most progreslave and energetic citizens of Ogden, and today owns some of the best business blocks and residences in the city.
