GERMANY.

A Bishop Sent to Prison.

POSEN, 31.—The Bishop of Gresen and Posen, who was recently convicted of a violation of the ecclesiastical laws, and condemned to six months imprisonment, has been arrested and sent to prison to serve out the term of the sentence.

An Abuse to be Suppressed.

BERLIN, 31.—The North German Gazette says there is reason to believe that the government will shortly take steps to prevent abuses arising from the sale, in Germany, of American medical diplomas, nearly all of which purport to come from Philadelphia.

FRANCE.

Dissolution of the Assembly.

PARIS, 31.—In the Assembly, today, a permanent committee was chosen according to an agreement between the various parties; it consists of thirteen members of the left and twelve of the right. All measures remaining to be acted on, principally railway bills, were passed almost without debate. The Duc d'Audiffret Pasquier, president of the Assembly, then rose and made a speech, closing the session. He eloquently recapitulated the achievements of the Assembly, which, having undertaken its trust on the morrow of a madly-undertaken war, and during the horrors of the Commune, had paid the ransom of the country, thus demonstrating its credit and vitality. The Assembly had reorganized the internal administration, and voted a constitution in which individual preferences had been subordinated to the love of country; that constitution is perhaps imperfect, but without it there would be the double peril of despotism and anarchy. Said he—"You will confide the constitution to the honor of the president and the wisdom of new assemblies. You may, with confidence, submit yourselves to the judgment of the country, for you restore to it its flag and liberties intact." In conclusion he declared the National Assembly prorogued until the 8th of March, 1876, when the new chambers are to meet. The Assembly separated, the deputies of the left shouting—"Vive la Republic."

EASTERN.

Inauguration of Centennial Year.

NEW YORK, 1, 1876.—Centennial year was inaugurated at midnight by the ringing of bells, display of fireworks, screaming of steamboat and locomotive whistles and the firing of cannon. There were great crowds in the streets and Breadway was as full of people as at midday.

Homicide.

Dellaher, the wealthy liquor dealer of 49 Beaver St., who was shot last evening at the Westminster Hotel, by Romaine Dillon, died at noon to-day, at the Bellevue Hospital, of internal homorrhage. Before his death he made an antemortem statement. He said the attack was unprovoked, and Dillon has been committed to the Tombs and is looked upon as insane.

Centennial Rejoicings.

CLEVELAND, O., 1, 1876.—Independence Centennial year was inaugurated in this city in gallant style. The City Hall and public buildings as well as many private residences and business houses were brilliantly illuminated, and a huge bonfire of twenty barrels of petroleum was burned in the public square. At midnight a salute of 100 guns was fired, and immediately nearly all the bells in the city commenced ringing, and steam whistles blowing. Bands of music and military paraded the streets, which, in the neighborhood of the public square, were densly thronged with enthusiastic citizens.

Wholesale Poisoning—Lynched.

NEW ORLEANS, 1.—At Baton Rouge, on Saturday last, thirteen persons were poisoned at a dinner party on the Mauchae. Levi Spriggs and Lizzie Richards, both colored, were arrested, and while being conveyed to jail here, were taken from the posse by a band of armed men; the body of the woman was seen hanging to a tree six miles from here; nothing has been heard from the man.

Speeding to 1876.

WASHINGTON, 1.—The Methodist churches in this city held meetings to-night, watching the old year out and the new one in. Just before 12 o'clock all the fire alarm bells were sounded, and struck 1776, and exactly at midnight struck 1876. The engines, with a full head of steam, were run into the street and their whistles blown at midnight. The War Department furnished the necessary ammunition and loaned a cannon to the district commissioners, who, at midnight, caused a salute of 37 guns to be fired. The Metropolitan Church chimes rang at the advent of the new year.

Prospective Legislative Measures.

When Congress reassembles Luttrell will introduce a bill to carry into effect the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty; also a bill to extend the term of the Alabama Claims Commission, and to allow Pacific Coast sailors to file claims now barred by limitation. Luttrell is preparing, for introduction, a bill to contain, in a simple form, the following provisions—1st, allowing the Southern Pacific Railroad of California to build eastward until it meets the Scott, Texas Pacific, and to enjoy his land grant for that portion of the former constructed from the Colorado River to the point of meeting; second, prohibiting, under heavy penalties, any combination with any other transcontinental road; third, prohibiting any discrimination in fares or freights, except perhaps regarding mineral ores; fourth, providing for three commissioners to be appointed, one each by the governors of California, Missouri, and New York, who shall prescribe the rates to be charged, and limit them to a reasonable percentage of the return on the actual cost and running expenses of the entire line.

New Year's Reception.

The usual New Year's reception was held at the Executive Mansion to-day commencing at 11 a.m., at which time the President received the cabinet and foreign ministers, and afterwards the judges of the Supreme Court, the senators and Representatives, officers of the army and navy, chiefs of bureaus, associated soldiers of the war of 1812, Mexican war veterans, members of the Oldest Inhabitants' Association, delegation of the Grand Army of the Republic and others; the reception of citizens generally commenced at 10 a.m. Among the diplomatic corps present were the Spanish minister and wife. The marine band played. The members of the army and navy and of the marine corps were out in strong array, and presented a remarkably fine appearance. The reception was very largely attended. The members of the cabinet received visitors from one to four o'clock. About five hundred private residences were open for the reception of visitors. Flags were displayed on all the public buildings, and there was a general holliday.

Popular Rejoicing—Moody and Sankey's Services.

PHILADELPHIA, 1.—At this time (midnight) the greatest enthusiasm prevails throughout this city, the vicinity of the State House especially being the scene of intense excitement. Chesnut St. is thronged by a crowd of cheering people, and the air is full of the clanging of bells and the firing of cannon, and the sky is lit by fireworks. As the bells noted the hour of twelve a flag, designed after the original pattern, was raised by the mayor amid tremendous acclamations, the firing of a salute following the raising of the flag. Public and private buildings were decorated with flags, and illuminated.

The watch night services in the depot church were attended tonight by an immense audience, every foot of space being occupied. Mr. Sankey sang several of his popular hymns, and Mr. Meody preached an interesting sermon. When the first service was over but few withdrew, and as the hour of 12 arrived a prayer meeting was held.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

Counterfeiting in Prison.

COLUMBUS, O., 2.—It is reported that a number of convicts in the penitentiary have for some time been engaged in the manufacture of nickels, the material used being an alloy of copper and zinc; it is also stated that bogus greenbacks have been manufactured. It is supposed that Charley Ulrich, one of the most expert counterfeiters in America, confined here, is the leader of the counterfeiting party.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, 2.—The London Times states that the amount of bullion deposited in the Bank of England the past year, on balance, was the largest ever recorded. The Bank of France now holds $350,000,000. The imports of sugar into England show an increase of 22,000 tons; the exports of iron have decreased 23,000 tons, owing to the falling off in the export of rails to the U. S. of 75,000 tons.

The King of Italy gave a brilliant New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, who dined with the ministry at the Quirinal. In the evening the Pope received many visitors, but no speeches were made.

The German government is quietly conciliating the Catholic clergy.

Rumors are afloat of negotiations between Germany and Belgium, which is supposed to indicate preparations for the absorption of the latter by the former. Prussian military officers are said to have been taking military notes along the Swiss frontier.

The Spanish government, on the 23rd of December, confidentially declared, to the other European powers, its firm resolution of satisfying all the just complaints of the Cubans.

The King and Queen of Greece will make a tour in the Spring.

At the New Year's reception, the Emperor of Germany responded to an address in words of national hope and domestic felicitations. To an address from the army he replied praising its efficiency, and assured them of the durability of the peace now enjoyed. Bismarck appeared in excellent health, and was enthusiastically cheered by the people on his arrival at and departure from the palace; he was especially thanked by the emperor for his untiring services. The emperor, in remarks to the diplomatic corps, expressed the heartiest satisfaction at the good relations of the empire with foreign countries, and declared that neighboring states were determined on the maintenance of peace. His Majesty gave a most gracious reception to the French ambassador.

The American colony at Berlin dispensed with the usual New Year's reception in consequence of the absence of Minister Davis.

The Emperor and Empress of Austria held a reception at Buda, Pesth, while Prince Hohenloe held another in their name at Vienna.

A. H. Stephens going to Die.

The World's special from Atlanta reports that Alex. H. Stephens' condition is unfavorable; his trouble is severe cough and expectoration, the bronchial tubes being affected, but not the lungs. His attendants think that he cannot recover, and he himself recognizes the early approach of death.

Another Defaulter.

It is alleged that it has recently been discovered that Charles H. Beckwith, while superintendent of B. T. Babbitt's soap works, from 1868 to 1873, defrauded the concern out of between $200,000 and $300,000. The modus operandi is said to have been the raising of the size of the checks drawn by Babbitt, and, in one case, an absolute forgery. Beckwith was arrested to-day. He was living unostentatiously, and is supposed to have invested the money in some enterprise.

Will Not Pardon Him.

BOSTON, 2.—Governor Gaston stated positively that he would not pardon Spence Petters, notwithstanding the recommendation of the council.

Dead.

NEW BEDFORD, 20.—Hon. Jas. M. Clifford, ex-Governor of this State, died, to-day, of dropsy, aged 66.

Damage by Storm.

SPRINGFIELD, Ills. 2.—In a gale here, last evening, the roof of the Springfield Iron Co's. mill, now in process of erection, was blown off and a portion of the wall was torn down; the loss is not less than ten thousand dollars, and falls principally on the Keystone Iron Roofing Co. of Pittsburg.

Awards by Mexican Claim Commission—The U. S. Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, 2.—Council who have business before the U. S. and Mexican Commission say that the sum awarded to Mexican citizens will be probably two million dollars, and to citizens of the U. S. between five and six millions. According to the terms of the treaty the U. S. will give credit to the Mexican government for the amount which will finally be awarded its citizens, to be paid to them by Mexico, and the sum due by Mexico to citizens of the U. S. will be paid this government in annual instalments of $300,000 in geld or its equivalent.

The Supreme Court will resume its session to morrow, when it is expected that an opinion in the Grant Parish case, involving the constitutionality of the enforcement act, will be delivered.

WESTERN.

Celebration of New Years—Dead.

SAN FRANCISCO, 2.—New Year's Day was celebrated here by the suspension of business. At midnight salutes were fired, bells rung, and whistles blown, and there was a general display of bunting throughout the city and in the harbor; there were also appropriate church services.

Colonel Sidney A. Stockdale, a member of Gen. Grant's staff in the latter part of the war, died on Christmas day at San Diego; his body was sent east yesterday.

Indians Routed.

A dispatch from San Diego says—"Col. Minez, with Sonora State troops, attacked the main body of the Yaqua Indians at Pittohalla, on the 3d of December, and routed them with the loss of about two hundred killed and wounded; the Mexican loss is twenty wounded.

Bad Weather at Sea.

The ship Itasca arrived to-day, two hundred and fifty-three days from Baltimore. She had a successive gale for one hundred and twelve days in the Southern hemisphere. Her decks were swept and bulwarks stove, and she was leaking badly on August 21st, and G. A. Wins, the second mate, and Daniel Sheran, a seaman, were swept overboard. Three seamen died of hardship and exposure when seventy-five days off the Horn. At one time there were only four men for duty. She stopped at Juan Fernandes for water.

FOREIGN.

SPAIN.

Carlists Concentrating.

SAN SEBASTIAN, 2.—The Carlists are concentrating a large force near the frontier.

Election for Members of the Cortes.

MADRID, 2.—The elections in Porto Rico for members of the Cortes will be held February 15th.

PRUSSIA.

Reforms in Herzegovina.

BERLIN, 2.—The note drawn up by Count Andrassy, the Austrian Premier, relative to reforms in Turkey, has received the approval of Russia, and is understood to have been dispatched to the guaranteeing powers; the note proposes equality of all religious denominations and the introduction of provincial and communal self-government, and that the first results of these changes in the insurgent provinces shall be the imposition of taxation by the provinces themselves, and the abolition of serfdom.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Advised to Observe Strict Neutrality.

LONDON, 2.—A Vienna dispatch to the Times says that in answer to a request made by the Prince of Montenegro, to be allowed to enter into action, Russia has advised him, on no account, to depart from neutrality; the Prince has sent assurances that he will follow this advice. The report that Montenegro had raised a loan is contradicted.

WEST INDIES.

Wants Mr. Fish Checked.

HAVANA, 2.—The Diaro de la Marina, in a leading editorial, says that the Spanish government should proceed with dignity, preserving its independence and giving Secretary Fish the check he merits, if he pretends to meddle with our internal affairs.

FRANCE.

A Note About Cuba.

PARIS, 2.—La Liberte newspaper states that Mr. Washburn, the American ambassador, has communicated to M. De Cases, minister of the foreign office, a note from his government in relation to Cuba, in which it is declared that it is by no means desirable to annex the Antilles or to require Spain to grant an autonomy to Cuba, although they desire to see reforms effected.
