

SCHMITZ SHORN OF AUTHORITY

Board of Supervisors Appoint James L. Gallagher Acting Mayor.

WILL ASSUME DUTIES AT ONCE

About First Act Will be to Demand the Resignation of Practically the Entire Schmitz Administration.

San Francisco, June 17.—Under orders of William H. Langdon, the board of supervisors, shortly after 7 o'clock tonight, adopted a resolution declaring Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz temporarily unable to perform his official duties, and appointing Supervisor James L.
Gallagher acting mayor. The latter says he will assume the mayoralty at once and he denies that he has made a deal with Dist. Atty. Henry, Rudolph Spreckels and associates to resign as mayor in order to make way for a reform mayor, whose name is yet to be announced.

Mr. Langdon, Asst. Dist. Atty.
Henry, Rudolph Spreckels and their immediate associates in the briberytrust prosecution, are by this move placed in actual control of the municipal situation. That they will be allowed to so remain without legal constraint by the convicted mayor's attorneys is not suspected. It is the plan of the prosecution forces to call for the resignation in a few days of some one of the supervisors. This forthcoming action, acting Mayor Gallagher will appoint for the vacancy a man named as the district attorney. So soon as he takes office, Gallagher will resign from the mayor's chair and his resignation will be accepted.

The board acting under orders from the prosecution, will then elect the new member as president pro tempore, and by virtue of that office will at once become acting mayor. The man most persistently mentioned for this place is Atty. Joseph Dwyer, president of the Independent League, but that notional connection is said to render him unacceptable to Mr. Spreckels, the financial guarantor of the whole bribetrust investigation.

The first act of the reform mayor, if the prosecution's program is carried out, will be to demand the resignation of practically the entire Schmitz administration, whose places will be filled with reform agents as fast as vacancies are created. Unless disturbed by the courts, the new regime will not begin until next January, the time for the induction of the officers to be chosen at the municipal election next November.

Mayor Schmitz, convicted last week of the crime of extortion, remains a prisoner in the city and county jail.
He is to be sentenced by Judge Dwyer June 27. His lawyers maintain that his incarceration does not disable him from performing the duties of office, and they say today's action of the board of supervisors is revolutionary and entirely illegal. It is understood that they will test the latter claim by instituting quo warranto proceedings for a writ of review, or asking for an injunction restraining Gallagher from assuming the mayoralty.

The resolution declaring the mayor's inability and appointing Supervisor Gallagher to fill it was adopted after a fight on the floor. It was opposed by Supervisors Twinn and O'Neill. It was voted for by 12 supervisors, each of whose confessions to bribe-taking is transcribed in grand jury records. As none of those has been indicted for bribe-taking, the general understanding is that they are to escape punishment; if they continue to do the bidding of the district attorney and his prosecu-torial associates. No denial of this has been made by Mr. Langdon, Mr. Henry or Mr. Spreckels.

IDAHO BABE IN THE SAGEBRUSH

A Nineteen-Months Old Child Wanders Far, Far From Home.

HE WAS GONE FORTY HOURS.

Little Lawrence Marsh for Two Nights Was Exposed to Cold and Danger From Wild Animals.

Boise, Idaho, June 17.—Toddling along in a wilderness of towering sagebrush, his throat parched with a thirst of 40 hours, his sturdy little legs torn and bleeding from briar thorns, the 19-months-old boy baby of Lawrence Marsh, residing near Caldwell, was found today alive and prattling to himself after a search which began with the child's disappearance on Saturday night and in which a posse of several hundred men was employed. Exposed to the biting winds of two frosty nights, imperiled by prowling coyotes and bad badgers, without food or water, the tiny mite of humanity with dressed in a simple blue dress, had wandered seven miles from his home. The child's escape from death, or serious mishap is regarded as almost incredible. He was found in the heart of the sagebrush, where the chances were many that the little form of the wanderer would be entirely overlooked.

As Henry Hawthorne, one of the searchers, led his horse to where the boy was standing, the little fellow looked up wide-eyed at the strange man in blue flannel shirt and wide brimmed hat, and then at the horse.
"Pony, baby ride pony," the youngster questioned with gleaming eyes.
"You bet you can, bless your little old heart," cried Hawthorne. "Tenderly the rough man took the babe in his arms and galloped away to join the other searchers and convey the glad news to the terrified parents. In a large quantity had been carried along by the searchers, many of whom were by far more exhausted than the 19-months-old boy, and the little fellow was given a great tin cup filled to the brim. He drank it all and then for probably the first time since his wandering began, he cried for more.

The case of the boy resembled in many of its features the recent disappearance of 4-year-old Horace Marvin in Delaware, although there was no suggestion here of kidnapping and the search found a far happier termination.
Mrs. Marsh started out in the sagebrush Saturday evening just before sundown to round up two of her husband's horses. Unknown to her the child followed and was soon swallowed up in the prairie-like country. Two hours later the search began. All Saturday night the neighbors of the Marsh family kept to the fields and Sunday morning their numbers were augmented by scores of volunteers from the city of Caldwell and from Emmett. No trace of the boy was found until Saturday night, when it was reported that footprints were seen in the immediate vicinity of a badger hole. Wild stories as to the child's possible fate and the circumstances were soon in circulation, but the searchers themselves were not satisfied. Then came the report that coyotes may have attacked the boy and carried away his body to their hiding place.

Bloodhounds from the state penitentiary were called out yesterday, but could trace the boy only a short distance from his home.

PAVING FOR BOISE.
Boise, Idaho, June 17.—The Boise city council has decided to add to the curbs of about 48 blocks of paved streets to the city, to cost over a quarter of a million dollars. Boise is now making more advanced progress than any other city in the state in the city's history, and the improvements being made are particularly substantial.

IDAHO LAND FRAUDS.

Defendants Sentenced to Fines and Various Terms of Imprisonment.

Portland, Ore., June 17.—A special to the Oregonian from Moscow, Idaho, says: Sentences were pronounced today on defendants in the North Idaho land fraud cases. William Dwyer was given 18 months in the penitentiary with a fine and also a sentence of eight months in the county jail. The penitentiary sentence is for subornation of perjury for which he was convicted last fall. C. W.
Robertson was sentenced to six months in the penitentiary for subornation of perjury, and a fine of $100. William E. Ket-tenbach, president of the George Scooter cashed of the Lewiston National bank of Lewiston, Idaho, were each sentenced to six months in the county jail and to pay a fine of $1,000 each. Appeal bonds in each case were fixed at $2,500. Ket-tenbach and Dwyer were sentenced to be on probation for one year, and if convicted of conspiracy to defraud the government of Idaho they would be sentenced to the state penitentiary. The jury returned the verdict of guilty Saturday night as to Kettenbach and Dwyer on the conspiracy charges.

FIVE PEOPLE DROWNED.

Two Sisters, a Brother, a Mother and An Aunt Perish.

Seattle, June 17.—Five people, two sisters, a brother and aunt, perished at Anacortes, in the waters of Lake Sammamish today. The boat, a two-mile distant from the lake, and is the scene of a sawmill industry. The men of the community, who were helpless, and the time, and the women were helpless.

The dead:
Elizabeth Meyer, 15 years.
Ida Meyer.
Mrs. John Herter, sister of Mrs. Meyer.
Annie had gone in swimming and got into the undertow. Lizzie plunged in to save him but suffered a similar fate.
Mrs. Meyer was the next to sacrifice herself and Mrs. Herter, who was sentenced to an effort that proved fatal. The bodies of the four women were recovered tonight.

INTENSE HEAT IN SPAIN.

Madrid, June 18.—The heat here is intense. On Sunday it was 95 in the shade.
King Alfonso and Queen Victoria are enjoying the cool atmosphere at La Granja, where they will probably remain a month. It is reported that the king will spend a fortnight on the Isle of Wight in August.

SAVED THE BABY.

Little Girl Caught One Falling From
The Fourth Floor.

Chicago, June 18.—Falling from a fourth floor porch, 2-year-old Vera Mosca escaped unharmed yesterday because her 8-year-old sister, Gladys, at the risk of her own life, rushed beneath the falling child and caught her in her arms.
"I caught her just like a basketball," Gladys explained, after she had picked herself up unharmed from the ground on which she and the rescued baby had rolled.
Gladys' attention was attracted by the scream of a woman who lives in the third flat. She was on her back porch and saw the child fall from the from the same physical disturbances, and the nature of their duties, in many cases, quickly drift them into the horrors of all kinds of female complaints, organic troubles, ulceration, falling and displacements, or perhaps irregularly or suppression causing backache, nervousness, irregularity, and sleeplessness.

Women everywhere should remember that the medicine that holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from simple native roots and herbs. For more than thirty years it has been helping women to be strong, regulating the functions perfectly and overcoming pain. It has also proved itself invaluable in preparing for child birth and the change of life.

Mrs. A. M. Hagermann, of Bay Shore, N. Y., writes:—Dear Mrs.
Pinkham:—"I suffered from a displacement, excessive and painful functions so that I had to lie down or sit still most of the time.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman so that I am able to attend to my duties. I wish every suffering woman would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and see what relief it will give them."

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female illness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for advice. She is the Mrs. Pinkham who has been advising sick women free of charge for more than twenty years, and before that she assisted her mother-in-law Lydia E. Pinkham in advising. Therefore she is especially well qualified to guide sick women back to health.

NATURE AS A SCULPTOR.

Among all the curious freaks of nature due to the long continued influence of climatic routine there is nothing more wonderful than the specimen shown herein. It is in Devonshire, England, and stands in the middle of a level plain that is almost destitute of rocks. When viewed from certain favorable directions it is almost impossible to believe that it is not the work of man.

TEACHING MARKETING.

A novel departure has just been made in the cooking departments of the Birmingham elementary schools. Once a week the pupils, whose ages range from seven upward, are taken out to the cooking mistress on a marketing expedition. Various shops are visited and the girls instructed in front of the window which articles to buy and which to avoid and those most adaptable to certain dishes.

CANARIES FROM GERMANY.

Germany carries on a large trade in the export of canaries. Every year she sends no fewer than 130,000 of these birds to America, 3,000 to England and about 2,000 to Russia. The great nur-ery for the breeding of canaries is the Hartz mountains. Many of the peasant are engaged in the work of rearing the birds and receive wages of from $10 to $15 a year for their trouble—an important addition to their earnings.

Rio Janeiro, June 18.—The president's message regarding the coffee situation has been referred to a committee. It is believed that it favors the petition of the growers, who are asking the govern-to destroy the whole crop of 1908, estimated at $,000,000 bags.
