

THE BULLION-BECK.

A Sensational Aftermath to Saturday Night's Hoaxing.

MR. BECK VERY MUCH AROUSED.

He Abrogates the Authority He Gave to Mr. Ryan as His Agent—What the Latter Says.

That all is not peace and quiet among the board of directors of the Bullion-Buck and Champion Mining company is quite evident from the attitude of some of the members toward each other. In last evening's News there appeared an announcement of a change in the directors by which General H. H. Clark was succeeded by Mr. J. C. Osgood, who resigned.

The change is understood to have been unauthorized by Mr. Beck, at least to the extent that he desired action postponed until yesterday instead of being taken Saturday night. That he has a special wrath against Mr. H. M. Ryan, whom he charges the mismanagement of what he terms a scheme concocted to injure his interests in the company, is evident from a circular communication addressed to Ryan and published in a morning paper today.

In this document Mr. Beck demands the resignation of Mr. Ryan as director, and further that he should be removed from the company. The circular is signed by Mr. Beck, and is dated October 22, 1904.

Commenting on Mr. Beck's circular, Ryan says in a representative of the News today: "I very much regret the publication of this circular, and I am sure that it is not the intention of Mr. Beck to remove me from the company."

Mr. Beck, I understand, has a great deal to say for himself. I am sure that he will be able to explain the situation in a satisfactory manner."
