Southern Rallway and Louisville & Nashville roads are taking passen-gers from a point as near the relay sta-tion in St. Louis as possible.

A STRANGER SUICIDES.

George Elliott Takes Laudanum With Fatal Results.

Weary and tired of life, George Elliott, a stranger, probably from San Francisco, committed suicide last night at the Exchange hotel by taking a bis at the Exchange hotel by taking a big dose of laudanum. Death ensued about midnight, and it is thought that he took the poison about 19:45 o'clock. The man had evidently been sick for some time and had become very despondent over his trouble. When he left his room yesterday morning he complained of not feeling well, and after being out about an hour returned to the room and went to bed. At 5 o'clock yesterday afterto bed. At a o'clock yesterday after noon he was still on the bed. About o'clock he arose again and went out for a few minutes and returning went to sleep. Later he was discovered in an unionscious condition. The police were notified and Dr. C. M. Benedict was called in. He at once announced that the man was suffering from poison and the man was suffering from poison and worked with him for some time, but all efforts to save him were unavailing. There were no letters or notes left which would throw light on the cause of his act. The body was removed to the undertaking establishment of Joseph Wm. Taylor, where it will be prepared for burial.
