pecial Correspondence. Orangeville, Emery Co., Feb. 25.-In an article from Castle Dale Feb. 18, and published in the semi-weekly "News" f the 22nd, it is said in referring to th oings of the grand jury, "They in two indictments. It is reported that one is against the school trustees, etc. the other against young Peacock of Orangeville for hitting Robert Neilser over the head with a beer bottle the night that Nellsen died."

The people of Orangeville feel that your correspondent was not fair in not waiting a few hours until the truth could be known and not be in such hasie to darken the cloud that restsup young Peacock, using only that shadow of fact, "It is reported." The facts are the grand jury thoroughly investigated the Neilson case, and confirmed th verdict of the coroner's jury, that th evidence was not sufficient to show that Neilsen came to his death from being hit with a beer bottle, and while there is a mystery about the sudden death of Robert Nellsen, it is not, and never has been here, or in this county, considered or treated as a joke or farce, the contemptible insinuations of a Sah Lake morning paper to the contrary notwithstanding, and we think that that paper should apologize to the peo-ple of Emery county, and the "News" should correct, as far as possible, the false impression made in the reporting of an indictment assolute wourd. Peo-

of an indictment against young Pea-cock. His connection with the death of Robert Nellsen has been carefully in vestigated by two fair, impartial, in telligent juries and he was exonerated by both.
