TERMS—IN ADVANCE.

AL AND OTHER MATTERS.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY, APRIL 25.

Immigrants Arrived.—We are enabled to publish the following list:

NEW YORK, April 24.

John Taylor.

From Nevada company, in charge Elder John Donaldson, arrived yesterday, and will leave to-morrow.

JAS. H. HART.

From the South.—To-day we had pleasure of meeting Elder War-Johnson, just arrived from the h. He has been located for years at Lee's Ferry, on the Colorado River, a very lonely spot, and passing that way and the travel being comparatively easy. He will leave in a few days for his old home in New Hampshire, the purpose of laboring as a missionary and visiting relatives and old friends and acquaintances.

Cause of Diphtheria.—The following regarding diphtheria is suggestive:

Mr. Helot, of Bolbec, France was a case of an epidemic of diphtheria, in a previously healthy village near Caux. A tripe dealer had large quantities of animal refuse in a pond near his house, and it was denounced as a nuisance. The mud and water were applied to the land as manure. A serious epidemic of diphtheria broke out and lasted six months. A similar case was committed a second time, with the same results."

Funerals.—The services over the remains of Elder Joseph L. Barfoot held in the 21st Ward meeting house to-day, conducted by Bishop's assistant H. J. Folger. The house was filled with the relatives and friends of the deceased. The opening prayer was offered by Elder Tuddenham, and addresses, consistent of the respected dead and directing to the relatives of her Barfoot, were delivered by George Reynolds, Bishop

nas Taylor, Elders J. Tudden-ham, H. J. Folger, Junius F.

W. H. John, Nicholson, H. W.

Witt, George Bywater, and President A. M. Cannon. The benediction was pronounced by Counselman E. Taylor.

Singing exercises were conducted by the ward choir.

Institutional Convention.—The session met in the City Hall at 10 o'clock this afternoon; one member responded to the reading of their names. Mr. Boyle was in alternate place of J. S.

of Utah County. The committee on revision made a full report, after which the committee went into committee of the whole. The secretary read the Constitution through to the entire. The committee of the whole and reported progress.

Motion of Mr. Wells it was advised that a committee of five be appointed before the final adjournment of the convention to present a memorial to Congress to be sent with the Constitution.

Adjourned till 10 o'clock a. m.

to-morrow.

Burglar Captured.—It has come to the knowledge of the public that a sack of the goods stolen the other night from the premises of Wm. Eddington and Mrs. Tait was found secreted near the J. R.

Wells' lonely, vacant building, used for smelting works, north of Warm Springs, steps were taken to catch the burglars. Officer Salmon went up at 11 a. m. yesterday in company with Mr. Nichols and a watchman of the building.

awaited patiently the coming of the robbers. Shortly after eight o'clock the watchers were rewarded by the appearance near the building of two men. While Messrs. Salmon and companions were observing their movements, preparatory to making the capture, Officer James Malin rode up on horseback, to relieve Mr.

Salmon.

Mr. Malin was taken in the darkness for one of the robbers, and one of the watchers brought a gun to bear on him, while Mr. Salmon and the other pursued the two thieves, who started to run. Mr. Salmon sent several shots after the fugitives, one of whom surrendered and was brought in by the officer. In the meantime Mr. Malin had explained who he was and started after the remaining thief, but unfortunately the night at that hour was cloudy and dark, rendering his capture an impossibility.

The man who was caught gives his name as J. Canard.

With him was found, in addition to a portion of the property stolen from Mr. Eddington and Mrs.

Tait, the articles stolen from the residence of Mr. Adolph Anderson, of the Seventh Ward, consisting of a lady's satchel, jewelry, silk handkerchiefs, etc.

Yesterday, Mr. Elbert Soper of the 11th Ward, had a suit of clothes stolen from his residence. When arrested Canard was dressed in this same suit.

To-day Canard was taken before Justice Pyper to answer to the charges of robbing Mr. Adolph Anderson and Mr. Elbert Soper, and was in each case committed, in default of $300 bonds, to answer to the grand jury.

He has yet to be examined on the charge of committing the burglarious robbery of the premises of Mr. Eddington and Mrs. Tait.

It is a matter for congratulation that one of these desperate characters now infesting the city has been caught and will be kept where he will do the least harm. Strong hopes are entertained that his confederate will be captured also.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, APRIL 26.

Serious Accident.—This afternoon a painter at work in the interior of the Groesbeck Block, Wasatch corner, had a severe fall, through the ladder on which he was standing slipping from under him. His arm was broken and it was thought that he was otherwise injured internally.

He was conveyed to the Sisters' Hospital.

Edward Dawson is the name of the unfortunate man.

Narrow Escape.—About noon today the delivery horse, with wagon attached, of Mr. Balmforth, green grocer, ran away from the front of his place opposite the Walker House. The animal headed directly for the stable and in its career knocked down a small child, which had a narrow escape from serious injury. Luckily it only received a few slight bruises and scratches.

The Third Case.—J. Canard, the burglar captured on Monday night at the Nichols Smelter, was examined in the police court to-day on

Mr. Eddington and Mrs. Tait. In default of $500 bonds the accused was committed to await the action of the grand jury. This makes case number three for which Canard is under commitment.

A Utah Stock Association.—

Mr. Samuel Holt, of Logan, favors our suggestion for the organization of a Utah Stock Association. He writes:

"In your paper of the 15th you ask: How would it work to have a Utah Stock Association? I say, let us have one. It is just what we want. We want more unity in this business."

If there is a sufficient number of cattle raisers and grangers with similar views to those entertained by Mr. Holt, the next thing is to take steps toward organizing. If such an association accomplished no more than the protection of Utah stock against the depredations of cattle thieves, who thrive in this western country, it would be a good thing.

Sugar Cane Cultivation.—The

raising of sugar cane is a very important part of the Utah farming industry. It has declined somewhat of late years, but is beginning to revive again. It is being gradually discovered that the syrups from the East, supposed to be produced from cane, but which are often considerably adulterated, are inferior to the better qualities of those made at home. Those who are giving any attention to sugar cane cultivation are mostly getting the superior qualities of seed, foremost among which is the Amber.

The price of this seed, to import it from the East, averages, we understand, 25 cents a pound. For the benefit of those who desire to obtain it we are enabled to state that John Rowley, of Nephi, has made a specialty of raising it, and can supply the genuine article at the low figure of five cents a pound. Being produced here it is more likely to grow and flourish than imported seed.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, APRIL 27.

MISSIONARIES.

The missionaries expecting to take their departure from this city on Tuesday next, May 2nd, for Great Britain and Scandinavia, as heretofore notified, will not now be expected to leave until Tuesday, May 9th, this change being made to meet arrangements for the sailing of the steamship from New York.

JOSEPH F. SMITH.

Seriously Ill.—We regret to learn of the serious illness of Bishop Mousley, of Farmers Ward.

Advantageous.—If R. Wilkin will call at the office, he will learn of something to his advantage.

On the Way.—Elder Charles W.

Stayner and wife will probably arrive in the city on Sunday or Monday evening. They purposed stopping a day at New York and another at Chicago, but as they are traveling by regular passenger express they will get in a day or two ahead of the company. They are accompanied by Mr. Joseph Rivett, of Stockport, England, who comes on a visit to his aunt, Mrs. M. Barrett, of the 12th Ward of this city.

Crop Statements.—The York

Times publishes the following statement of the present agricultural status of Utah:

"Spring wheat, oats and barley are in prime condition, with ten per cent more acreage. Corn and potatoes will be largely planted. Fruit was never more promising."

It is devoutly to be hoped this is true, but we are inclined to think the Times informant has been doing some tall guess work on the subject. Similar statements are made about every State and Territory in the Union except Nevada.

Perhaps somebody would like to see a wheat tumble.

A Stirring Runaway.—Last evening a team and wagon loaded with furniture was standing at the
