straight republican movement in that State. You are opposed then to the Mahone movement? Yes, and I always have been. I think it was a great political blun-der to unite the republican party with the readjusters. The republi-can party has been always devoted to upholding the public faith, and this fact contributed powerfully to the victory of 1880. To turn right Olly for the republicans.

What would you have advanced n 1881, when the split came in the Virginia democracy? I would have advanced, and did advance so far as it was my business, that the republican party should adhere to their own standard and not become complicated with any theories of repudiation.

How was Garfield's cabinet on that question? Divided, said Mr. Blaine; divided about as evenly as seven men can divide on any question, and there-2d, removed it from consideration.

Well do you think Virginia should be expected to pay the debt in full, principal and interest?
No, said Mr. Blaine, I do not, and her creditors do not expect it. The erous adjustment, but they want the adjustment to be all on one side and toginave an allowance thrown Principally because she was torn and dismembered by the war, said Mr. Blaine, and ther ability to pay was very greatly impaired. No other State of the Contederacy suffered as Virginia did. No other State was mutilated as she way. West Virginia, that was torn from her in the violence of war as a wer measure, is an empire of wealth lost forever to the o'd State. No equal area in this country it so rich in natural resources as West Virginia. The people desired a new State and would have it, but the loss to the old State was very great.

What do you think will be the end

I do not know, said Mr. Blaine, but I should be glad to see the gene-ial government aid Virginia in some practicable way in settling her debt. When we were at war with Mexico and dismembered her territory, we made her an allowance of many millions of dollars, and I think we could afford to be equally just and ly burned. generous to one of our own States that we dismembered for our own

Would not that strike the country as a novel proposition?
