CAPTAIN SULLIVAN WISS.

The suspended Captain O'Brien Belcher stated by the Board of Commissioners after a full hearing of the case.

The press was not permitted to sit right in to try the case against Assistant Chief Justice and Captain Sullivan. Chairman Jennings was absent at the Spring, being detained in an accident. He was notified but was unable to come. Commissioners themselves were compelled to leave. Judge Hoge urged that the trial should be postponed on account of the absence of Mr. Jennings. Justice Powers not only voted his demand but also voted to let the documents be ready and had their witnesses present. The board denied that the commissioners had the right to a trial at the present time.

The Sullivan case was the first time, J. T. Berry was the first witness. He was driver at Engine House No. 2. He said that on May 23 at about 9 o'clock, only two men were present. There were originally seven men at the department meeting the captain. It had been decided to handle the hose and engine property. McDonald and witness were the men on duty. Captain Sullivan was not on duty at that time. He did not think Sullivan was on duty May 23.

The witness acknowledged that he did not enter every item at the time it happened, but between the ten items he named that Sullivan was on duty.

Assistant Chief Donovan was the next witness. He said that he had been in charge of Engine House No. 2 during a part of May. On the evening of May 23, he was on duty at 9 o'clock, two men were on the station duty. Sullivan's private memorandum was referred to in order to check his statement. It was shown that Sullivan was present on May 23.

Chief Donavan testified that Sullivan was unable when he was forthy by his side on March 11 to conduct his duties due to April 20, May 1st, and May 23rd, but he was not sure about May 23rd. He said that he had been the walking delegate of the Carpenter's Union for two or three weeks. This line of examination was continued until the board stopped it. Witness brought the carpenter's union up to the court. He stated he has effects whom he must have confidence in.

Judge McKey: "Haven't you cause to get off?"

Witness: "No sir, I only wanted to get off because of the particular way he had me."

Witness: "He had me."
