

BEECHER AND BALLOU.—Once upon a time, says the narrator, Lyman Beecher and Hosea Ballou, met to compare Calvinism and Universalism. Both were Bible men, and each came armed with textual missiles. After several apostolic blows from each, shrewdly parried by the other. Dr. Beecher opened to the ninth Psalm and read: "The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all nations that forget God." "There, sir, the wicked are in hell: get them out, if you can." Hosea Ballou, calm as a summer morning, pointing to the 20th chapter of John's Revelation, read: "Death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them." "There," said Father Ballou, "they are out; get them in again if you can."—Salem Gaz.

A Paris coachman having lost his tongue by an amputation—considered necessary because of a cancer thereon—a surgeon of the Hotel Dieu replaced it with one made of India rubber. Although he cannot speak, he tastes and smokes his pipe with apparent enjoyment. After eating, he takes out his tongue, cleans it, and carefully lays it away in his pocket until it is again called into requisition.

A paper in Cassell's Magazine indicates a strange analogy between the age of men and the age of ships. Many perish almost at their birth. During the last eight years no fewer than 1,135 newly built ships have been wrecked in their first voyages, whilst others, bearing as it were a charmed life, survive to ninety or a hundred years—there being four on Lloyd's list that are more than one hundred years old.

A remarkable medical discovery has recently been made in the treatment of deafness by Professor Scott, of the New York Medical University, by which the most apparently hopeless cases are radically cured. The method consists in introducing atomized oxide of phenyl directly into the cavity of the tympanum.

TO THE MUSICALLY INCLINED,
And to those desirous of Learning Music!

Mrs. WHITE, of Rochester,
TEACHES Robbins' American Method for the Piano, which is so far superior to the old method of teaching the Piano, Melodeon or Organ that its full importance can scarcely be estimated. It is a century ahead of all other methods for the Piano—Pupils acquiring a knowledge of Music in an almost incredibly short time.

References to and letters of recommendations from the most eminent Professors of Music in the East.
Mrs. WHITE is stopping at the TOWNSEND HOUSE for a limited time, where she can be found, and full particulars learned. Private tuition given. d25-tf

YEAR 1868.

G

WE return our sincere thanks to this People for the liberal Patronage we have received, and in view of the great scarcity of money and the decline in the value of some kinds of Goods east, we have determined to offer our Stock at a heavy Discount for CASH!

WE will allow a Discount of TEN PER CENT. on all Groceries, except Tea, Sugar, Coffee, Candles and Soap.

A Discount of TEN PER CENT. on all Dry Goods, Clothing and Hardware, except Nails, Horse and Mule Shoes.

A Discount of TWENTY PER CENT. on Hoods, Nubias, and all Goods of this description, including Hats and Caps.

A Discount of from TEN to TWENTY PER CENT. on all kinds of Dishes, Plates, Cups and Saucers, Glassware, Castors, &c., &c.

ARGUMENT:

THIS we think better for the Customer than Enterprises on the Lottery Plan, these having been tried elsewhere and not found profitable to the investors.

The People know quite well already who sells the Cheapest and Best Goods, and when they get them, knowing them to be cheap, and then get a Discount of from Ten to Twenty per Cent., we think they will come to the conclusion that it is better to have the full benefit of what they spend at once and on the spot, than take ONE Chance in FIFTY of drawing something, some time in the future.

You are not required to purchase "Ten Dollars" worth to entitle you to the Discount, but we will allow it in all cases, whether the purchase be large or small.

This is to give the poor man or poor woman, who cannot get held of "Ten Dollars," a chance to buy Goods Cheap.

COME AND TRY IT.

WHY DO WE OFFER THESE TERMS?

Because we are like most of our neighbors, wanting money badly.
