Various Diseases. Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointment, and hereditary disposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light and red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action, and removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brassy, weak or sickly hair, to which few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft, lustrous and richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil nor color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous. For sale by all druggists. d19

The society of Diamonds, Gold and Silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value.

Thus it is with a valuable medicine. Dr. Aug. Kaiser's Celebrated German Pulmonic Elixir, through the jealousy of five or six years, met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom or put out a prairie fire with a hair.

For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchial Affections, it is unequalled. Its cure is truly magical. Ask your Druggist for this genuine bear the Prussian Coat of Arms, the facsimile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. Trial bottle, 25 cents.

The Entertainment.—The great attraction for the Twenty-Fourth

Entertainment in the Tabernacle. The committee certainly provided a fine treat for the visitors from all parts who attended, the entertainment being of a high order in class and merit. In short this was its greatest fault, as the building is too vast and stupendous to admit of the soft passages being properly heard and duly appreciated.

The Sunday Schools formed a very beautiful feature, there being between 3,000 and 4,000 children present; but the little folks as might be expected were somewhat restless and the quiet being more or less disturbed in consequence, the very beautiful and difficult performances of Prof. Welhe on the violin, and Prof. Dwyer on the piano, as also the charming songs of Miss Olson and Miss McKay were comparatively lost to a large portion of the audience. However, these performances, as did also others that appeared, receive strong appreciative marks of approval, and Prof. Welhe was deservedly encouraged and gave a third evidence of his wonderful genius in handling the king of stringed instruments.

The first appearance of Zion's Musical Society which formed one of the attractions of the day, was an unqualified success. They rendered several pieces in a masterly manner, and their aid in the choir with the mammoth organ was marked and appreciated. This society number over 300 ladies and gentlemen, quite a number of whom are of recognized musical ability. Some of the voices are really excellent, and in a smaller building, such as the Theatre or the New Tabernacle now in process of erection, their possessors would shine as vocalists of a rare order. Prof. C. J. Thomas is the conductor of the society.

Another very nice feature was the singing of Mrs. Ferguson's normal class, consisting of about a dozen voices. This class has been training only six weeks, and already exhibits a proficiency quite surprising in singing from the notes, and does credit to the lady in charge of their studies.

One of the most enjoyable pieces was a commemorative song, written expressly for the occasion by Brother Charles W. Stayner, music composed by Brother Joseph J. Daynes. The sentiment of the song, which was well sung by Brother W. H. Foster, touched the hearts of all present, and the grand swell of the chorus rendered by the Musical Society filled every soul with patriotic ardor, and love for the Old Pioneer.

Teamed from the countenances of the audience during its rendition. The Union Glee Club gave some of their choice selections in their usual happy style, and the schools sang three pieces that never fail to please. Their almost numberless voices form a wave of sound that came like the swell of the ocean through the mammoth structure.

This building is better adapted for jubilee purposes than for a concert, and the many solo performances are produced, the effect should be to a great extent reserved for such buildings as are suited to their construction to such performances. But as a whole the entertainment that was given yesterday has probably never been surpassed here, either in variety or artistic merit.

Third District Court.—Proceedings Thursday, July 24, Judge P. H. Emerson, presiding.

Jury notice.—In the Third District Court of Utah, on Tuesday, July 22, 1896, at 10 o'clock a. m., in open District Court, at the court room thereof, in the Washatch building, Salt Lake City, eighteen (18) names will be drawn from the jury box from which to form a Grand Jury at the September term, 1896.

Local Court. Also at the same time and place, thirty-six (36) names will be drawn from the jury box to serve as petit jurors at the said September term of said Court.

PHILIP H. EMERSON, Judge.

SALT LAKE CITY, July 24, 1896.

Emeline A. Young, vs. George C. Cannon et al.; argument on attachment for contempt continued until Friday at 10 o'clock a. m.

Mr. Miner made his argument for the defence this morning, on the part of the Trustee-in-Trust, and was followed by Judge Williams, who was talking when we went to press.

Judge McBride allows for the plaintiff to move.

Base Ball.—A very large crowd witnessed the game yesterday between the Deseret and Omaha, and general good order was observed. The Omaha men, individually, do not look like ball players, but their work yesterday afternoon showed that their good reputation is well deserved. Their fielding and throwing was very fine, and Dolan's playing behind the bat was excellent. Each club charged with six errors, and will probably play better this afternoon and to-morrow. The Deserets seemed discouraged and demoralized, and acted worse than usual. The game, which was on the whole, stoutly contested, terminated with a score of 3 to 2 in favor of the Omaha.

Another game is being played this afternoon, and to-morrow the last and best of the series will take place.

Of the Way.—A dispatch from Elder Budger Clawson to President John Morgan, received Wednesday evening, states that he had been delayed in his departure for home with the body of Elder Joseph standing, on account of a coroner's inquest held over the remains, and the embalming of the corpse for transportation. Elder Clawson started for home yesterday morning and will probably reach this city on Tuesday evening. Elder Clawson has been instructed to telegraph often, from time to time, along the route, as he progresses, so that arrangements for the reception of the body in this city may be completed, and carried into effect. A committee selected from the Y. M. M. I. A. of the State will meet the body at Evanston and escort it home, while other committees will accompany and other transportation regulations.

Police Court.—One individual for indulging too freely in exhibiting fluids was fined $5.

A case against another person for obtaining meals without having the "wherewith" to meet the bill, was discharged on the defendant's paying costs.

A little difficulty between neighbors, was being settled when we went to press.

Runaway.—A team attached to a wagon made a rather hasty and unexpected departure from the Deseret Bank corner this afternoon. A little boy was in the wagon who sat without trepidation while he was being wadded towards West Temple street. A lad on horseback followed, and overtaking the runaway, reached over and grasped the reins, and thus saved the outfit from total demolition. Brave boy.

Severe Injury.—This morning a son of Bishop Keiser, of this city, was brought to his home in an insensible condition and badly bruised. He was found last evening in the southern part of the city and picked up by some friendly of the family. Medical aid was called in and it is thought that the head is not dangerously hurt although the jaw and the right eye are much swollen. The young man, whose name is George, and who is about 24 years of age, rode out last evening on an unbroken horse which he is accustomed to do, and it is thought perhaps was violently thrown. Further developments will doubtless reveal the true state of the case.

The Twenty-Fourth.—There were various methods of celebrating "Pioneer day." As there is always an abundance of Sunday School teachers—at a jubilee, so there are plenty of people who are ready to celebrate a holiday of any kind, and many commemorate a day in the spirit and object of which they have no special sympathy. Consequently the ways and means for celebrating are generally varied, and not unfrequently inappropriate. The opportunities afforded by public gardens, the excursions, and the theatrical and Tabernacle entertainments were not slighted, each receiving a full share of the public patronage, and we doubt not that the day passed pleasantly in all parts of our Territory.

Last Performance.—Those who desire to see "Pinafore" in miniature before it is withdrawn from the Salt Lake stage, had better go to-night and witness the performance, as this evening will be the last presentation of this delightful attraction. Those who have never seen "Pinafore" should not fail to see the "Admiral," his sisters, his cousins and his aunts, and hear their sweet chorus of 150 voices on H. M. S. "Pinafore" this evening.

We made a rather adverse criticism on some of the performances on Monday evening, and we were pleased to see that the suggestions were accepted in the right spirit, and a marked improvement in Wednesday's performance was the result. As the "little folks" appear much larger on the stage, it may be well to state that the oldest performer is only fifteen years old, that being the age of Master Heber Goddard, whose fine bass voice shows its power and volume in the character of Dick Daws, which he admirably personated on Wednesday evening.
