FIFTY WEDDING PERMITS FOR THE WEEK

Cupid Takes Day's Rest After Strenuous Week Commencement.

OGDEN, June 18.—After a very strenuous campaign of more than a week, Jan Cupid had a very light day yesterday and only issued one marriage license at the county clerk's office. The couple who secured the license yesterday were Lutra E. Moore and Rosalea Higginbotham, both of Ogden. Since last Monday about 50 licenses to wed were issued from the clerk's office.

"DOPED" WITH POISONED CANDY

OGDEN, June 18.—Up to the present the authorities have been unable to locate Joe McKay, the blacksmith, who is wanted upon the charge of "doping" with poisoned candy a 12-year-old girl for the purpose of committing a criminal assault. The complainant in the case is Mrs. Herbert Prestin, proprietress of a restaurant on lower Twenty-fifth street, and wife of Herbert Prestin, who was arrested of suspicion as being connected with the murder of Seymour Clark at Utah last November. The victim of McKay's lutenal assault is Dora Belpap, a daughter by a former husband.

MAY FACE GRAVE CHARGES.

OGDEN, June 18.—As a sequel to the case against George Ford, charged with vagrancy and who is serving 180 days in the city jail, for the wrecking of a home in San Pedro, bringing the woman to Ogden and trying to make her lead a life of shame so that he would have ample means with which to gamble, will probably face a more serious charge that will send him to the penitentiary. The man can be prosecuted for the larceny of the woman's husband's trunk and the theft of some jewelry and other articles of value.

HOME FROM SCHOOL.

OGDEN, June 18.—John Guthrie Heywood, son of President A. R. Heywood of the Weber club, has returned to Ogden from the university of Virginia, where he has been attending school for the past year. The young man will spend his vacation in Ogden.

CHARGES WIFE WITH CRUELTY.

OGDEN, June 18.—John H. Thompson has filed a suit for a divorce in the district court against Nellie Thompson upon the ground of cruelty. The parties were married in Wahoo, Neb., in November, 1906, and have resided in Ogden for two years. He alleges that at divers times she has treated him cruelly and that she is unbearable to live with.

No Change Necessary

Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts have always been honestly labeled; no change was necessary since the enactment of the National Pure Food Law, either as to label or their manufacture. They have had for nearly half a century the patronage of the intelligent housewives of this country.

PROPOSITION TO DYKE UTAH LAKE

Commission Would Have Government Take Over Lake Under Reclamation System.

(Special Correspondence.)
PROVO, June 17.—Efforts are now being made by the Utah Lake commission to have the government take over the lake under the reclamation system. By dyking the lake a great area of land can be reclaimed and more water conserved for use in Salt Lake county.

S. S. CONTEST POSTPONED.

PROVO, June 17.—The stake Sunday school musical contest, which was to be held today and Saturday has been postponed till next Thursday and Friday on account of some of the choirs being unprepared.

ELKS INCORPORATE.

PROVO, June 17.—The Provo Lodge No. 849, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, has filed articles of incorporation. The following are the officers: Ben L. Schwab, exalted ruler; L. J. Healy, secretary; Josiah Beck, George E. Ross and John Homer, trustees.

GARDEN CITY NOTES.

W. W. Goodrich has gone to Denver to purchase pure-bred Jersey cattle for the Provo Jersey association.
Dr. George E. Robinson made a trip to Salt Lake and back, yesterday in his automobile.
Provo Camp No. 482 Woodmen of the World will hold memorial services Sunday at the cemetery.

J. A. Homer is back from Washington, where he has completed a law course in the George Washington University. Mr. Homer is undecided whether he will remain in Provo or return to Washington, where he has a clerical position in the war department.

The state board of insanity was in Provo yesterday, and considered with the county committee of the city council the advisability of joining the city in the construction of a sewer from the hospital to the east drain.

"Don's Ointment cured me of eczema that had annoyed me a long time. The cure was permanent."—Hon. S. W. Matthews, Commissioner Labor Statistics, August, Me.

STATE DENTISTS HOLD CONVENTION IN LOGAN

On July 2 and 3, and Will be Royally Entertained by Boosters' Club.

(Special Correspondence.)
LOGAN, June 17.—The state dentists, who hold their nineteenth annual convention in Logan, July 2 and 3, are to be royally entertained by the Boosters' Club during their conference stay. The club has appointed a committee to meet the dentists at Cache Junction and at the station here they will be conveyed to the hotels and at 8:30 p. m. there will be an informal reception at the club rooms, where all were acquainted, following which a dance will be given in the pavilion, with the dentists as guests of honor.
Saturday afternoon, July 3, all the automobiles in town will be put into service and a trip will be taken up the canyon with a trout dinner will be served.
The dentists have issued an eight page program for the occasion.

LOGAN BRIEFS.

Yesterday afternoon the passenger train coming from the south at 1:30 p. m. collided with a wagon driven by John Mockley at the Millville crossing, deducting the wagon to kindling and throwing the man about 50 feet. He was not seriously hurt, however, and the team escaped unhurt.

Miss Ellenor Irvine, the only daughter of Thomas Irvine of this place, and Mr. Ernest Knowles were married in Salt Lake June 16. They returned home this evening and will make their home at 26 west First South in this city.
A new company will be organized in Logan in a few days known as the Intermountain Sporting Goods company. It will deal exclusively in sporting goods as the name suggests. The directors of this new venture are: G. E. Thatcher, H. P. Knels, E. P. Bacon, Thatcher, Dr. H. Campbell, W. S. Hart, Coach Teetzel, A. B. Wright, R. C. Campbell, R. M. Rolfsen and Harry Stoney. R. L. Campbell is the promoter. The quarters will be the Logan Furniture company building across from the Eagle hotel.

ACCIDENT VICTIM SUCCEEDS TO INJURIES

(Special Correspondence.)
LEHI, Utah Co., June 17.—The little 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percer Craft of Deseret, whose arm was shot off a few days ago while the family were visiting relatives at Cedar Fort, this county, died on Sunday at this place, having been brought here for further medical assistance. The little one was buried at Cedar Fort, the home of the family.

JACK SNEDEKER INJURED IN SIGURD GYPSUM MILL

(Special Correspondence.)
RICHFIELD, June 17.—Another accident occurred at the Gypsum mill at Sigurd yesterday in which Jack Snedeker, an employee, nearly lost his life. It occurred in much the same manner and terminated nearly the way as did the accident that happened to young Outzen at the same place a short time ago. In this case Snedeker stepped backwards against a revolving shaft which caught his clothes and stripped them from his body. His right arm was badly lacerated but otherwise he was not seriously hurt. Dr. Steiner of this city dressed the injuries.

RICHFIELD BRIEFS.

In the district court yesterday the case, State vs. George Morrill, came up for hearing, but the jury box was exhausted in the afternoon and an open venire was issued which took the balance of the day. This is a grand larceny case and will likely last several days.

MAPLETON WILL HONOR NATION'S NATAL DAY

(Special Correspondence.)
MAPLETON, Utah Co., June 16.—The town board, assisted by the Commercial club, has set the wheels in motion for a proper observance of the Fourth, and has selected Aaron Johnson, chairman of committee on program.

MAPLETON BRIEFS.

During the recent high water Maple creek threatened to submerge the Dible and Gilliam farms at the mouth of Maple canyon, but was prevented by the citizens turning out and keeping the stream in its proper channel.
The last visit of the stork brought a fine son to the home of John H. Lee. The stork had no trouble finding the Lee home as he had called many times before.

The sale of lots has commenced on the new townsite of Orchards, adjoining the Spanish Fork R. R. station. It is an ideal place for fruit raising.
All crops are excellent here. The heavy crop of lucern is now being cut and hauled.

TOUCHING LESSON ON TEMPERANCE FROM AN INDIAN

(Special Correspondence.)
LANDER, WYO., June 16.—Wolf Bear, a sub-chief of the Arapahoe tribe, preached a forceful and pathetic sermon over the grave of Leo Wolf Bear yesterday. The young buck got drunk a few days ago and laid down on the railroad tracks to sleep and was

RECENT DEATHS

Koerner, Philip C.—From Los Angeles, California, word was received at Ogden announcing the death in that city Monday evening, June 14, of Philip C. Koerner, a well-known electrician who formerly resided in Ogden. Mr. Koerner's death was due to an attack of appendicitis which he had last Thursday. He was removed to the hospital in Los Angeles and everything known to medical science was done for the man, but to no avail. He is survived by a wife and two children. The body will be taken to Ogden for interment.
