Last Evening's Concert.

Stephens' concert and ball at the Theatre last evening was a grand succels throughout, seing attended by a grand larcency; defendants pleaded large and appreciative audience. Those taking part in the performance are well known, and the manner in which they acquitted themselves was highly creditable, both to their leader, Mr. Stephens, and to themselves.

The singing of Mrs. Nellie Druce Pugsley and Miss Bessie Dean was deserving of the highest praise, and the audience showed their appreciation by rand larceny, is on trial. B.

The solo and duct by Mr. A. Nielson and Miss Bessie Dean, "Back to Our Mountains," was brilliantly rendered. The beautiful tenor voice of the former and the deep rich alto of the latter blending harmoniously.

The musical talent of Mr. E Stephens is too well known to need mention. Suffice it to say that it was fullyup to his usual standard of excellence;

The debut of Mr. Easton, was a great success, his full, mellow tenor voice mingling with the beautiful soprano of Mrs. Nellie Pugsley, calling forth enthusiastic applause.

Mr. H. Goddard, M. R. Irvine, Jr., and Miss Sarah Lees did their work well; the "Fair as a rose," by Mr. Geddard being specially good.

The plano solo by little Katle Romney was warmly received. Considering the youth of the performer its rendition was exceedingly meritorious. She is a pupil of Prof. Jos. J. Daynes.

The ball atter the concert kept up to a late hour. The floor was very much crowded, quite a number whose places were properly among the spectators having crowded down; all, however, elected as follows: seemed to enjoy themselves.
