"NO TROUBLE TO SHOW GOODS."
A lady enters our dry goods store, Steps to a clerk who stands near the door.
Asks him to show her the latest style.
And she pulls over the goods mean while,
Says she "I want a dress for my niece."
Will you please show me that under piece?
Oh! I didn't see it was a polka spot.
That is too near the one she's got.
That piece with stripes would just suit my It's just as pretty as it can be.
But she wants a better covered gown.
With a sort of a vine running round.
She doesn't want it to look dark nor jet very light.
Not a striped piece, nor jet very bright.
I think she'd like what you showed me.
But do you think the colors are fast?
Cut off a bit before I decide.
I'll take home a piece and have it tried.
I had a dress like that last fall.
And the colors did not wash at all.
I like those patterns there on the rack.
I'll take a few samples for a friend.
Now, one of this, if you'll be so kind.
And one of this, if you'll be so kind.
The nicest styles I've seen this year.
And you'll secure the trade—no fear.
I've forgot the price—wasn't clear enough.
It's a sort of dark, plain stuff.
Do you think you have it in the store?
The dress is spoiled if I can't get it now.
Will you put these samples in a bag?
I'll know where to get it if you will.
I'll take them home; if she thinks they'll do You'll see me back in a day or two."
—Nephew, Reflector.

Abandoned.
STRAITFORD, Ont., 25.—John Redford, ex-member of Parliament, lumber merchant and broker, has also abandoned to Chicago. His departure is undoubtedly exciting interest, he being a leading man here.
A writ of attachment in insolvency has been issued against him. His affairs are much entangled, and liabilities are reported at half a million dollars.
GREAT BRITAIN.
Earl Derby on the Intolerance of the Spanish Government.
LONDON, 25.—A deputation representing the Protestant missionary and Bible societies had an interview with Earl Derby to-day relating to the intolerant regulations of the Spanish government. Earl Derby, after pointing out the difficulties in which the Spanish government is placed by the strength of the clerical party and the vagueness of the wording of the article of the constitution relative to toleration, said: "Nothing in the articles, however, justifies the closing of Protestant schools, and I do not think the government will so intemperately prohibit many cases of hardship are due to the over zeal of the subordinate officials. I think, with regard to the acts of intolerance which are clearly not sanctioned by the toleration clause of the constitution, that when the Crown is formally proclaimed the freedom of worship, subject to certain humiliations, there can be no question that we have the right to interfere if the promise is violated. But the more difficult case is when the question at issue is the proper construction of the law. I, personally, have no doubt that an exceeding number of the clerical party are in the forced and strained construction of the law, but, in an external manifestation, they are in the right. In shipping with the door open, so that passers may look in, I think we have the right to claim that the law should not be construed unfavorably to the rights of foreigners in Spain, because they undoubtedly have been encouraged to visit Spain, and the understanding that they should be free from this kind of annoyance. I suggest that where those affected think it worth while to remonstrate, they should forward me their complaint, and inquiry shall be made.
Servia-Turkish War News.

A special from Cattaraugus says a report comes from an authentic source that the Montenegrians are unwilling to conclude peace with extensive concessions of territory to the Serbs.
A Vienna telegram states that the Russian consul intimated to Gen. Tchernayeff that his resignation must prevent completion and it is reported that Tchernayeff has refused to resign.
A dispatch from Fradid says the Russian minister of war is in the Caucasus inspecting the fortifications which are finished and in process of construction. He is also reorganizing the truth of the complaints made against the Turks of violating the frontier.
A telegram from Belgrade says:
Col. Nopce, minister of war, returned from the army. He and Gen. Tchernayeff were unable to agree.
A dispatch from Constantinople states that the Porte will reply to the proposal of the Powers on Sunday.
The Times' correspondent at Belgrade telegraphs: There has been no change here to-day, although the excitement is not so great as yesterday. It is believed by the Russians that the conditions of peace proposed by the Powers will be rejected by the Porte. If they are, a continuation of the war is certain. The Russians and Servians are hardly raced and endure a winter campaign, but the Turks cannot.
The Serbian government will maintain silence on the question of making Prince Milan King, but the advocates of Servian royalty, who are a vast majority, declare that the proclamation must be made with all due solemnity in Belgrade.
In such case some consuls would probably be instructed by their government to retire from Belgrade.
A Vienna correspondent of the Times, commenting on General Sawaroff's mission to Vienna, remarks: "This is the same envoy the Czar sent last autumn on a mission to Belgrade to dissuade the Ser-vians from going to war. Although the position appears very peculiar, and the Czar feels prompted to act directly in the affairs of Servia, and thus place himself in a position antagonistic to the interests of Austria. His present envoy is the proper person to communicate his views to the Austrian Emperor, between whom and the Czar is a strong enmity which exists. This personal communication has political importance, irrespective of the contents of the letter of which the envoy is bearer.
News from Constantinople is satisfactory. The Porte is inclined to accept the peace conditions, but seeks a form more compatible with its dignity. Prompt acceptance only of the conditions as they stand can prevent further complications.
