Forty-Seventh Annual Conference.-The Forty-seventh General Annual Conference will convene at 10 s. m. to-morrow, in the Temple of the Lord, at St. George. In our view the Church or its reentatives have never assembled, in this dispensation, in a like capacity under more favorable anspices. The fact of the Saints being in a position to meet on the occasion within the walls of a temple, speci-ally built and dedicated to his name, is sufficient of itself to war-rast this opinion. Many plain and valuable truths had been taken away from the Bible. Gross darkness had been over the earth, and no man was able to say, "Thus saith the Lord." Revelation was necessary to establish the gospel again on the earth. This revelation was given in ac-cordance with God's promise to Abraham. The keys of the Aaronic and the Melchizedic priesthoods were revealed to Joseph Smith by the ministrations of those who had held the keys of the priesthoods in light, and intelligence might be on good as we should be. Theory was past, the days of practice had come and we must learn to live our religion. The elders should wake up and shake off drowsy and slothful feelings. This was an important occasion, and let us make it a turning point in our lives, that we might more faithfully perform every duty required of us and establish Zion. The building of this city was a great miracle. The deserts south of us would be desert, that the thirsty earth might be made fruitful.
