They can be had at this Office, or mailed to any address for

HIGHEST HONORS

AT THE

UNITED STATES

CentennialL

World Exhibition,

1876.

MASON & HAMLIN CABINET ORGANS

Unanimously assigned the

"FIRST RANK IN THE "SEVERAL REQUISITES"

of such Instruments!

The MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. have the honor to announce that the Organs of their manufacture have been unanimously assigned "the FIRST RANK in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of instruments of the class" by the Judges at the CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION at Philadelphia, 1876, and are the ONLY INSTRUMENTS OF THIS GENERAL CLASS AWARDED THIS RANK. This is after the severest competition by the best makers before one of the most competent juries ever assembled.

They have also received the MEDAL, but, as is well known, medals of equal merit have been awarded all articles deemed worthy of recognition; so thus it will be easy for many makers to advertise that they have received "first medals."

The differences in competing articles, and their comparative excellence, are recognized in the Reports of the Judges from which the following is an extract:—

"THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.'S exhibit of Reed Organs and Harmoniums shows instruments of the FIRST RANK IN THE SEVERAL REQUISITES OF INSTRUMENTS OF THE CLASS, viz: Smoothness and equal distribution of tone, scope of expression, resonance and singing quality, freedom and quickness in action of keys and bellows, with thoroughness of workmanship, combined with simplicity of action."

(Signed by all the Judges.)

The Mason and Hamlin Organs are thus declared to rank first, not in one or two respects only, but in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of such instruments, and they are the Only ones assigned this rank. This triumph was not unexpected, for the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs have uniformly been awarded the highest honors in competitions in America, there having been scarcely six exceptions in hundreds of competitions. They were awarded highest honors and

FIRST MEDALS

PARIS, 1867; VIENNA, 1873; SANTIAGO, 1875

PHILADELPHIA, 1876;

and have thus been awarded highest honors at Every World's Exposition!

at which they have been exhibited; being the Only American Organs which have ever obtained any Award at any competition with best European makers, or in any European World's Exposition!

NEW STYLES, with improvements, exhibited at the CENTENNIAL elegant new cases in great variety. Prices very lowest consistent with best material and workmanship. Organs sold for cash on installments, or rented until rent pays. Every Organ warranted to give entire satisfaction to every reasonable purchaser or THE MONEY REFUNDED. ☞ ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUES sent free.

EVENING NEWS

Tuesday, - - August 28, 1877.

SHORT AND SHARP.

A Newark belle, who told her dearest friend that she was going to fly like a bird to the White Mountains, took seventeen trunks with her when she went.

"How to Roast Spring Lamb" is the heading of an article in the last Country Gentleman. So far, so good; but please give us something under the head of "How to Get Hold of Some Mutton."

The times are improving so rapidly that a subscription book publisher does not hesitate to ask a newspaper to give him twenty dollars' worth of advertising for a two dollar book.—Norristown Herald.

The Rothschilds think that, in an emergency they could advance $25,000,000. We are not sure but that we could do the same, but we would like to select the emergency ourselves.—Danbury News.

A Cincinnati liquor dealer applied to a customer for a letter of recommendation of a certain brand of whiskey he had recently sold him. The customer wrote: "I have tried all sorts of insect poison, and find none equal to your old cabinet whiskey."

A party of Boston ladies meandering about Williamstown, Massachusetts, were overtaken by a cow. "Girls," said Miss Culture, of Beacon street, "the antipathy we have for this animal makes it imperative that we emulate certain politicians, so I recommend that we get on the fence."

It seems to make some difference which town a man is Mayor of down in Pennsylvania. The Mayor of Wilkesbarre read the riot act to the mob, and they let a freight train go with blessings and great rejoicing. The Mayor of Scranton read the riot act to his mob, and they broke his jaw with a brick.

When the average woman is engaged in the manufacture of a woolen undershirt for the heathen of the torrid zone, she pities his blind ignorance; but when she finds that the cake she intended for the charity festival is burned at the bottom she respects, yea envies, the Hindoo who can swear by 130,000 gods.—Brookville Jeffersonian.

Wooden handles like a shawl-strap are now put upon the watermelons sold in this city. If the last generation had done its duty in artificial selection and interbreeding, nice handles would have grown upon watermelons by this time, so that they could be carried like a satchel.—Commercial Advertiser.

"Did you say that I was the biggest liar you ever knew?" fiercely asked a ruffian of a counsel, who had been skinning him in his address to the jury: "Yes, I did," replied the counsel, and the crowd eagerly watched for the expected fight. "Well, then," said the ruffian, "all I've got to say is that you couldn't never knowed my brother Jim."

The Rev. Dr. Howard, chaplain to the mother of George III., rector of St. George's, Southwark, was always in arrears with his tradesmen, and was often perplexed to keep them in good temper. He once took for his text, "Have patience and I will pay you all." After dilating at some length on the virtue of patience, he said, "And now I am come to the second part of my discourse, which is, 'and I will pay you all,' but that I shall defer to a future opportunity."
