SAN PEDRO IS OPTIMISTIC.

Reports no Change in Conditions on That Line and Hopes to Open By April 1.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 22.-The railroad situation between here and San Francisco is practically unchanged from yesterday. The Santa Fe and Southern Pacific, by a combination of tracks, are able to get trains through the San Jeaquin valley. The Santa Fe is running all trains regularly, although is running all trains regularly, although their line is still washed out at Stock-ton. At this point the Santa Fe is using the Southern Pacific tracks be-tweeon Gekland and Calva. The South-ern Pacific is keeping both of its reg-ular valley trains running by detour-ing over the Santa Fe between Mojave and Colton. The east line is open as ing over the Santa Fe between Mojave and Colton. The coast line is open as far as San Luis Obisyo from Los Ange-les. It is not expected that the damage at the Santa Margareta tunnel will be repaired short of several days. It was hoped to open the valley line by this evening, but raim is falling again to-day and work is retarded. The Sait Lake reports no change in conditions on that line. It may be open shortly after April 1. If no faither damage ensues. The eastern lines of the South-ern Pacific and Santa Fe are open. The indications are for more rain here.

One Lone Stub Train Leaves Ogden This Atternoon Over U. P. Ogden, Utab, March 22.—Notiling more than a stab train carrying pas-sengers is to leave Ogden over the Union Pacific this afternoou. Rail-road traffic in every direction is de-moralized. The Southern Pacific has scheduled a train from Sacramento to arrive hate this evening without east-ern connection and he attempt is made to run regular trains.

SPIRE AND RAIL.

The westbound trains over the Rid Grande continue to run in several sec-tions daily, on account of the heavy colonisi travel.

Broken rails wrecked a freight at Pixler, Ida., yesterday, delaying travel for five hours. Several cars of mer-chandise were destroyed.

A washout in Silver Creek canyon, east of Park City, delayed travel on the Park City line of the Rio Grande, 139 feet of track going by the board.
