There is a fine display of cosmet flowers in the ladies' waiting room of the Commercial club.

The board of education was to have met yesterday afternoon, but for lack of a quorum, no session was held.

Prunes are plentiful in the local markets, at $1 per basket, and late winter pears are fetching 30 cents per peck.

St. Paul's Episcopal church has been thoroughly renovated and red-coated. Regular services will be resumed tomorrow morning.

The Harvest festival of the Salvation Army begins this evening, and continues Tuesday evening next, when a sale of harvest gifts will be made.

The Dooly annex building is being erected for two stories only at present, and will be roofed over at that height until the town develops further commercially.

The Postal Telegraph company office is now open from 7 a. m. until 2 p. m. and doing a good business. A large portrait of the late John W. Mackay hangs on the walls.

The Davis and Weber county canners have started up again after a brief shut down on account of the weather. Their contracts for the acceptance of tomatoes expire on the 26th inst.

Mrs. William Igelheart will give one of her interesting recitals at the First Presbyterian church on Friday evening next. The subject will be the "Kentucky Cardinal." Music will be provided by Prof. Carlson.

Elder German E. Ellsworth of Lehi has been appointed president of the Northern States mission, to succeed Elder Asaph H. Woodruff, who has presided over that mission for the past two and a half years.

The funeral of the late Alex Stofel will be held tomorrow, at 3 p. m., from the residence, and members of Utah Lodge No. One of Odd Fellows are requested to meet in Odd Fellows hall at 2 o'clock to march in a body to the house.

The Typographical Union has adopted a resolution condemning the inhumanity of the incandescent electric light system of this city as compelling the use of spectacles, and in cases causing semi-blindness, by reason of alleged poor and fluctuating service.

Gov. Sparks of Nevada was in town yesterday, en route to Caliente to take the stump for the Democratic ticket, but received word that his son was very ill at Belmont, Cal., and must return directly. The young man is 15 and an enthusiastic athlete devoted to baseball. As he is a left handed pitcher, it is feared that the continued use of the left arm has affected his heart.

E. F. Jewett of Canyon City, Colo., is in this city to go into the manufacture of fire brick, a superior quality of which bricks can be made in Utah. Mr. Jewett is the labor teacher in Colorado have lost that unhappy sum of $50,000 in loss of business, destruction of property and in wages lost to the working classes, and he fears for the future, no matter how the November elections go.

At the University Sunday school, which convenes tomorrow at 10 a. m., in Barratt Hall, Dr. J. E. Talmage will deliver the fourth lecture in the series, "Jesus, the Christ." The special topic is, "What need of a Reformer?" Printed outlines of the lecture will be distributed. Those in attendance may also procure copies of former outlines, so that each may have a complete set, and this, of course, without cost.

S. D. Evans returns this evening, from a home, Middletown, Orange county, N. Y., where he renewed the scenes of his youth when he played hokey from Sunday school to go fishing for frogs in the swamps, when he had to rise at the postical hour of 4 a. m., to milk 12 cows and do the chores, eradied four acres of standing grain in one day, and pitched eight loads of hay in a single afternoon.

The monthly meeting of the Navajo Legion association will be held Monday evening, Oct. 17, at the Bishop's office, Ulling yard, at the usual time.

All members are earnestly requested to be present, as the election of officers will take place. Several of the honorary members have donated generously to the mortuary fund, which will go towards helping the widows and orphans of the association. Others are invited to come forward and do likewise.—Wm. B. Brown, Secy.

The Federal building contractor has just received a large consignment of terra cotta from Denver for use in his work, but will wait for the Salt Lake manufacturers in preference at such as they are able to furnish a supply, as the Utah article is made from genuine fire clay and is an article superior to the Denver terra cotta which is not made from as good raw material. Inside of a month, the building will be enclosed, so that the interior work can be pushed entirely regardless of the weather.

The Salt Lake medical fraternity is to be augmented by Dr. W. H. Hatchett, brother of Dr. James C. Hatchett, who leaves for San Francisco today to accept a profitable official position in his profession. Dr. W. H. comes from Omaha with the endorsement of some of the leading citizens of the state, including United States senators, governor and other officials. He has also been president of the Nebraska State Medical society, and is an active member of the National Medical society. It is his purpose to take up a permanent residence here and to succeed to his brother's business as far as possible.

President J. W. Kerr of the State Agricultural college is in town on a business trip, and states with gratification the fact that there are over 100 more students at the institution than there were a year ago at this time. The military instruction is better than ever, and Capt. Styer of the Thirteenth Infantry is doing very well as professor of this department. President Kerr states that by another year matters will have assumed such shape that the proposed department of electrical engineering can be successfully established and put into operation. In fact the Agricultural college management proposes to make of this department a specially valuable feature of the college work.

Mr. Cobb says that the reports about the disreputable elements being in the saddle at El Paso are very much exaggerated, and that these exaggerations are circulated by the political "outs." No attention should be given to them.

The city is in the best of health, and is steadily growing in commercial importance. Mr. Cobb reports that Col.

D. W. Beckhart, formerly of El Paso, is a very distinguished mining engineer and chemist in El Paso, and one of the most prominent citizens in that part of the country.
