

SOCIETY

On Wednesday, Mrs. L. C. Robinson and Miss Mayne Noble were hostesses at a tea, the tables being decorated in pink and white roses, the library room in red, with red-shaded candles and in the afternoon the hostesses were assisted by Mrs. S. Woodward, Mrs. C. S. Murray, Mrs. W. G. Flier, Mrs. C. W. Flier and Miss Lynch and about 140 guests were present.

Miss Evelyn Daly was guest of honor at a luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday, given by Miss Loren Leary, the other guests being chiefly members of her bridal party who assisted at her wedding on June 10. The decorations were in pink roses and covers were laid for 19 guests.

One of the prettiest affairs of Wednesday was the announcement tea given by Miss Teresa Taylor at the Bric-a-brac, her decorations being in pink and her engagement to Mr. Joel Nibley announced by Miss Taylor, the bride and groom being in the center of the room. The announcement was made by Miss Taylor, who helped to make the written announcement. About a dozen guests were present.

Miss Lucy Gaby was another bride-elect honored at the Country club on Wednesday, her hostesses being Mrs. C. G. Plummer, who entertained her and a few other bride-elects at luncheon. The decorations were in pink roses, and covers laid for about a half dozen, including Mrs. Plummer, Mrs. C. G. Plummer, Mrs. W. H. Alexander, Mrs. W. C. Alexander, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. A. D. Cleveland, Mrs. W. R. Warren, Mrs. R. R. Moore, Miss Nibley and Miss Sloan.

Mrs. William Eliehart entertained the members of the Dante club at luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday.

Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge gave a pretty luncheon at the University club on Wednesday for her guest, Miss Sloan of Illinois, the table being decorated in pink roses and candles, and pink shaded candles and the place cards being hand-painted in the two colors. Covers were laid for Mrs. C. G. Plummer, Mrs. W. H. Alexander, Mrs. W. C. Alexander, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. A. D. Cleveland, Mrs. W. R. Warren, Mrs. R. R. Moore, Miss Nibley and Miss Sloan.

An event of interest in social circles will be the production of "The Toy Maker's Dream" at the Salt Lake Theater on June 10, for the benefit of the Orphan's Home. Mrs. W. V. Rice and Mrs. W. H. Perry are in charge of the boxes and stalls and will receive subscriptions for the same.

Miss Ruth Kingsbury was guest of honor at a dinner at the Country club on Tuesday night given by Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Thompson, the table being done in pink and white roses and carnations and covers laid for 18 guests. They were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Flier, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Cannon, Mr. Phil, Mr. Gaillette, Mr. Newhouse, J. J. Campbell, Mrs. Lawrence Townsend, Miss Evelyn Townsend, Miss Anna McCormick, Dr. Lundgreen and Matthew Brodie.

Mrs. H. S. Knight gave the children of Miss Jessup's kindergarten a party at Liberty park on Wednesday.

They Lace In Front

It's worth the cost to look like this.

THE Gussard CORSET

FRENCH ART

and American ingenuity have united in the production of these marvelous corsets. Results never before achieved have been achieved. Modeling of hips to the lines of youth—scientific adjustment reducing the waist and hip measure until the skin you wear is large by inches.

Support to the back.

Support to the abdomen.

Freedom for the arms.

Easy breathing—a full breath and a full meal with comfort.

The bones do not break—DO NOT BREAK.

All this and more.
