APPEALS FOR THE POOL

APPEALS FOR THE FOOL Will be approved at the foldage there are being made many appeals for charrable sid in insuring at Christenes a bappy time for the part. These ap-peals are for a worthy adject, and should effect a literal response. It is called that in this locality these are then and the of poor who are in urgent to set and the inter densitions in setter to cave the whole field of the suffection andigot.

soing the size any good. They tell of a distressing axis of powerty and at all is harmony with a country powersed of rich and varied reserves and offsring a hopetul field for investment of explish and the encourage-ment of industriaus humigrands. They are a wall of infinite from which messions and home-seckers shrink with as inve unitary shudder. While the necessity for these appeals exists they must be made; the way to heat the done only by giving the nearly and unemployed an opportunity to same what they get, whether it comes from what they get, whether it comes from a charitable fund or observice. These who are an encycle is disponing charites cupht to be able to evolve a plan by which every able-solid person who resitves aid should do some work in return therefor. charitize cupit to be able to evelve a plan by which every able-holded person who reserves all should desume work in return therefore. If the le not dens, the community will have a lot of confirmed mendionnis in addition to those who are suitivity un-able to earn for themselves. As it now the the earn for themselves. As it now the the earn for themselves. As it now the draw support as poor small on-semething in return if it was required of them, and without which they will never get out of the rut of depart int powerty.
