Saturday, . 3 . . April 18, 1868, LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

CORRESPONDENTS Writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous com-munications. Correspondents' names must in every instance accompany their communica-tions, not necessary for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

THEATEICAL.-This evening there is a very excellent bill, and the performance Barton J will yield a considerable amount of enjoyment. The farce of "On and Off," willopen the entertainment, with Mr. Margetts as the bachelor uncle, who is so persistently and annoyingly prevented from attending the "pic-nic," where he anticipates overwhelming bliss with the "fair widow;" Mr. Graham as the ridiculously romantic Pentonville, with his thirty acres and his wind-mill; Mr. Hardie as Charles Langton, the husband of the uncle's niece; Miss Alexander as Letitia, or "Tish" in brevity; and Mrs. M. G. Calhoun Major A R. Clawson as Mrs. Muffit, a good soul of a landlady. Then comes the stirring, excit-ing, sensational Irish drama of "Poul a Castshas B Dhoul,"which of itself is a strong attraction. Carrol S We hope to see a good house.

CLEANING UP .- We saw a number of Chambers ER men and teams at work to-day, cleaning up | Churchill W J the loose stones and small boulders, lying on East Temple street, where it was grad- Clark J R ed last winter. It certainly adds to the appearance of the street, and will be "so nice" for tender footed animals, and "gentle-toed" Cint F D 2 pedestrians who may wish to perambulate Cours J

THE WEATHER, -To-day has been toler- Crumblin R ably fine, rather cloudy, and cold where the Crumblin s un was not shining. By Deseret Telegraph Crosby J Line we learn that at St. George this morn- Crosby Bp I ing, the weather was fine and pleasant; the Cummins J wheat heading out in the fields, and the Curry J thermometer 67 in the shade,

THE ROADS,-Now, with the Spring travel Dale J M fairly commencing, the condition of the roads is a point of considerable interest. We learn by Deseret Telegraph Line the following state of the roads north and south:-NORTH.

baden; very good. Logan and Cache County; good before the last storm, but muddy now.

American Fork; getting dry. Provo; getting dry. Nephi; drying fast, hicken Creek; dry, but rough, Round Valley; very good. Cove Creek; muddy. . wdar City; very good.

"IRON-CLAD," - The Omaha Heroid quote from the Denver News that the grasshoppers Evernder H W were hatching out along Clear Creek, prior to the late terrible storm in Colorado, and adds Foster W W "If this little 'spell' don't fix them, we may regard them as iron-clad for destructive purpowe fancy the Herald man is not so well Geyer F posted in locust matters as the Denver folks Gilman E 3 ought to be, judging by the remark of a gentleman from that city, made here last summer Hansen P while the insect flight was at its greatest, Looking over-head at the locusts, appearing like a vast cloud of snow-flakes, he said, "This reminds me of Colorado; we often see flights Haines like this in Denver." Nobody need get excited over the "iron-clads;" they are good at standjug a storm, and no doubt will ful the purpose for which they are called into existence. Horse and Cattle Thieves,-In our exchanges east and north we see repeated notices | Hilton G of the operations of horse and cattle thieves. Sometimes they act singly, sometimes in bands. Many portions of the western country are infested with them, and honest citizens sustain much loss from their thieving depredations. There are many men through the Rocky Mountalas, and in other frontier regions, who will Hunt Capt J not work to gain an honest living, but in preterence resort to criminal practices-gambling, Imley J cattle, horse and mule stealing, or the bolder and more desperate course of "road agents." Jansen J Jeffers M Our stock owners cannot keep too strict a Jensen N watch after such characters; for when they are Jones D in danger in one locality, Territory, or State, or Johnson E W are discovered, they move to another and there Johnson J W continue their career of crime. Watch closely for their movements, and give them the full penetit of the law; though the probability is, that if discovered in the act of stealing, their Allen E case would be attended to very promptly, with Alexander Mrs B 2 the injured owner as judge and a rifle builet as Anderson Miss J

DIFFERENT STYLES.—The peculiarities of dif- Anderson K M ferent places are, at times, nicely delineated by the manner in which some common remark is expressed. The brief invitation to "imbibe the stimulating fluid" is thus touched off by a western reporter, who records the different styles in the places named, probably drawn Cowley Mrs E. from memory and experience.

"Different people, in different places, have different ways of expressing the same thing. For example, in Chicago, when a man asks you to take a drink, he says: 'Nominate your ramily disturbance.' In St. Louis, 'Choose your cold pizeu.' In Cincinnati, 'Do you feel like driving a nail in your coffin?' In Louisville, 'Let's put an enemy in our mouths.' In New York, 'Let's reduce ourselves below the level of Let's put an enemy in our mouths.' In New York, 'Let's reduce ourselves below the level of brutes.' In Boston, 'Let's violate' (the liquor law). In Frankfort, 'Let's absorb.' In New Orleans, 'Snall we fortify?' In New Albany, 'Snapose we drug ourselves.' In Indianapolis, Let's start for the watch-house.' In Terre Haute, 'Let's perjure ourselves.' In Buffalo, 'Let's disqualify.' And at Lexington, Ky. Will you have some nourishment?' In Evansville, 'Let's take an article of Reconstruction, in Quincy 'hey say: 'Have you seen Grant?' In Alton they say: 'Have you seen Grant?' In Alton they say: 'Let's have a Bourbon among us.' In Jerseyville, 'Trot out your vermifuge,' In Edwardsville they look round the floor of the bar room to see if there are any dead people lying about loose, and finding none, sny: people lying about loose, and finding none, say: 'Pass over your lightning fly-killer.'

To this the Local of the Virginia, (Nevada) Tresposs adds, after intimating that "there is a certain undefinable shrinking from the saying the following singular circumstances:

say anything, it would be, "Let us wash,"

WILL KILL THEM.-But very few owners of dogs in the city have obeyed the ordinance which requires them to be registered. In consequence, the police will, from to-day, kill dogs whose owners have not complied with this ordinance, in pursuance of the section which provides that all such canines shall be so disposed of. Owners of dogs will please take notice.

THE HOUSEHOLD LAMP.

When the suns decline and crickets sing.
And wandering mists from seaward roam,
When nights no heavenly beacons bring,
Then brightest shines the star of home!

When the brown brooks, with music low, Watch Summers die and Autumns come, When stately golden rods must bow, What cheer is in that light of home!

When Winter strips the shuddering trees, And chills the wavelet's wanton foam, When in the world's cold grasp we freeze, How blest is then that star of home!
