

PUT AN AD. IN THE "NEWS" IF YOU WOULD REACH THE PURCHASERS IN THIS CITY. OUR READERS LOOK FOR YOUR STORE NEWS.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

ONE AD. IN THE HOME IS WORTH HUNDRED ON THE HIGHWAY. OUR CIRCULATION IS HOME CIRCULATION.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1903. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

FIFTY-THIRD YEAR.

LAST EDITION.

DEATH STRIKES DR. W. T. DALBY.

Leading Salt Lake Physician Called Beyond in the Prime of a Promising Manhood.

HIS DEMISE A STUNNING BLOW.

Case of Death a Mystery and an Autopsy Will Be Held to Determine the Trouble.

IT WAS PROBABLY DUE TO CANCER

Leaves a Young Wife and Two Little Boys—Funeral Will Be Held On Wednesday.

making him but 44 years of age. He received a public school education in Baltimore, Maryland, and when he was 21 years old went to Prescott, Arizona. He remained there until 1881, when he went to Omaha to study medicine. He graduated from the medical college of that city on March 26, 1885, and pursued his profession there. From 1891 to 1894 he was assistant surgeon of the Union Pacific Railroad company. On Oct. 2, 1894, he was appointed health commissioner of this city by Mayor Baskin. He resigned his position Jan. 15, 1896, but it was not accepted until March 1 of that year.

On Oct. 1, 1898, Dr. Dalby was married to Miss Fredonia Rivers, the beautiful and cultured daughter of Judge Rivers of Nevada, the ceremony taking place in St. Paul's church in this city. He was made a free mason in Prescott, Arizona, in 1883 and became a member of the general lodge of this city on June 2, 1891. He was master of that lodge in 1893 and 1894 and again in 1898. He was elected deputy grand master of the grand lodge of Utah on Jan. 16, 1896, and was made grand master, Jan. 16, 1896. He was a royal arch mason, a Knight Templar and a 32nd degree mason.

Dr. Dalby leaves a wife and two baby boys, the youngest one being but six months old.

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral will be held Wednesday

THREE HUNDRED DROP INTO WATER.

Colored People Receive a Rude Shock While Engaged in Singing Their Gospel Hymns.

FORTY OF THEM WERE INJURED.

Accidental Collapse of a Pier at Newark Bay Occurred While Baptism Was Being Performed.

New York, Sept. 7.—Three hundred negro men, women and children, dressed in their Sunday best and singing gospel hymns, have been precipitated into three feet of water and mud at low tide in Newark bay, at Bayonne, N. J. The pier on which they were standing collapsed just as the Rev. John T. Thornton was about to baptize a member of his flock.

Forty persons were injured, the majority by the hysterical efforts of their companions to escape from what for the moment they thought was death by drowning. But when the ambulance surgeon looked over the bruised ones he found only four who needed attention. The rest, bedraggled by mud and water, waded ashore and the baptism was postponed.

The four injured were George Hendrickson, his wife and young son, of Bayonne, and Mrs. E. M. Thiele, of Jersey City. They were all bruised by other persons. Mrs. Thiele's ankle is broken and her shoulder is badly sprained. Several of those who took the unexpected cold plunge were whites, attracted to the pier by curiosity.

Congress in England.

Leicester, Eng., Sept. 7.—The Trades Union congress opened its session here today. There were present 469 delegates representing 250 trades with a membership of 1,500,000. The United States was represented by Messrs. Lawler of Bethel, Conn., and Mux Hayes of Cleveland, Ohio.

Soldiers at Cripple Creek.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Sept. 7.—Cripple Creek lost 37 men killed and 47 wounded in the recent insurgent attack on the French near Almonkaur. Capt. Vaucheux was among the killed.

French Soldiers Killed.

Paris, Sept. 7.—Semi-official advices from Oran, Algeria, say the French troops lost 37 men killed and 47 wounded in the recent insurgent attack on the French near Almonkaur. Capt. Vaucheux was among the killed.

Will "Start Something."

Rome, Sept. 7.—Senator Antonio Cardarelli, one of the best known Italian physicians, and a professor of the University of Naples, whose name was among those mentioned when it was proposed to call in additional physicians for consultation with Dr. Lippinotti and Mazzoni during the illness of the late Pope Leo, but who was not called because he was a senator and therefore having taken the oath of allegiance to the king, is on the point of publishing a pamphlet with the intention of proving that the pope did not die of pleurisy. The appearance of the pamphlet is awaited with great curiosity as it is foreseen that it will give rise to a heated discussion.

Arbitrators in Session.

Vienna, Sept. 7.—The conference of the inter-parliamentary union for international arbitration opened here today.

Snow in Colorado.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 7.—A heavy snow fell on the range between Colorado Springs and Cripple Creek last night. It was impossible to run trains to the summit of Pike's Peak today on account of snow drifts, although traffic will be resumed as soon as snow falls can clear the cog-road. Snow also fell at Leadville.

WILL HANG HIMSELF.

Condemned Murderer at Lander Will Work Automatic Gallows.

Last Tuesday afternoon Sheriff Stough of Fremont county, received from the clerk of the state supreme court a copy of the death warrant for James Keffer, sentenced to be hanged on Sept. 25, the supreme court having refused the murderer a new trial.

Stough immediately took the death warrant into the jail and read it to Keffer, whose face blanched when he heard the news; then, straightening his shoulders he remarked: "I am not afraid to die."

Sheriff Stough has established the death watch and will secure two special deputies for this purpose. Plans are being made for the gallows, which will be so constructed that Keffer, when he steps on the trap, will draw a plug from a pall filled with water. When the water runs low a counterbalance will throw the catch which holds the trap and the doomed man will have hanged himself—Rock Springs Miner, Sept. 3.

SECOND DIVISION.

First Regiment band, Marshal J. N. Spalding, with Aldes M. H. Desmond and Charles Vinson, Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, including the Bridge Builders' 25 men; Retail Clerks' (Continued on page two.)

LOCAL LABORER'S FINE SHOWING.

Makes a Demonstration on the Streets that Surprised Friends and Public.

MANY UNIONS OUT IN FORCE.

Line of March, Interesting Exercises and Observances at the Resorts, This Afternoon.

LARGE CROWDS WITNESS PAGEANT

Display Was Orderly, and Well Organized and Column Moved With Commandable Precision.

Local labor forces made a fine showing of numbers and strength on the streets today. It was a showing that surprised public and friends alike and evoked praise and admiration from both. The column of toilers that moved through the main thoroughfares did so in an orderly, almost military manner. The procession was witnessed by a large crowd of people who lined the sidewalks as the marchers passed.

Labor day was generally observed, all business being suspended for the day, except in the case of the grocers and butchers who kept their doors open this morning. But this afternoon, these, too, have closed their doors. There was over to a general good time at the resorts. There was no regular program in the city aside from the parade, a fact that was much appreciated by all concerned.

THE PARADE.

There were over 1,350 men in the parade, and adding 100 people more for the passengers in the expressmen's turnout, makes a total of over 1,450. Special efforts were made to get the men to turnout, and the Painters' union had ordered a fine of $10 for any member failing to give a good excuse for not appearing for duty. There was, however, less display in floats and artistic devices than last year, and so there was not so much in the spectacular line. But the also necessary to make a parade as making amends for this. The marching was in columns of four this year, instead of by twos, which made the parade more compact. The marchers were in good order. There were the usual handsome banners, and the badges were decidedly elaborate, as handsome as have ever been worn in local procession.

TEN BLOCKS LONG.

The streets were full of people some time before the time set for beginning the parade, many coming in from out of town to witness the pageant. There were more people out than last year, and it was thought that there were a good many. The entire line of march was lined on both sides of the streets and in the middle, and for the time being street car traffic was stopped. The procession was fully 10 blocks long, and when the head reached East Temple street from State on the other side of the street to Third South and east to the Knutsford; thence north to First South, counter-march to East Temple to State, and south to Second South street, and thence west to West Temple street, where the procession disbanded.

GRAND MARSHAL.

First came Grand Marshal R. G. Steiner and Aldes Thomas Watkins and J. Thad mounted, then a platoon of eight police, under Sergeant Hempel, the Twelfth United States Infantry band, the first department to start, and then the grand marshal, Chief C. E. Wood, and including the chemical engine, hose wagon, steamer and truck, all suitably decorated.

The City Council of Labor, R. E. Caprietti, president, and the Building Trades Council, P. E. Hart, president, 40 men in all, followed. Then local union No. 115 of the International Typographical union with elaborate bands in red, white and blue and gold, 60 men, F. L. Hart, marshal; Printing Pressmen's union, 15 men, F. E. McCanna, marshal; Cigar Makers' union, 20 men, M. Stankaus, marshal; Tailors' union, in carriages, 30 men, K. Orby, marshal; Iron Molders' union, 60 men, J. Touhy, marshal; Plumbers and Steam Fitters' union, 55 men, M. Fennel, marshal; Amalgamated Carpenters' union, 24 men, J. Silver, marshal; Brewery Workers' union, 20 men, C. Larch, marshal; Electrical Workers' union, 55 men, J. Gardner, marshal.

TO HELP BULGARIA

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Believing war with Turkey to be imminent, Chicago Bulgarians are organizing to give financial support to their native land, and to send fighting men to the field. A number of Bulgarians have left for Philadelphia, where a regiment is being formed.

Among those who have left for the scene of the threatened war is Stanislaus Sietokoff, of Waukegan, formerly a lieutenant in the Bulgarian army. Meanwhile, 4,000 Chicago members of a Greek patriotic society have manifested their lack of sympathy with the Bulgarian revolution. A letter from the chief objectors declares that the Bulgarian revolution is prompted by Russia.

TO HELP BULGARIA

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Believing war with Turkey to be imminent, Chicago Bulgarians are organizing to give financial support to their native land, and to send fighting men to the field. A number of Bulgarians have left for Philadelphia, where a regiment is being formed.

Among those who have left for the scene of the threatened war is Stanislaus Sietokoff, of Waukegan, formerly a lieutenant in the Bulgarian army. Meanwhile, 4,000 Chicago members of a Greek patriotic society have manifested their lack of sympathy with the Bulgarian revolution. A letter from the chief objectors declares that the Bulgarian revolution is prompted by Russia.

TO HELP BULGARIA

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Believing war with Turkey to be imminent, Chicago Bulgarians are organizing to give financial support to their native land, and to send fighting men to the field. A number of Bulgarians have left for Philadelphia, where a regiment is being formed.

Among those who have left for the scene of the threatened war is Stanislaus Sietokoff, of Waukegan, formerly a lieutenant in the Bulgarian army. Meanwhile, 4,000 Chicago members of a Greek patriotic society have manifested their lack of sympathy with the Bulgarian revolution. A letter from the chief objectors declares that the Bulgarian revolution is prompted by Russia.

TO HELP BULGARIA

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Believing war with Turkey to be imminent, Chicago Bulgarians are organizing to give financial support to their native land, and to send fighting men to the field. A number of Bulgarians have left for Philadelphia, where a regiment is being formed.

Among those who have left for the scene of the threatened war is Stanislaus Sietokoff, of Waukegan, formerly a lieutenant in the Bulgarian army. Meanwhile, 4,000 Chicago members of a Greek patriotic society have manifested their lack of sympathy with the Bulgarian revolution. A letter from the chief objectors declares that the Bulgarian revolution is prompted by Russia.

TO HELP BULGARIA

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Believing war with Turkey to be imminent, Chicago Bulgarians are organizing to give financial support to their native land, and to send fighting men to the field. A number of Bulgarians have left for Philadelphia, where a regiment is being formed.

Among those who have left for the scene of the threatened war is Stanislaus Sietokoff, of Waukegan, formerly a lieutenant in the Bulgarian army. Meanwhile, 4,000 Chicago members of a Greek patriotic society have manifested their lack of sympathy with the Bulgarian revolution. A letter from the chief objectors declares that the Bulgarian revolution is prompted by Russia.

TO HELP BULGARIA

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Believing war with Turkey to be imminent, Chicago Bulgarians are organizing to give financial support to their native land, and to send fighting men to the field. A number of Bulgarians have left for Philadelphia, where a regiment is being formed.

Among those who have left for the scene of the threatened war is Stanislaus Sietokoff, of Waukegan, formerly a lieutenant in the Bulgarian army. Meanwhile, 4,000 Chicago members of a Greek patriotic society have manifested their lack of sympathy with the Bulgarian revolution. A letter from the chief objectors declares that the Bulgarian revolution is prompted by Russia.

TO HELP BULGARIA

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Believing war with Turkey to be imminent, Chicago Bulgarians are organizing to give financial support to their native land, and to send fighting men to the field. A number of Bulgarians have left for Philadelphia, where a regiment is being formed.

Among those who have left for the scene of the threatened war is Stanislaus Sietokoff, of Waukegan, formerly a lieutenant in the Bulgarian army. Meanwhile, 4,000 Chicago members of a Greek patriotic society have manifested their lack of sympathy with the Bulgarian revolution. A letter from the chief objectors declares that the Bulgarian revolution is prompted by Russia.

THE PRESIDENT AT CELEBRATION.

Reviews Labor Day Parade and Opens State Fair Today at Syracuse, N. Y.

DAY IS GENERALLY OBSERVED.

Principal Cities Throughout the Country Have Celebrations of Labor's National Day of Recreation.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Clear skies,

bands of music, the local military company, an unprecedented display of flags and patriotic decorations and the unbounded enthusiasm of a vast throng greeted President Roosevelt at 9:30 a. m. today, when his special train rolled into the station. The president came to Syracuse to open the state fair and to review the labor parade and the parade of the National Association of Letter Carriers. With him on the train were his secretary, William Loch, Jr., Jacob Riss of New York, a newspaper representative, secret service officers and officers of the operating department of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad. The run from New York was without incident. The president was met at the train by a reception committee.

The Forty-first regiment presented arms as the president appeared, and then, headed by the New York Letter Carriers' band, escorted the president and committee to the reviewing stand. Upon the stand beside the president was Senator Dewey, Bishop P. A. Ludden of Syracuse and influential citizens. There was never before such a demonstration by organized labor in this city. Fully 50,000 men and women were in line.

The labor day committee, as it reached the stand, sent its chairman to greet the president and pin a badge upon his coat. The president expressed his pleasure in a few words and the line began to move. Union after union uncovered as it reached the stand.

Now and again the president shouted compliments to a line looking body of men. From start to finish his attention was never diverted from the workingmen. In the parade were a few floats with placards. One read: "The trusts let us fight the trusts by not using their goods."

At 11:30 o'clock the line had passed and the party was driven to the train and departed for the state fair.

Big at Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—It is estimated that between 100,000 and 125,000 trade unionists took part in the Labor day parade here, making it the greatest demonstration in the history of Cook county. The parade was a review of the principal streets of the city. The day was generally observed as a holiday, nearly every factory in the city. The banks, however, remained open. The parade disbanded at noon and a majority of the marchers hurried to various places in outlying parks and groves where a number of locally prominent speakers delivered addresses.

At St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 7.—Labor day was celebrated in St. Louis with two parades in which it is estimated at least 40,000 men participated. That of the building trades council was held first, followed immediately by a procession held under the auspices of the Central Trades and Labor assembly.

At Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, Sept. 7.—The Labor day parade and demonstration generally was the largest in the history of the city owing to the dual phase of the occasion. The Cincinnati fall festival opened today for 2 days and the opening was that of the labor organizations. The many bands engaged for the fall festival participated in the great demonstration.

At Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 7.—The feature of the celebration of Labor day in this city was the parade of 25,000 union men. A large proportion of the marchers were in uniform and every class of organized labor was represented. The floats and banners were on an elaborate scale.

At Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 7.—Labor day was fittingly celebrated here with a monster parade, followed by a mass meeting and sports at Schenley park. Probably 20,000 marchers were in the parade. A unique feature was the costumes worn by the members of the different unions represented. The mass meeting at Schenley park was attended by an immense throng.

At Colorado Springs.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 7.—The annual business meeting of the board of trustees of the Union Printers home in this city for aged and infirm members of the International Typographical union convened this morning.

CURING A BROKEN HEART.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—An operation on the heart of Matthew Plovman, who was stabbed in a fight with James Cornett Saturday, may save the man's life. At Mercy hospital, where he was taken, physicians took out his heart and sewed it up. Then oxygen was administered continuously and last night it was said he had a possible chance of recovery. Plovman was stabbed with a bread knife in the left breast. The wound almost cut his heart in two.

morning. No business was transacted, however, adjournment being taken on account of Labor day until tomorrow. President J. M. Lynch and Secy. J. M. Brownwood, both of Indianapolis, arrived this morning.

At Omaha.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 7.—Three cities, Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs celebrated Labor day by the suspension of business, parades and other exercises. The large parade marched the streets of South Omaha, several thousand strong, and composed of labor unions of the three cities.

At Kansas City.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 7.—Labor day was celebrated in the usual way here today. In the forenoon a parade of all the labor organizations of the two Kansas cities consisting of about 15,000 men were in line. The afternoon was spent at the various parks where athletic contests were held and speeches by prominent men were delivered. The day was generally observed.

At San Francisco.

San Francisco, Sept. 7.—Labor day was observed in this city with unprecedented enthusiasm, all stores, banks and business houses being closed. The two branches of organized labor in this city, the San Francisco Labor council and the San Francisco Building trades council, paraded the streets independently, and it is estimated that 40,000 men participated in the two parades. The afternoon the Building Trades unionists affiliated with the labor unions of Alameda county in an open air celebration at Shell Mound park in Alameda county and the San Francisco labor council held literary exercises at the Chutes in this city, various labor leaders and several prominent citizens addressing the large gathering of workmen.

At Washington.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Labor day was quietly observed in this city. All offices of the federal and municipal governments and most of the business houses were closed. Large crowds spent the day at nearby excursion resorts.

At Denver.

Denver, Sept. 7.—The local celebration of Labor day exceeded all former demonstrations of the kind in Colorado. More than 6,000 workmen including a number of visiting unions marched in the parade this afternoon. Nearly all the unions were attired in natty uniforms. An official labor picnic and a barbecue were features of the afternoon.

At Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Sept. 7.—The Labor day parade today was the largest ever seen here. The address of the day was delivered this afternoon by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

At Columbus.

Columbus, O., Sept. 7.—The demonstration made by labor today excelled anything ever before attempted. About 10,000 men were in line. The presence of members of the Women's Union Labor league was also a feature of the parade. At the city park addresses were by Gov. Nash and Francis S. Monnett.

At Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 7.—The members of the Federated Trades council marched over 10,000 strong to Pabst park, where the day was spent in the usual Labor day manner. Three thousand members of the building trades council marched through the principal streets to Schiltz's park, where a picnic was held.

At New York.

New York, Sept. 7.—Conditions were never better than today for the celebration of Labor day, clear skies and cool breezes, ideal weather for parades, excursions and other outing recreation. The central feature of the celebration was the parade which took place this morning. Representatives of unions in the board of building trades and of some outside unions participated.

At Portland.

Portland, Sept. 7.—Labor day was observed here today by a general suspension of business. The labor unions celebrated the day by engaging in boat racing and other athletic sports at Hawthorne park.

Killed Over a Woman.

Omaha, Sept. 7.—During a quarrel over a woman early today Charles Elsworth, Council Bluffs grocer, man, fatally stabbed David Houser, also of that city. The trouble occurred on the flats north of Omaha and the wounded man was brought to the city, where he died in a few minutes. Elsworth and a woman named Max Burns were later arrested across the river and brought to this city.

RECOVERS MULE TEAM.

Sheriff Emory Captures an Outfit He Has Been Looking For.

Sheriff Emory this morning recovered a team of mules which had been stolen from a man named Sullivan at Bingham on Saturday night. On yesterday the sheriff notified the parties who have charge of Rock's Hot Springs of the theft and asked them to keep a sharp lookout for any mules which might be driven past that place on the way north. This morning Sheriff Emory was notified that a team of mules had passed the springs he at once went in pursuit. He overtook them and placed the driver, a man named Cline under arrest.

The man claims that he bought the mules in Bingham, but Sheriff Emory has secured some strong evidence, which shows that Cline and two other men stole the mules and drove to the Bingham station the night where they spent the night carousing. The other men mixed up in the affair are well known characters and the sheriff believes that he will capture them without any delay or difficulty.

O. S. L. BARN BURNED.

Made a Bright Blaze in Western Part of The City This Morning.

A barn on Second South and Fourth West street, on property belonging to the Oregon Short Line, was destroyed by fire early this morning. The cause of the blaze is unknown, but it is believed to have been started by a gang of tramps who were sleeping in the barn. The flames spread to several surrounding houses and to a number of freight cars before an alarm could be turned in. The fire department from station No. 2 responded quickly and soon had the blaze completely destroyed but the adjoining property was saved after a hard fight. The contents from the barn, which scene inside of three minutes after the first alarm.

WAR IS SAID TO BE INEVITABLE.

Turkey and Bulgaria will Undoubtedly Clash in the Very Near Future.

TURKISH TROOPS ARE VICIOUS.

Bulgarians and Macedonians in Constantinople, Arrested as Preventive Measure, Fear Massacre.

OPTIMISTS CHANGE THEIR VIEWS

Believe Turkey to be on the Eve of a Catastrophe and that There is No Hope of Avoiding a Bloody War.

Constantinople, Sept. 7.—War between Turkey and Bulgaria is now regarded here as inevitable. It is even believed that the outbreak of hostilities will occur before the end of September, when the reinforcements from Asia will have been concentrated in Macedonia and in the vicinity of Adrianople. It is not thought there will be any formal declaration of war in view of Bulgaria's vassal status, but that some frontier incident will precipitate hostilities.

The Bulgarians and Macedonians residing in Constantinople are in terror of massacre. A large number of them were arrested a few days ago, as a "preventive measure" and they have not yet been released. The fear of a massacre is probably exaggerated, although, in view of the present excited state of Bulgarian feeling, an insignificant incident might perhaps lead to a massacre.

The terrible accounts received regarding the conduct of the Turkish troops have not surprised European circles here, but many who have hitherto been optimistic in their views now accept the prevailing belief that Turkey is on the eve of a catastrophe. A consular dispatch from Salonica says that according to authentic information the insurrection in the district of Monastir has been practically stamped out. Bashi Bazuks assisted the regular troops in the work of repression which is said to have been carried out with sanguinary ruthlessness, the object of the Turks being apparently to exterminate not only the Bulgarian cannibals, but all the Christians of whatever nationality.

OPTIMISTIC.

More Cheerful View is Taken by Londoners.

London, Sept. 7.—The Balkan situation shows no sign of improvement. Indeed, in Constantinople it is now thought that the outbreak of war between Turkey and Bulgaria is inevitable, but the Turkish ambassador in London insists hostilities can only result from an overt act on the part of Bulgaria. The so-called government of the Balkans, as advised by Russia and Austria. The announcement today of Bulgaria's attitude caused an optimistic tone in the papers and the market for foreign bonds and government securities became much firmer. Roumania, too, is enforcing neutrality in compliance with the advice of Russia, having taken measures to suppress the Macedonian agitators within her borders.

The pope's refusal to appeal to the powers to act, save in the direction of stopping the massacres in the Balkans is accepted as evidence that even the Holy See approaches the inadvisability of intervention at this time.

Turkey is largely increasing the number of her troops in Macedonia in spite of her depleted treasury, and is determining to suppress the revolution before the powers can intervene.

Outrages in Macedonia.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Sept. 7.—The revolutionary officers received information today that the Turks have burned or otherwise destroyed nearly all the villages in the district of Kastoria near the Greek frontier. The villages in that district were the largest in Macedonia, each having from 1,000 to 3,000 inhabitants.

Among the largest burned were Zagorichino, Dumbeni, Komitchevo, Mokrent and Kozinezi. Altogether about 25 villages in that part of Macedonia have been destroyed. It is added that 300 women and children, fugitives from Zagorichino, went to the Turkish commander of the district to seek assistance and protection from the Bashi Bazuks. The commander promised them protection but when the fugitives left the Bashi Bazuks pursued, outraged and killed many of the women and children.

The Turks have concentrated 15,000 soldiers in the Kastoria district, who are openly burning villages.

At Port Said.

New York, Sept. 7.—The navy department has been advised of the arrival of the Machias at Port Said.

Report from Cotton.

Washington, Sept. 4.—The navy department today made public the following cablegram from Admiral Cotton regarding the Turkish situation, dated Beirut, September 4:

"The vice consul was shot at but is unharmed. The Turkish officials have been placed under arrest. It is suspected that they had attacked the vice consul. I called Friday afternoon to the American minister at Constantinople. The arrival of the United States squadron. The American minister is waiting to communicate. I have strengthened the American representative's position by inducing pronounced recognition. The American consul and the vice consul accompanied me on my call on the Turkish governor and the Turkish general and were present during their call on board the Brooklyn. The Turkish officials are very cordial. The Turkish admiral is here. The following Turkish ships are here: One small gunboat, one armored cruiser. The usual courtesies were exchanged. Have conferred with the consul freely. Will confer with other prominent American citizens."

(Continued on page two.)

DR. WILLIAM T. DALBY,

Prominent Salt Lake Physician Who Died This Morning.

Dr. William Thomas Dalby died at 7:30 this morning at his residence, 253 Sixth East street, presumably from cancer of the stomach, but that will be determined by an autopsy to be held late this afternoon. The announcement of the death of this respected, and at least locally eminent physician, sounds a note of genuine sorrow in many homes of this city and in other parts of the Union. It comes as a great shock to the majority of the friends of the deceased, some of whom had not heard of his critical illness, while those who had heard had but a day or two to prepare for the sudden news that is now being chronicled.

FIRST DANGER SYMPTOMS.

It was but a few months ago that Dr. Dalby realized there was something seriously the matter with him, but he spoke of it to only a few of his friends and the others could not perceive it behind the brave front and genial smile that adorned his strong face. But he continued to fall even under his own careful treatment, and that of his friends of the medical profession.

WENT TO THE COAST.

Six weeks ago he left for California thinking and hoping that the balmy air and the quiet rest to be found in the Golden State might restore him to health. But it proved to be a phantom desire. The inviolable enemy of health, the grip, and Dr. Dalby fought bravely but vainly for his life.

CAME HOME TO DIE.

A few days ago the word came to Salt Lake that he was near to death's door and was on his way home to die under his own roof, surrounded by his family and friends. The news was a sad surprise and became the uppermost topic of conversation on the streets and in the homes where his skillful hands and warm heart had brought comfort and happiness. The doctor arrived in the city yesterday morning and was met at the depot by some of his most intimate friends. The old smile was on his face but the death damp stood upon his brow and those who saw him then realized that he would be gone from them forever before long. He layed into a comatose condition yesterday and remained so up to the end, and when that came he was surrounded by a few of his faithful friends who had done all they knew what to do to save him. Mrs. Dalby is stricken to the heart and her physicians have denied everyone the opportunity of seeing her during her paroxysm of grief.