

left after the ceremony for a six-week trip to California, after which they will reside in Telluride.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Judson entertained at cards on Thursday night, about forty-four guests being present to enjoy the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Judson entertained at cards on Thursday night, about forty-four guests being present to enjoy the evening.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. Judson entertained at a second card party. The score cards were Indian heads and the counters were heads.

The guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Fabian, Mr. and Mrs. Jolly, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl, Mr. and Mrs. Weir, Dr. and Mrs. Hosmer, Mr. and Mrs. McGurkin, Mr. and Mrs. Bogue, Mr. and Mrs. Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. Brattain, Mr. and Mrs. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Vollmer, Mr. and Mrs. Holsulted in making Miss Minnie Sadler winner of the first prize, and Miss Irma Alf winner of the second. The prizes were a souvenir spoon and a hand-painted play-tray. The guests were:

Mrs. Donnell, Mrs. McCullough, Mrs. Dana Smith, Mrs. Barnhart, Mrs. Minnie Sadler, Miss Jeanine Young, Miss Arlyn Young, Miss Irma Alf, Miss Sibyl Anderson, Mrs. P. T. Sadler, Miss Jennie Howat, Mrs. Walker, Miss Eloise Sherman.

On Friday afternoon Miss Sprague was the hostess at a second delightful function. A contest of authors was the feature of the afternoon, two handsome books being the prizes. Amongst the invited guests were: Miss Louie Odell, Miss Annie Bird, Miss Frances Howat, Miss Florence Howat, Miss Hattie Jennings, Miss Pauline Groo, Miss Lizzie Groo, Miss Cathie Culmer, Mrs. Cheeseman, Miss Sallie Leonard, Mrs. Chas. Post, Mrs. P. T. Sadler, Mrs. A. W. McCune, Jr., Mrs. Vivian McCune, Mrs. Lewis Evans, Mrs. Elbridge Thomas, Miss Allie Miller, Miss Lucie Jennings, Miss Florence Terhune, Miss Florence Kessler, Miss Lena Preston, Miss Elsie Dickert, Miss Josie Kratz.

Miss Mary Olive Gray announces a pianoforte recital by her pupil Miss Lola Cochler to be given at the First Congregational church in the near future. Miss Gray gave a chapel talk on Mozart at Hammond Hall Thursday morning and rendered a number of selections from his compositions.

This afternoon a pleasant children's party was given in honor of the 11th birthday of Miss Genevieve James, at the family residence in Waterloo. A large number of the friends of the little lady were present and an enjoyable time was spent.

Commander Adolph Marx of the United States navy, will be in the city on Monday to visit his brother, Leo Marx, and sisters, Mrs. D. S. Murray and Mrs. W. W. Flagg. Commander Marx was chairman of the board of inquiry into the cause of the destruction of the steamship Maine three years ago. He is on his way to Manila to become captain of that port.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. Parley White entertained at "63," about twenty-six guests being present to enjoy the evening. The rooms were prettily decorated and the tables and scores were in heart designs with pretty floral decorations. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Summerhays, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cutting, Miss Allie and Mrs. J. D. Spencer has returned from a brief trip to the coast.

husband is well and favorably known by a host of friends both in the Junction city and in Salt Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Deuer will go to Canada during the month, where they intend to reside permanently.

The marriage of Miss Jean Shields Walter Brand, both of Salt Lake, took place in Denver on Tuesday, and is being celebrated by Rev. David Utter. Mr. and Mrs. Brand will make their home in Salt Lake.

The students of L. D. S. College give a ball at Christensen's next Friday evening. The arrangements are in charge of the Rho Beta Pi and an enjoyable affair is anticipated.

An interesting announcement of the week is the engagement of Mr. Charles S. Wilkes, of this city, and Miss Lucy Mitchell Moore, of Washington, D. C. Miss Moore has been a resident of Salt Lake during the past two years and has become very popular with large circle of friends. She made her debut as a pianist at the First Congregational church last week, having been under the instruction of Miss Flinders. She left during the week for her home in Washington where the wedding will take place.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Slade arrived early in the week and were the recipients of a delightful social affair gotten up in their honor by a number of their friends. A pleasant feature of the occasion was the presentation of a silver set by Mr. Slade's fellow employees at the postoffice. The many friends of the young couple extend hearty welcome and congratulations.

Earl G. Adams, son of Rev. S. G. Adams, formerly of this city, and Miss Sayde Bedee of Sacramento, were married in Sacramento on March 1st. They reside in the latter city.

Mrs. W. E. Cody of Sioux City, Iowa, arrived in Salt Lake Thursday and will remain here during the summer as the guests of Miss Florence Scholes.

One of the marriages which will take place during the month is that of Miss Nettie Kinnersley, nee of Mrs. Sarah Dinwoodey, and Herman E. Campbell.

A delightful event of the week was the musical given by Madame Amanda Svensson at Calder's on Monday evening.

Mrs. A. C. Ewing was the hostess at an elaborate reception on Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. S. M. Ewing of Chicago. The rooms were beautifully decorated, and a large number were present during the afternoon.

Mr. J. D. Spencer has returned from a brief trip to the coast.

Supt. Cooper, who has been in Chicago for the past two weeks, has returned.

Jules Powers is in Neph, and will remain for the next two weeks.

Mrs. Peabody and sister left on Tuesday for Los Angeles, where they will spend the next three months.

Mrs. J. C. E. King will entertain at a Kensington next Friday afternoon and at luncheon on Tuesday.

Mrs. Bradley will entertain the Utopia club next Thursday.

The Trosseau club will be entertained by Miss Odell next Wednesday.

Mrs. E. B. Wells will return next week.

Mrs. Amelia Cohen of Denver is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Morris Sommer.

Lear Riter is in Silver City.

Mrs. J. J. Stewart is in California.

D. C. Lambert left for California on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickert have gone to Helena to be gone two weeks.

The Misses Dern will entertain at luncheon next Tuesday and at cards on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Le Roy Decker, of this city, and Miss Amelia Stevens, of Ogden, were married in the Temple on Wednesday.

Mrs. Theron Geddes has returned from the East. Miss Geddes will remain in Boston for the purpose of taking vocal instruction.

Mrs. A. H. Cowie, of Denver, is visiting her mother and sister.

Mr. Will T. Dinwoodey went East on Sunday.

Mrs. Robert H. Hampton has gone to join her husband in Mexico.

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

Ogden, March 9.—Tuesday evening Miss Emma Anderson was very agreeably surprised by a number of her young friends, who called unexpectedly at her home on Jefferson avenue. A few very enjoyable hours were spent by those present in music, vocal and instrumental music, and playing various games, after which a sumptuous repast was served in the dining room. Those present were: Misses Nellie Paddis, Lizzie Lochhead, Lillian Lochhead, Bessie Holte, Birdie Peterson, Sarah Larkin, Etta Williams, May Barker, Emma and Lillie Anderson, and Messrs. Will Tanager, Mervine Russell, George Lochhead, Alma J. Larkin, John McDonald, Arthur Anderson, William Jackson, Charles Empey, William McDonald, Bert Wilcox and Charles Keller.

The ball given Thursday evening in Christensen's hall, under the auspices of the Weber Stake Sunday School Union Board, was a thorough success in every respect. The attendance was large, and all present pronounced the evening one of great pleasure.

Mrs. E. G. Burton, of this city, is visiting with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Christensen, at Brigham City.

The Daughters of Rebecca Lodge will give another of their delightful curricula in the L. O. O. F. hall next Tuesday evening, March 13th, 1901. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Hewes, of La Mar, California, were visiting in Ogden this week, the guests of H. A. Lindley and family.

Dr. E. I. Rich has gone to Philadelphia to spend a few months taking a special course of study.

Dr. A. S. Condon and wife were Salt Lake visitors this week.

The many friends of Mr. C. J. Ross, who for a number of years past has been manager of Cannon's Book Store, will be pleased to know that the gentleman has purchased the stock of goods and fixtures of the store, and will hereafter run the establishment for himself. Mr. Ross is well known in this city and has, through his genial, kind and gentlemanly conduct, won a host of friends, who will wish him every possible success in business.

An event which is being looked forward to with much delight is the organ concert and recital to be given in the First Methodist church next Wednesday evening, March 14th, 1901, by Mr. C. E. Ewing, concert organist, assisted by Miss Anna "Infired" Stuart, vocalist. A very fine program has been prepared for the event. Mr. Ewing is a very talented organist. He has spent

INTERIOR GLIMPSES OF SALT LAKE HOMES.

DRAWING ROOM IN BEE HIVE HOUSE.

The cut above shows the rear parlor in the historic Bee Hive house, formerly belonging to President Brigham Young and now occupied by President Snow. The house has entrances on the south and east and the two front halls lead into a large reception hall in the central part of the house, and from this the front and rear drawing rooms on the east, the double parlors on the west, and dining room open, with a winding stair leading to the bedrooms up stairs. The house has three stories and the rooms throughout are spacious and handsomely furnished. A feature of this is that it is constructed of native pine and carved by native artisans, and the carving in the hand rail and newel posts are of scenes on the line of the Rio Grande railway formerly the Utah Central in Parley's canyon. The principal design in the carvings in woodwork, mantles, etc., is the bee hive.

several years in Europe in concert work meeting with great success. A very enjoyable time is assured all who attend.

Many Ogdenites are looking forward with great anticipation to the coming of the Sennich Opera company in "Faust" at the Salt Lake Tabernacle next Thursday evening. An excursion rate of $1 has been obtained from Ogden to Salt Lake for the date, and many Ogden people will go to the capital to hear the great opera singers, assisted by the Tabernacle choir.

Prof. Goddard, of Salt Lake, was in Ogden Wednesday.

Mrs. J. A. Toler, the well known milliner, returned this week from a visit through the eastern markets.

John W. F. Myers, of Ogden, and Joseph Rivie, of Huntsville, left Wednesday for European missions.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church gave an afternoon at the home of Miss Parmley on Twenty-fifth street, Thursday. Miss Minnie Kiesel gave a very interesting talk on "Jerusalem" as seen in her travel, and several musical numbers were rendered.

Tuesday evening Ogden lodge No. 5, I. O. O. F. were given an official visit from the following grand officers: Master A. P. McDane, Grand Representative W. O. Corbis and J. J. Thomas, Grand Secretary F. M. Ulmer, Past G. S. J. W. Moore and G. P. E. D. Hoge, of Salt Lake; Grand Warden E. Y. Homer, of Provo, and Grand Treasurer W. F. House, of Corinne. After the routine business was disposed of the entire gathering retired to the banquet hall, where a sumptuous spread was partaken of and an evening of much pleasure was had in speeches, music, etc.

Mr. William A. Clark, Jr., son of Senator W. A. Clark, and Miss Mabel Foster, of Butte, Montana, and Mrs. Stewart, who acted as chaperone, visited Ogden and spent the day sight seeing. Mr. Clark and Miss Foster. It is understood, are to be wedded in June.

Mrs. A. J. Gilson, of this city, spent several days in Salt Lake this week visiting with friends.

Miss Spencer, of Ogden, is visiting with friends at Corinne.

The Y. W. C. T. U. met Wednesday evening with Miss Yeota Kennedy.

The second ward amusement hall was the scene of a grand benefit ball last evening given in honor of George C. Wilson and Frank Pinzree who depart for a mission to Germany, March 20, 1901. The hall was well filled with the friends of the young men.

Mrs. Cora Snyder returned from Chicago this week, where she has been studying the spring fashions in millinery.

The Southern Pacific employees gave a very delightful ball Tuesday evening in Christensen's dancing academy. There was a large attendance and a good time was had by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Bickford, of Salt Lake, were Ogden visitors last Sunday.

Parley T. Wright returned this week from New York where he has been purchasing the spring stock of goods for W. H. Wright & Sons company.

The Ladies' Literary society are making elaborate arrangements for a grand ball to be given Monday evening, March 11. The affair promises to be one of the social events of the season.

The Fifth ward will give another of their pleasurable balls next Thursday evening.

Misses Clara and Lottie Brown were visiting with friends in Salt Lake this week.

CLUB CHAT.

At the Woman's club on Tuesday the program was devoted to the criminal cases, Mrs. Helen Kimball read a paper on "The Discharged Convict—What Will He Do?" and Mrs. Rachel Miller one dealing with the problem of the released criminal.

The annual meeting of the Daughters of the Revolution will take place March 16th.

The Cleoan met Tuesday with Mrs. J. H. Moyle and the program consisted of most excellent papers on the reign of George III by Miss Emmeline Wells, and the impeachment of Warren Hastings by Mrs. John L. Minor. The club meets next Tuesday also with Mrs. J. H. Moyle, and an interesting program is promised in the following papers: On

SILK SPOTTED ALBATROSS.

New Full Front Effect Shown in the Latest Spring Waist.

Albatross is a favorite material for spring waists. This model shows the new full front, the fullest produced by four small box plaits, giving a yoke effect. The Bishop sleeves have lengthwise tucks. The collar band is ornamented with black ribbon velvet and tiny gold buttons. The belt corresponds in every detail.

man, Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Smith of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Hoge, Mr. and Mrs. Nelden, Miss Nelden, Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. Geddes, Miss Geddes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bennett entertained at a family dinner on Tuesday evening at 136 Eighth East. The three parlors were in white roses, smilax and palms. In the middle parlor was suspended a large hall of smilax illuminated with small frosted electric lights. The dining room was in red roses and palms. Prizes were won by Mrs. Bennett and Mr. Fred Scarff, the lone hand prize by Mrs. O. K. Lewis. Among the invited guests were: Mrs. Sara Bransford, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bransford, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. E. Benson, Dr. and Mrs. J. Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Caustlin Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Beaver, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brink, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cannon, Mrs. Croudy, Dr. and Mrs. Dalby, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Downing, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Evans, Mrs. S. W. Eccles, Mr. and Mrs. M. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ferry, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grant, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hale, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jolley, Mrs. Edwin Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Shelp, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scarff, Mr. and Mrs. G. U. Steiner, Mrs. D. Tarbet, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. C. Warnock, Mrs. S. J. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. William Walker, Miss Jessie Anderson, Miss Hartwell, The Misses Nason, Miss Ruti, Miss Wilber, Dr. Worthington, Mr. Seward Fields, Mr. Clem Schamper, Mr. W. H. Cunningham, Mr. Chester Nason, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Skinner, Sharp Walker, Mr. W. F. Skinner, Mr. F. H. Knickerbocker, Mr. Robt. Marsh, Jr., Mr. B. Ellis, Mr. J. Roebert.

On Wednesday Miss Winnie Sprague entertained at a pleasant afternoon party at her residence on South State. The rooms were prettily decorated with palms and flowering plants, and dainty refreshments were served during the afternoon. A pleasant feature of the entertainment was a word-making contest tendered at the home of the hostess by Mrs. J. Stevens of the groom's brother, Mr. Jos. Decker, on C street. The bride is the daughter of the Fifth ward of Ogden, and with her Miller, Miss Gustie Johnson, Miss Clara Clawson, Miss Ida Whittemore, Miss Louise Chytraus, Miss Ida White, Miss Jeanie White, Miss Annabel Gundry, Miss Julia Howe, Miss Maggie Sell, Mr. Fred Loeburrow, Mr. Henry Miles, Mr. Stanley Price, Mr. Frank Brown, Mr. Howard Garratt, Mr. Earl Garratt, Mr. Brig. Perkins, Mr. Ross, Dr. C. Benedict, Mr. Parley Jensen.

Mrs. Mina Cannon Ellis entertained at a family dinner on Tuesday in honor of her husband, Mr. P. A. Ellis. The table was decorated with La France roses and the parlor with palms. Covers were laid for twenty-six.

Mrs. W. V. Eberly entertained at luncheon today in honor of Mrs. Smith of Chicago. The table was prettily decorated with marguerites and maiden-hair ferns, and the table was laid for sixteen. The guests were: Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Ewing, Mrs. Keyes, Mrs. E. O. Carey, Mrs. Will Sprague, Mrs. Zane, Miss Zane, Mrs. McGrath, Miss McGrath, Miss Freed, Mrs. D. C. Roberts, Mrs. McCullough, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. Pearsall, Mrs. Burns McDonald.

"Fattinella" is also a topic of interest, though the opera will not be given till early in April. Prof. McClellan, who is conducting the music, speaks enthusiastically of the coming performance. He states that the musical part of the opera has already progressed to a stage in which it would be possible to be rendered now, and with the extra time for work to be devoted to the production before their a finished performance will be given in April.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall of Denver are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hall, having come to Salt Lake to attend the wedding.

Mrs. Parley White entertained the Ladies' Republican club at her home on Monday afternoon. The program consisted of papers read by Mrs. Annie Brinkley, Mr. W. F. White, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Bradley.

Miss Milla Stevens and Mr. Ray Decker, two well-known young people of Ogden, were united in marriage on Wednesday last in the Salt Lake Temple. The ceremony was performed by President Jos. F. Smith, during the day, and in the evening the young couple were tendered a concert, organist, assisted by Miss Anna "Infired" Stuart, vocalist. A very fine program has been prepared for the event. Mr. Ewing is a very talented organist. He has spent

Life of Henry D. Thoreau. This was followed by a discussion of the subject and current events.

The P. E. O. society held an interesting meeting this afternoon.

The Utah State Congress of Mothers held a meeting at the home of Mrs. M. Stewart on Wednesday and arrangements for the coming annual meeting of the Congress were discussed.

A number of members of the Relief Society met with Mrs. Minnie J. Snow recently and formed the nucleus of a class, which will study parliamentary law, under the instruction of Mrs. Urquhart Lee, who will arrive in the city on Monday. The first meeting resulted in the forming of a class of forty-five, and since then this number has been increased to seventy-five. The officers and members of the Relief Society, Mutual Improvement and Primary associations are taking great interest in the idea and doubtless by the opening of the class on Tuesday many more will enroll themselves in the class. The lecture hall of the new L. D. S. College has been secured for the course of lessons, which will number ten in all, and the lessons will begin at 6:30 p. m. Mrs. Lee was here last fall and aroused a great interest in the study both of parliamentary law, and of expression, in both of which sciences she is conceded to be the best instructor in the United States. The lessons cannot fail to be of great value to the rapidly growing number of club members, and no better opportunity could be afforded them than that offered by the presence of the accomplished instructor in Salt Lake.

The history section of the Ladies' Literary Club will meet at the club house Thursday morning, March 14th, at ten o'clock. The subjects will be War with America and Waterloo, by Mrs. Arthur Brown. The one-minute talks will be on the Duchess of Devonshire and Charles James Fox.

The Reapers club met in the Woman's Exponent office, Templeton, on Monday, March 4th. Mrs. Mary L. Morris gave an interesting paper on the FEMINE FLOTSAM.

THE FASHIONS. Shirt Waists Still in Favor—Fashion in Mourning—Old Dutch Styles.

The shirt-waist seems to have been adopted as a permanent part of the American woman's outfit. The predictions made each year by cynical observers have never been borne out by facts. This year the leading modistes of not only this country, but of the great foreign centers of fashion, report a large assortment of these simple and convenient garments as ever before. Already new designs for the early and middle spring are in the market, and beyond these, may be studied the creations which are to be worn next June. The tendency is toward the simple and elegant, and several French combinations of silk with other tissues are upon the counters, and have well merited praise. In decorative treatment, they are larger than last season's, and the critic it would seem as if women

AN INFORMAL DINNER GOWN.

One of the Most Attractive of the Spring Models.

Now is the season of informal dinners and the beautiful creation illustrated above is one of the most attractive models shown for wear at these delightful functions. It is built of pale yellow poplin, as light in weight as gauze, the crepe de chine, and is trimmed with an effective black and white pattern. Little paniers on the hips are formed of narrow bias folds. Vest of crepe and each of panel gray with a leaf design embroidered upon it.