

comfort and more peace in our hearts, and our spirits will be buoyant and light, full of joy and peace. The Bishops should, through their teachers, see that every family in their wards, who is able should donate what they would naturally consume on the fast day to the poor.

You have read, probably, that we are starting the school of the prophets. We have been in this school all the time. The revelations of the Lord Jesus Christ to the human family is all the learning we can ever possess. Much of this knowledge is obtained from books, which have been written by men who have contemplated deeply on various subjects, and the revelations of Jesus have opened their minds, whether they knew it or acknowledged it or not. We will start this school of the prophets to increase in knowledge. Brother Calder commences to-morrow to teach our youth and those of middle age the art of book-keeping and impart to them a good mercantile education. We expect soon to have our sisters join in the class and mingle with the brethren in their studies, for why should not a lady be capable of taking charge of her husband's business affairs when he goes into the grave? We have sisters now engaged in several of our telegraph offices; and we wish them to learn not only to act as operators, but to keep the books of our offices, and let sturdy men go to work at some employment for which by their strength they are adapted; and we hope eventually to see every store in Zion attended by ladies. We wish to have our young boys and girls taught in the different branches of an English education, and in other languages, and in the various sciences, all of which we intend eventually to have taught in this school. To-morrow evening we shall commence our course of lectures on theology. To that class I have invited a few, but not many. I believe I have invited the First Presidency, the Twelve Apostles, Bishop Hunter and his Counselors, the first seven presidents of Seventies, the Presidency of the High Priests quorum, the Presidency of this Stake of Zion, the High Council, the Bishops and their Counselors and the City Council. A few more will be invited, enough to fill the room. I wish us to profit by what we hear, to learn how to live, to make ourselves comfortable, to purify ourselves and prepare ourselves to inherit this earth when it is glorified, and go back into the presence of the Father and the Son. God bless you. Amen.

LOCAL ITEMS.

AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.—Theatre; King Henry IV. Falstaff—Mr. Couldock.

BOGUS.—We were shown a bogus one dollar bill to-day, rather roughly executed, bearing date July 1st, 1856, and purporting to be issued by the Drovers' Bank, Salt Lake City, Utah. As such a bank never had an existence, there is no danger of any person residing in this Territory taking such bills as genuine; but others at a distance might be led to imagine there had been some such institution here at one time, which would still redeem its paper, especially now that Utah stock is being extensively driven west and turned into cash. The note in question, we understand, was sent from Denver by the banking house of Hussey, Dahler and Co., to their house here, to inquire as to its genuineness.

THEATRICAL.—"Henry the IV." will be played to-night, for the last time, with Mr. Couldock as the fat, funny, fibbing, farcical old fellow Falstaff, Miss Couldock as Lady Percy, Mr. McKenzie as Hotspur, Mr. Lindsay as the Prince of Wales, and a very strong cast for the entire characters in the play. The performance will conclude with singing and dancing. Miss Nunn appearing in a song and little Miss Clive in a hornpipe. Go all who can enjoy Shakespear, and go early.

THAT COAL MINE.—Mr. B. Ashworth informs us that in digging for coal, up Mill Creek canyon, they have struck iron-stone of a superior quality. They have hopes of getting coal, and keep working away searching for it. The entire people of the County will be pleased if they should be successful.

CLASS IN THEOLOGY.—This class met last night, and instructive addresses were delivered by Presidents B. Young and H. C. Kimball. Remarks were also made by Elders W. Woodruff, G. A. Smith and G. Q. Cannon. The class was organized with a President, two Vice-Presidents, and two Secretaries, Presidents B. Young, H. C. Kimball and D. H. Wells, being elected the Presidents. Tickets of admission were also issued.

NOT SERIOUS.—We heard to-day that Br. George Romney had got his back seriously injured, the rumor being current through the city; but we are glad at being able to say that it is not so, it being only somewhat sprained by lifting a keg of nails.

Every Certificate will be numbered, and as only 5,000 will be issued, every purchaser will know by the number of his Certificate how the Enterprise is progressing.

It is to be understood that there is no limit to the number of Certificates to be issued to any one purchaser, thus offering to all the opportunity of getting as many shares or chances in the drawing as they choose; the only condition being that Ten Dollars' worth of Goods is to be purchased for each share.

The advantages to be derived by this Enterprise are so apparent that it is confidently expected that all the Certificates will be secured by April, 1868.

It must be evident to all that this is not a Lottery, nor an ordinary Gift Enterprise, for the reason that our Customers get such Goods as they choose, at the Lowest Market Rates, obtaining the full value of their money at the time of purchasing, with the chance of drawing a Handsome Prize in the bargain. Our compensation arising from the greater quantity of Goods sold within a given period.

Disinterested men well established in the confidence of the people will be secured to conduct the drawing, which will be done on a perfectly equitable plan.

Ample notice will be given in the newspapers of the time and mode of drawing.

Finally, we pledge ourselves to faithfully fulfill all the above named conditions.

Goods on the above named favorable terms can be obtained at

WE are glad to say, our old customers have followed us to our new stand, (Main St., second door south of Salt Lake House,) and many new ones have been added. Our principle is, never lose a good customer. Have each pay his own indebtedness, not put profit enough on B. (who is good,) to cover the risk of A. who is doubtful.

Our Goods are such as the Market requires, and all of this season's purchase, bought low, freighted low, and for sale CHEAP.

Our Stock is complete in every line.
