THE WORKERS FAIR.

The Mayor of Chicago will not stop a party of miners on the grounds.

COLUMBIA, Feb. 16.—President Gage of the World's Fair directory sent a note to Mayor Cudger today calling attention to the intimidation of workmen by the unemployed at the fair grounds. The manager of the railroad yards, the manager of the telegraph wires, and the manager of police protection, the mayor directed the corporation to draw up an opinion, and the conclusion was reached that no force would be used to keep a force of police on the ground in anticipation of trouble, but in case of a riot the police would be sent to suppress it. The report, however, has been more moderate than the contractors or the World's Fair officials, although the commissioners are not on the grounds and seem to have no power.

The main points made in the contention are that the parks are under the direct control of the commissioners and provided with all the necessary services, and that the city has no right to interfere except by request of the park commissioners. Second, if the report is true that the railroad employees are allowed to remain on the grounds as visitors, as was done last year, it is made evident by any board of commissioners, officer, or contractor, that the city has no right to interfere, to any extent. The point is made that this is applicable because the city has raised $10 million on bonds in support of the park.

The force of police in Jackson Park at present does not exceed half a dozen, and, of course, it is wholly inadequate to cope with a mob which might number any where from 500 to 1,000.
