The Black Hills - Another Indian Attack on the Miners.

CHERRYVILLE, Wyo., 9.-A party of Indians, supposed to be Cheyennes, made an attack on Charles Ranch, on Home Creek, this morning. The Indians of this place, yesterday evening, a force of fifteen citizens mustered, gave the Indians battle and drove them off, capturing four of their ponies. No whites were injured. An detachment of the Fifth Cavalry left Fort Russell this morning to endeavor to intercept the Indians.

And Still Another.

DEADWOOD, D. T., 9.-On Tuesday Messrs. Dean and Young departed from Spearfish in a wagon for a hunt, and when four miles from Spearfish, they were attacked by twenty Indians. At the first volley Dean, who was driving, received two wounds, but managed to keep control of the horses, giving his companion an opportunity of using his rifle. By their great coolness and courage the men made their escape. Dean's wounds were severe, but thought not fatal.

Last night Indians made a dash on ranches a short distance from Crook City, killing Thomas Waldron, of Montana, and wounded another severely. The invaders were in running off about fifty horses. The man who was wounded killed one Indian.

Another rich strike was made today at Leadville, Colorado, in a city; eighteen tons was taken from one pan of surface earth. The claim is known as the "New Discovery."

Executed for Murder.

BALTIMORE, 9.-Charles Henry Simpson and Martin Henry, both colored, were hanged at Fort Tobacco, to-day, for the murder of John W. Everett in July, 1870.

The Extradition Treaty with Spain - Memorial for a Colonial Statue of Liberty.

WASHINGTON, 9.-The Senate, to-day, ratified the extradition treaty with Spain.

The President, to-day, transmitted to Congress a message enclosing a memorial of request of a committee composed of many distinguished citizens of New York, recently appointed to co-operate with a body of French citizens who design to erect in the harbor of New York a colossal statue of liberty enlightening the world. The memorial is signed by Wm. M. Evans, E. D. Morgan, Wm. C. Bryant and others, respectfully asking the concurrence of the President, and requesting him to transmit the memorial to Congress, and asking that a site on Bedloe's Island be given on which to erect a statue in commemoration of the hundredth anniversary of American Independence. The President, in his message, says, "Very little is asked of the United States, and I hope the wishes of the memorialists may receive your very favorable consideration."

Gov. Stearns, of Florida, Before the House Investigating Committee.

In the House privileges committee Field examined Gov. Stearns, and asked him whether he was not a resident of Florida, and whether he held certificates that two out of the four precincts in Baker county were fraudulently voted by the board of canvassers.

Witness-No. He said on November 8th no telegrams passed between him and the President, and that on November 9th he telegraphed Secretary Chandler that the train aboard of which were the carriers, had been wrecked by Kunkin, and he thought there was a reason in the fact that the train was wrecked by means of a bomb which could be had and troops to preserve the peace. He explained about the tenth of the counties of the State. There were democratic and republican county canvassers; that on the train which was wrecked there were only two persons who had been instructed to go to the western counties, and they were largely democratic, and ascertain the result of the election. He feared violence, the people were very excited and desired troops to preserve the peace. He said he had received a reply from Secretary Chandler saying, "Your telegram has been received and referred to the President at Philadelphia. Communicate with him and he will receive another telegram from Chandler about the 9th or 10th, asking what the situation was, and requested to be kept informed of any change in the situation. He did not telegraph to the President. About the same time he received a telegram from the Secretary of War saying that a sufficient number of troops had been sent to the place; had no recollection of any telegram from Secretary Chandler saying that he (Chandler) had seen an Indian treaty, and that he had received a dispatch from Secretary Chandler saying, "Grave importance attaches to the election, and we invite you to send a telegram to the President, or words to that effect. Nothing was said about money in any telegram between himself and Chandler, and he had no knowledge of any money having been received from the north either before or after the election.

Proceedings of the Electoral Commission - Florida for Hayes - Another Strict Party Vote.

The electoral commission were in secret session from 10 a. m. until 12 p. m. They were in session with the exception of two short recesses. Almost the entire time, until nearly the close of the session, was occupied with a debate, in which every one of the fifteen members, by turns, participated. Two or three justices and several senatorial members read elaborate prepared opinions upon the main question, and the entire body understood to have been, from its commencement to its close, of extraordinary power and ability. The question of the eligibility of Humphreys was not made the subject of much discussion; nor was any vote taken concerning it. At one stage of the proceedings, however, Senator Thurman offered a resolution declaring that there was not sufficient ground to believe that Humphreys was not a shipping commissioner on the 7th of November. This resolution was criticized by several republican members on the ground that it might carry the implication that if Humphreys had been such a commissioner on the 7th of November, his vote would have been invalid, and the resolution was not urged, there being no ground for it. The resolution was finally adopted, and the vote was taken, and the result was as follows: Ayes, 10; Nays, 5.

WENT TO THE NOTES NOT SPRINGS.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 27, 1876.

DEAR SIR, I suffered more or less for years with the itching or ulcerated Piles. I tried remedy after remedy advertised in the newspapers, and consulted physicians in this and other cities, but to no avail. I had a part of the box left which I gave to a friend of mine who had discovered with many physicians with relief, and he advised me to go to the noted Hot Springs of Arkansas, for treatment. He informed me that the Indian Ointment has also cured him of the piles. It is a wonderful discovery and should be known by thousands who are now suffering with that dread disease.
