

ence my family to live the Edmunds law according to your construction.

The Court—That is not the question. The question is, whether you propose to live with these women, and represent and hold them as your wives?

Mr. Spencer—I don't.

The Court—Do you propose, hereafter, to obey the Edmunds law faithfully?

Mr. Spencer—That is what I propose to Your Honor.

The Court—And to advise others to do it?

Mr. Spencer—I have done that.

The Court—The question is, whether you propose to do it in the future?

Mr. Spencer—I propose keeping the Edmunds law according to your construction, and advise nobody to break it.

The Court—Honestly and faithfully?

Mr. Spencer—Yes.

Mr. Dickson, prosecuting attorney, here arose and said, "In view of the statement which the defendant has made, I recommend that judgment in his case be suspended. I think, if he carries out his promise in good faith, he ought not to suffer, I suggest that judgment be suspended."

The Court—The court is disposed to give you the opportunity to see whether, by your life and conduct, you propose to carry out the provisions of the promises made to-day. I will, therefore suspend judgment for the present. At some future time the sentence will be pronounced; not at present. You will be given a fair chance.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY MAY 2.

P. P. PRATT'S CASE.

HE WILL NOT BE A TRAITOR, AND GETS THE FULL PENALTY OF THE LAW.

By request of District Attorney Dickson, Judge Zane this morning dismissed the charge of polygamy made against Parley P. Pratt. The prosecutor gave as a reason, that the defendant's first wife had been divorced from him since his marriage to the second, and consequently the third and last marriage was a legal one, and the accused could not be proceeded against for that.

Mr. Pratt was then arraigned on the charge of unlawful cohabitation, and pleaded guilty.

In answer to a question by the Court, Mr. F. S. Richards stated that the defendant was a poor man; his family being dependent on him for their support, and had saved the government expense by his plea.

The Court, to Mr. Pratt—Do you propose to obey this law, or to continue to cohabit with your wives?

Mr. Pratt—I don't propose to make any statement. I would have to consider the subject. I don't propose to make any promise.

The Court then stated, in severe tones, that the offense was not visited by the statute with a severe punishment as compared with polygamy, though he did not see much difference in the crimes. It was an unusual occurrence for the Court to pronounce sentence in a case where the accused gave no assurance that the offense would not be continued. This defendant was not willing to say that he would not continue to cohabit with his wives and break the law of his country. The Court was not here as an individual, but in behalf of the government, and could not show any leniency in this case. He was here as the representative of a great government, where in the fifty millions had pronounced against polygamy, and he must enforce the penalty in such a way as to carry out the purposes of the law. The sentence would therefore be six months' imprisonment and a fine of $300.

TRIAL OF A. M. MUSSER.

THE PROSECUTION FAIL TO PROVE ANYTHING—BUT THE JURY WERE PACKED TO CONVICT, AND DID SO.

Last evening the witness for whom the prosecution asked the Court to wait, failed to put in an appearance, and that side rested.

Recorder, George M. Cannon, was subpoenaed and produced the record of deeds, which was offered in evidence by the defense.

The prosecution objected, but the court finally decided to admit the record, if it was introduced to prove that the women occupied their own houses.

The record showed that, for the consideration of one dollar in each instance, the defendant transferred to the three women named in the indictment, certain property. The transfer took place on July 21st, 1883, and the deeds were recorded August 22d, 1883.

Mrs. Annie M. Sheets testified that Mrs. Belinda Pratt Musser occupied the west half of Mrs. Mary Musser's house only a while her own was being built. The new house was in the 18th Ward, where Belinda moved to in December last. Defendant had informed witness that he had deeded each wife a home.

The last statement was objected to, but was admitted as the statement of Mr. Musser.

The defense rested their case and the Court adjourned until 10 a.m. to-day.

This morning Mr. Dickson delivered the opening address to the jury, and was followed by Messrs. Brown and Bennett for the defense. In conclusion, Mr. Varian delivered a violent speech, denouncing the "Mormon" community, and declaring that polygamists would have to publicly disown their wives, and have the marriage contracts, whether legal or illegal, annulled.

The Judge charged the jury that if they believed, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant had lived in "the habit and repute of marriage" with the women named, or with any two of them, to bring in a verdict of guilty.

The jury retired, and returned in about twenty minutes with a verdict of "Guilty as charged in the indictment."

Sentence will be pronounced on Saturday, May 9th.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, MAY 4.

A New Penitentiary.—The sum of $55,000 has been appropriated, with which to erect a new penitentiary for Utah. Marshal Ireland has received official notification of the appropriation, and the money will soon be forwarded and deposited in the Deseret National Bank. The site for the new building has not yet been definitely determined, but as soon as practicable, it will be selected and the work commenced.

Departure of Delegates.—Agreeably with the resolution adopted by the various mass meetings that assembled throughout the Territory on Saturday, to the effect that Hon. John T. Caine, John W. Taylor and John Q. Cannon be delegated to proceed to Washington and present the document which has been prepared, setting forth the grievances of the people and protesting against their continuance, to the President of the United States, these gentlemen left by this morning's U. C. train for the East.

Bail Reduced.—This morning the District Attorney moved for a continuance of the case of the People vs. Robt. Lowrie, for enticing females into a house of prostitution, until the next term of court, giving as a reason that important witnesses were absent in either Weber or Summit Counties, and the Marshal had yet been unable to find them. The defense objected, but the case was finally continued, and, on the suggestion of Mr. Dickson, the amount of bail was reduced from $1,000 to $500.

District Court Proceedings.—In the case of the Charter Oak Life Insurance Company vs. Wm. A. Stephens Trustee et al., the demurrer to the cross complaint was sustained and an exception taken.

The case of the People, etc., vs. Robert Lowrie, charged with enticing females, etc., was allowed a continuance, and the bail of the defendant reduced to $500.

Wm. E. Chappell and Thomas Rees, residents of Summit County, and Thos. Ainsworth, of Salt Lake County, were admitted to citizenship.

The case of the United States vs. Ole L. Hansen, for unlawful cohabitation, occupied the rest of the time.

Unexpected Death.—Our Randolph correspondent, Brother John Snowball, sends us the following item:

On Friday, April 24th, a boy about 8 years old, a son of O. J. and Fanny Spencer, of Randolph, went out in the field with two of his brothers and Brother Thomas Longhurst to pick up and burn sage brush. After playing and working for some time he left the rest and he was seen by Brother Longhurst to lie down. After he had lain some time Brother Longhurst went to wake him up, as he thought the boy had gone to sleep, and he feared he might take cold through the ground being very damp, but on reaching the little fellow he found to his horror that the boy was dead with his face pressed down in the soft plowed land. It is supposed that he died in a fit, as he was subject to fits. The funeral service was held in the meeting house on Sunday, April 26th, Bishop McKinnon presiding.

The Second District.—The Governor has issued the following proclamation, assigning Judge Boreman to the judicial district embracing the southern portion of the Territory, with headquarters at Beaver City:

The assignment of the said Jacob S. Boreman to hold court in the First Judicial District, at the adjourned February term, dated April 3, 1885, is hereby revoked.

Attest my hand and the great seal of the Territory, this thirtieth day of April, A. D. 1885.

[Seal] ELI H. MURRAY, Governor.

By the Governor, ARTHUR L. THOMAS, Secretary.

From the Sandwich Islands.—

Among the guests at the Walker House are a party of tourists from the Sandwich Islands who are returning to their home now after an extended trip through the Eastern and Southern States. One of the party, Mr. Samuel Parker, has been representing the Sandwich Islands at the New Orleans Exposition. His wife, who is also of the party, is a daughter of J. H. Napela, a prominent Hawaiian, who spent several months in our city a number of years ago, and was one of the first converts to the Gospel on the Sandwich Islands. When the party arrived in this city yesterday, they took occasion to hunt up their country people who are residing in this city, finding some of them at work at the Temple Block, and also calling upon them at their homes. They were agreeably surprised at finding them so well situated, and so contented. When asked by their visitors if they would return to the islands if the means were furnished them to do so, our resident Hawaiians declined with thanks.

The party were called upon at the hotel by a number of former missionaries to the Sandwich Islands, among whom were Elders John T. Caine, E. Partridge, H. P. Richards and F. A. Mitchell.

A Tip Over.—A gentleman by the name of B. Eggington, a resident of the Ninth Ward, of this city, having in view the trading of his city property for a place at Park City, borrowed a horse and light spring cart from James Thomson, of the 6th Ward, and set out early this morning, accompanied by his wife, to drive to the Park. On reaching the mouth of Parley's Cañon, and while passing what is known as the "red dugway," the horse either shied and ran the cart off the dugway, or backed off, it is not quite clear which, spilling the occupants out of the vehicle and then rolling down himself. The gentleman received a blow on the head from one of the horse's feet and the lady was also somewhat hurt, but both apparently were more frightened than injured when they were met a few minutes after the accident, by Bro. W. J. Pace, of Kamas, who happened to be coming down the cañon. The latter immediately instituted a search for the horse and cart, which resulted in his finding the wheels and axle with the springs attached, the other portions of the vehicle and the horse and harness having washed down the stream, which is now considerably swollen, and being nowhere to be seen.

Brother Pace brought the unfortunate couple and the remnants of the "trap" which were found, to the city with him.

FOREIGN.

TIENTSIN, 3.—An English fleet has occupied Port Hamilton. The Chinese protest against this as a violation of the integrity of Corea.

MOSCOW, 3.—The Gazette says it has reason to believe that an honest expedient has been found by which both sides can settle the Russo-English dispute.

Government has sent orders to Dover to cease chartering ships of small pattern for the transport service. This is believed to foreshadow the stoppage of all war preparations.

LONDON, 4.—In the House of Lords this afternoon Granville, in answer to inquiries, stated that England and Russia had agreed to renew negotiations in London concerning the Afghan frontier question, and that the meeting of the delimitation commission had been arranged in detail. His Lordship said that both England and Russia had agreed that the difficulties which had arisen from the Penjdeh incident should be submitted to "a full investigation and reference to friendly powers."

SUAKIM, 4.—El Mahdi's men are becoming more daring every day. Last night they surrounded Lambouk and Oloo and kept up a heavy fire on both places all night. The firing, however, was made from too long range to be effective. Another forward movement by the British troops is expected to take place to-morrow.

ST. PETERSBURG, 4.—It is stated that the Imperial ministry, in council, have decided finally upon the utmost limits of the concession which Russia is willing to make to England in the pending Afghan controversy. The Czar is expected to start for Moscow to-morrow, to celebrate the jubilee of the Russian nobility.

CALCUTTA, 4.—The public are dissatisfied with England's concession to Russia, and fears are generally expressed now that the English attitude may have already endangered the safety of the party composing the Lumsden surveying commission. Preparations for war on a large scale still continues in India.

What an Eminent Lecturer Said.

Prominent among men who have attained a national reputation is Mr. Edward L. Wilson, of Philadelphia, a natural artist, a superior photographer, and a fascinating speaker. In winter he addresses large audiences, and in summer he gives illustrated lectures at the various camps of moral and religious instruction throughout the country.

In consequence of close application to his professional duties Mr. Wilson became a confirmed invalid. His absorbing labor connected with photographing the Centennial Exhibition in 1876, when he had charge of over a hundred artists and workmen, first impaired his naturally strong constitution.

To a representative of a city paper who called on Mr. Wilson, he gave the following relation in regard to his loss of health and subsequent complete restoration:

"The strain on me had been too great. I went down, down, gradually, I became so prostrate that I could not sleep more than an hour or two in the course of the night. I suffered with acute neuralgia, and with headache, which, when they came on suddenly, would render me powerless to think or act. My appetite became capricious, and digestion demoralized. My throat gave me trouble, and I began to be afraid of Chronic Bronchitis. One day five or six years ago, a friend who had been cured of rheumatism by Compound Oxygen, said to me, 'Why don't you try Compound Oxygen?' I laughed at the idea, for I had no faith that such a thing could reach my case. But I consulted Drs. Starkey & Palen at their office in Girard St., and concluded to give their Treatment a thorough trial.

"In less than a month I began to feel a great change. My headache became less frequent, and I began to get better sleep. The strained, wearied feeling of the body from which I had long suffered departed, and with it the mental depression under which I had labored. Throat trouble went away, and I had a decided increase in lung power. My good appetite returned, my digestive organs disposed of all the food I gave them. I was as good as new.

"I have since engaged in my old duties with more than my former activity, and often in the open air, without any throat trouble. I attend without difficulty to the details of my large photographic business. I can work as a general thing about seventeen hours a day, and my work seldom tires me.

A "Treatise on Compound Oxygen," containing a history of the discovery and mode of action of this remarkable curative agent, and a large record of surprising cures of Consumption, Catarrh, Neuralgia, Bronchitis, Asthma, etc., and a wide range of Chronic diseases, will be sent free. Address Drs. STARKEY & PALEN, 1109 and 1111 Girard St., Phila.

Orders for the Compound Oxygen Home Treatment will be filled by H. E. Mathews, 606 Montgomery Street, San Francisco.

The horrible account contained in our dispatches of the manner in which a murderer at Great Bend, Kansas, was tortured and lynched by the excited populace last evening, illustrates how the brutal instincts of men bear sway to a great extent in this nation at the present time. The train on which the prisoner was being conveyed was stopped when about half a mile from town, and the guilty wretch taken from the officers. A rope was then placed around his neck, by means of which he was dragged behind a horse at all full gallop into the town and there hung up to an awning. While the laxity with which the laws are enforced and the frequent miscarriages of justice are certainly aggravating, and may palliate in some degree the disposition of the populace to execute justice on the spur of the moment, such atrocious barbarity as that recorded is totally inexcusable, and must be deplored by every right feeling person.
