MANASSA, COL. DEATH CLAIMS A. R. SMITH.

Respected President of San Luis Stake Succumbs to Long Illness.

Special Correspondence.

Special Correspondence. Manassa, Conejos Co., Colorado., May 21,—The people of the San Luis stake are shocked and a gloom is cast over them by the death of President Albert R. Smith, which occurred on Wedness-day, May 17, 1905, after four months' illness, from an attack of nervous pros-tration brought on by overwork, and an attack of lagrippe, which was thought but little of at first. This de-veloped into a complication of kidney and stomach troubles, ending in Bright's disease and dropsy. He was conscious to the end and counseled with his associates in the Priesthood, and with each member of his family. Albert R. Smith, son of Silas S, and Sarah Ann Ricks Smith, was born at Paragoonah. Iron county, Utah; April 1, 1862. Went with an exploring expe-dition with his father and others, pass-ing through the San Juan country in 1879, and came to Colorado to locate in 1852; was engaged for some time in the lumbering business, running a saw mill; married frene U. Haskel Jan, 13, 1886. 1882: was engaged for some time in the lumbering business, running a saw mill; married frene U. Haskell Jan. 18, 1886, and they have seven children, four boys and three girls, all of whom survive him. He performed a mission to the southern states in 1887, being absent from home about two and a half years. Acted as stake clerk for some time, af-ter his return until February, 1892, when he was called to preside; on the retire-ment of his father, holding this posi-tion until his death. He labored in season and cut of speason for the tem-poral and spiritual welfare of the peo-ple over whom he was called to pre-side. The funeral services were held in Notice is hereby given that written sealed proposals will be received for the building of a six-room brick schoolbouse, in whole or in part, for School District 21 (West Jordan), Sait Lake County, Utah, in accordance with plans and spe-cifications which may be examined at the residence of Joseph Hibbard, West Jor-dan.
