FRAGMENTS.

A girl wanted. See advertisement.

THE Eleventh Quorum of Elders meet at the usual place and time this evening.

"HAZEL KIRKE" will be played in the Theatre on Wednesday evening, by the Lewis Morrison Company.

THE case of the U. S. vs. F. A. Cooper has been passed, owing to sickness in the latter's family.

THE case of the People vs. William Martin will probably be dismissed, as his companions, Beardsley and Brown, have been pardoned on the ground that they were wrongfully convicted.

THERE will be a "Pirates of Penzance" meeting at Careless' music store this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

U. S. COMMISSIONER SPRAGUE'S accounts as such commissioner were approved in the District Court this morning.

THE grand jury says the houses of ill-fame which Judge Zane directed their attention to have been closed. Well, they ought to know.

HYRUM GOFF, who was arraigned on Saturday on three indictments for cohabiting with his wives, entered a plea of not guilty in each case this morning.

LEWIS MORRISON, with Miss Rose Wood and his talented company, will appear at the Salt Lake Theatre for one night only, on Wednesday, in "Hazel Kirke."

WM. J. JENKINS, under two indictments for cohabiting with his wives, and who, when arrigned on Saturday, took the statutory time to plead, entered his plea of not guilty this morning.

T. C. & H. WATSON have removed their coal office to the store of L. D. & A. Young on Main Street, where they will still continue to receive and promptly fill orders for all kinds of coal and also for general drayage.

WITNESSES in several cases were required to be in attendance at the Third District Court this morning, though it was well known no cases could be tried this week. But the witnesses were "Mormons," and it doesn't seem to make any difference how much they are inconvenienced, or what expense they are caused.

THIS afternoon, in the House, Mr. Stratford, from the committee on ways and means, reported back the communication of the Governor in relation to a letter from Secretary Lamar, and recommended that a joint committee be appointed to further consider the matter. A committee was appointed. A new bill providing further punishment for sexual crimes was read the first time and filed.

IN the Legislative Council this afternoon, a petition was presented by Mr. Slack from the ladies of the Washington County Silk Association, asking that premiums be offered for silk culture, and Mr. Francis introduced a bill to amend the city charter of Morgan City. The special order of the day, a bill in relation to highways, was then taken up and several important amendments were made to it by Messrs. Hammond, Barton and Sharp. When section 11 was reached the further consideration of this bill was made the special order for to-morrow.

Sentenced for Burglary.—This morning Thomas Scanlan and Frank Mitchell, who were indicted for burglarizing Edward Snelgrove's boot shop, were brought into the Third District Court, at their own request, to withdraw the plea of not guilty. Two others, were impleaded with them, John Walters and Daniel Hudson; and to clear these, whom Scanlan and Mitchell say are innocent, this step was taken, and the defendants entered a plea of guilty.

In reply to questions by the Court, both men made a clean breast of the affair, declaring they alone were the guilty parties. They had sold the goods to Walters and Hudson, who were arrested with the property in their possession. Scanlan stated that he had come here from Colorado, where he had been for five years; he was 25 years of age, and his parents lived in Pennsylvania; he was drunk when he committed the burglary. Mitchell was from Lowell, Mass., where his parents reside; he had worked at Butte, Montana, for five years, and came from there to Salt Lake about a week before the burglary; they had made the agreement to commit the crime when in the saloon under the Wasatch corner.

They were each sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

Hudson and Walters, who were declared to be innocent, have been arraigned and entered a plea of not guilty; they are now in the penitentiary awaiting trial.

THE NEW GRAND JURY

WILL PROBABLY BE EMPANELED ON WEDNESDAY—ONLY FOUR YET, AND ONE OF THESE DOUBTFUL.

The regular venire of twenty names, from which to select grand jurors for the February term of the Third District Court, was made returnable at 11 a.m. to-day, and at that hour the work of empaneling a grand jury began.

The first called were: 86 David L. Murdock, 12 Samuel A. Sheets, 8 John McDonald, 9 C. L. Haines, 17 W. G. Brim, 3 B. B. Van Deusen, 120 Henry Thayne, 21 M. H. Walker, 103 John Zimmermann, 100 Jos. Smith, 20 John H. Woodbury, 88 Henry Coulam, 33 C. H. Parsons, 89 Thomas Pells, 118 Gordon S. Beckstead.

Judge Harkness stated to the Court that Mr. Zimmermann was employed as chief engineer for the Brooklyn Mining Company, at Bingham; that the company employed 110 men, and the services of the engineer were such that the place could not be kept open, and if Mr. Zimmermann were required to act as juror, it would be at the loss of his situation.

The Court examined Mr. Zimmermann in regard to the matter, and excused him.

B. B. Van Deusen, having served on the grand jury for the preceding term, was excused.

23 C. D. Porter and 110 Jedediah Goff were then called and District Attorney Dickson commenced the examination.

David L. Murdock had the necessary statutory qualifications; was a member of the "Mormon" Church, and believed in its doctrines; he was therefore excused.

Samuel A. Sheets shared the same lot for the same reason.

John McDonald was excused because he had never seen his father's naturalization papers.

C. L. Haines did not believe in the doctrine of plural marriage and was accepted.

A. G. Brim believed in the doctrines of the "Mormon" Church, and was excused.

Henry Thayne was a member of the "Mormon" Church; he attended meetings occasionally and partook of the sacrament; believed in some of the Church doctrines; did not believe in plural marriage; had never given the doctrine of revelation any thought; his children were too small to teach; would not say that the Church was imposing the doctrine of revelation on the people; did not know whether the doctrine of revelation was spurious; had an opinion that part of the Church doctrines were true, and part false; as to the revelation enjoining plural marriage, he had no belief; did not know whether it was right or wrong. Challenged and excused.

M. H. Walker was a citizen, and did not believe in plural marriage; accepted.

Jedediah Goff was a member of the "Mormon" Church and believed in its teachings; excused.

Joseph Smith was excused for the same reason, as were also John H. Woodbury and Henry Coulam.

C. H. Parsons did not believe in plural marriage, and was accepted.

Thomas Pells was not a citizen, and was excused.

Gordon S. Beckstead did not believe in plural marriage; he was a member of the Church, but not in full fellowship; one of his parents, his father, was a member; the latter attended meetings occasionally; his conduct was such that he was not in full fellowship with the Church; thought all revelations were a humbug, and that the Church leaders were imposing on the people; would be as zealous in prosecuting violations of the Edmunds law as any other offense; if he had any knowledge of relatives or friends or others violating the law against polygamy, he would furnish that information to the jury, and would name witnesses; would keep the grand jury proceedings secret; had spoken against the doctrine of plural marriage; had spoken in public in Church meetings; held no office; had been a teacher, but had been removed; had never raised his voice publicly against plural marriage; had only one wife, and had only lived with one woman as his wife; his wife was in fellowship with the Church; he had attended a Church meeting about three weeks since, when he partook of the sacrament; he believed those in authority were teaching false doctrines; was summoned as a juror about two weeks since; had served on a grand jury in 1880 or 1881; had not been spoken to by a member of the Church on jury business since having been summoned; would be as willing to indict the President of the Church as any other person.

C. D. Carter was not a tax payer, and was excused.

Marshal Ireland whispered something to District Attorney Dickson, and the latter again questioned Mr. Beckstead as to his having spoken against plural marriage; the juror could not recall the names of any whom he had thus spoken to.

Mr. Dickson held a short consultation with Commissioner McKay and Marshal Ireland, and received some promptings from Wm. Showell, after which he stated that he would pass Mr. Beckstead for the present, reserving the privilege of further examination.

The jurors thus far secured are: C. L. Haines, M. H. Walker and C. H. Parsons; G. S. Beckstead being still in doubt. These four were excused until 2 p. m., and a special venire issued for the following, from which to complete the panel:

129 E. B. Mitchener,
6 Jas. E. Malin, Jr.,
104 Wm. J. Spencer,
71 E. W. Ruff,
48 David M. Evans,
148 Geo. W. Kendall,
98 Cyrus H. Gold,
19 Joseph Simon,
94 Melvin M. Miller,
158 Oliver R. Robinson,
35 John S. Barnes,
194 John Kirkman,
78 Chas. J. Foulger,
13 E. B. Wilder,
99 Chas. Ericson,
79 Robert H. Anderson.,
103 John Daly,
68 Wm. A. Williams,
37 A. J. Gunnell,
113 Stephen Hayes,
5 A. H. Carter,
44 W. H. Jones, Jr.,
10 Geo. H. Pope,
73 Simon Woolf,
195 Wm. Frehner,
25 Milt. Barratt,
99 Robert Harmon,
58 H. D. McDonald,
66 John Wardrobe, Jr.,
31 F. M. Bishop.

The venire was made returnable on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mutual Aid Society.—The eleventh annual meeting of the Utah Central Railway Employes' Mutual Aid Society was held on Saturday evening, in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Hall. The address of President Swan congratulated the Society on the good work performed, and urged the necessity of all railway employes becoming identified with the organization. The statistical and financial reports were read by the secretary, the former showing a membership of 194. There had been received from contributions, entrance fees, etc., during 1885, from the three classes, A, B and C, $3,106.98. The society has paid out to members for sickness during that period, $1,558.35; to members withdrawing, $228.88. The total expenses for the year amount to $1,767.85. Of the capital, or income during the year, 40 per cent. was left to be distributed among the members, exclusive of $2,000 which it retained as a contingent fund.

The election for officers resulted as follows: President, George Swan; Vice-President, James Sharp; Directors, John H. Rachel, Jr., T. J. McIntosh, Samuel Hamer, Jos. M. Cahoon, James Latimer, Wm. H. Watson, Robert S. Bull; Secretary and Treasurer, Rodney C. Badger.

The society has, since its inception, been a great benefit to those members who have suffered by sickness or have received injuries at their work, and commends itself to the employes of the railway company, every one of whom should for his own interest, become connected with the Mutual Aid.

Funeral of Father Lees.—The funeral service of Father John Lees, which was held in the 19th Ward meeting house yesterday, was largely attended, a special feature of the occasion being the presence of the Tabernacle choir to furnish the music. The speakers were Elders Henry Grow, Peter Gillespie, George Nebeker, Samuel Hamer and Bishop Watson, all of whom spoke highly of the character of the deceased, and gave words of encouragement for the living.

A CANARD.

THE DEMENT REPORT OF FRAUDS IN UTAH A CRUEL FABRICATION.

The dispatch contained in our Saturday's issue, giving an account of a pretended interview with Surveyor General Dement and certain charges of fraud and bribery made by him, which implicated not only the "Mormons" as a people but the Federal officials of the Territory as well, was very generally denounced by readers in this region as a canard. If the charge had been against the "Mormons" alone, it would probably have received little or no adverse comment from the non-"Mormon" press or people and the Latter-day Saints would have passed it by as they do the thousands of other lies which are circulated about them, as unworthy of any particular attention, but seeing that others besides them were likely to be affected by the false report it has not been suffered to go long uncontradicted. Governor Murray telegraphed as follows concerning it this morning:

R. S. Dement, Surveyor General of Utah, Commissioner's Office, Washington City, D. C.

I call your attention to the Washington dispatch to the New York Graphic of yesterday. Are you responsible directly or indirectly for the statement connecting me with this matter?

ELI H. MURRAY.

Following is the reply received:

WASHINGTON, D. C.,
Feb. 1st, 1886.

Gov. E. H. Murray:

No, no, no. The Graphic dispatches purporting to contain an interview with me are baseless fabrications. It is all a cruel canard, intended to injure me. Please publish this.

R. S. DEMENT.

The regular dispatches of to-day also deny the statements made in the pretended interview and denounce it as "a cock and bull story."
