

MAN AND WOMAN HELD FOR MURDER

Accusation Comes as a Result of Letter Written by Suicide
H. T. McMahon.

WERE ARRESTED IN THIS CITY

Matter Shrouded in Mystery But Suspects are Held Pending an Investigation.

As a result of a strange tale and a letter written by Henry T. McMahon just before he killed himself in the Boulanger roominghouse at Ogden yesterday morning, Myrtle Huling, a woman of the town, and her lover, G. A. Lorenz, are under arrest and are in the city jail, accused of murdering a man for his money at Elko, Nev., July 15, 1904.

McMahon had been a lover of the woman, but she threw him over and took up with Lorenz. This enraged McMahon, and he swore to have revenge. He declared that the Huling woman and Lorenz intended to murder him.

Yesterday the contents of a letter written by McMahon were made known to Chief Lynch, and the arrest of the woman and her lover followed. Both maintain their innocence. The letter written by McMahon follows:

McMAHON'S LETTER.

"When this reaches you I will be no more. I have taken the Salt Lake papers and my address was at Denio, Harney county, Oregon, and afterwards changed to Diamond, Ore.

"If the chief of police in Salt Lake would have done his duty this would not have happened. He was written to asking the description of a woman rooming at 337 south State street, but he did not answer it. He and his officers must have got part of the money the poor unfortunate one had who was murdered for me.

"Myrtle Huling is the name of the woman living at 337 south State street, who planned the murder and her lover, the one that met her at Sacramento, July 13, 1904, the one that is with her now at 58 Commercial street, is the one who did the work. I am the man who bought her the house where she now is and the one her lover aimed to murder. I did not know this until I left Salt Lake last Saturday. I have defended Myrtle and if this had not happened it would have cost her her life.

"I met her in Boise, Ida., last February and went with her to Salt Lake and roomed in No. 18 in the Montana rooming house. I left her there, but she persuaded me to come back again in July, and it was at this time that she and her lover made it up to murder me. Hoping that you will see justice done, I am,

"HENRY T. McMAHON."

SHROUDED IN MYSTERY.

A few incoherent words muttered by McMahon, and the above letter are all that the police have in the way of a clue. Who the man was who it is alleged was murdered, or how he came by his death, the police do not know. Information has been asked for from Reno, and the local police will hold the Huling woman and Lorenz until the case has been thoroughly investigated.

LOCAL PAINTER DEAD.

Victim of Pneumonia After an Illness of Five Days.

The many friends of Herbert J. White will be pained to learn of his death, which occurred on Thursday at 2 o'clock, after an illness of only five days, of pneumonia. Very few knew of his sickness, and none had any thought of his being fatal.

This is the last of the three brothers, all dying of the same disease within three years. Harry White died three years ago next February. His brother William followed him 11 days after, both leaving their wives and children, the former having three, and the latter two; now Herbert is called, leaving a wife and three little children. All three brothers were excellent workmen, and were well known among their craft, and beloved by all.

The funeral will take place on Sunday at the Twenty-first ward chapel, corner of K and First streets, at 2 o'clock. The services at the grave will be conducted by the pastor of the ward. The funeral union, of which deceased was also a member, will turn out in a body, and assist in the burial of their departed brother, and it is desired that all members of local lodge 77 attend with their badges, and that every degree respect be shown to the

PREVALENCE OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE

Chicago's Health Commissioner, Dr. Reynolds, reported on Oct. 5 last that out of 448 applicants for Fire Department positions, one in every 17 were rejected for Bright's Disease. He adds: "It is not reassuring to learn that 6 per cent of Chicago's male population in early manhood is afflicted with Bright's Disease."

In older people the percentage is higher, and Dr. Loomis of Bellevue Hospital, states that from the autopsies 87 per cent of men and women over forty have it in some form.

The census gives support to the above. It shows that the annual deaths from Bright's Disease have increased from 1,723 in 1870 to 58,748 annually in 1900.

There were no deaths reported from Bright's Disease before 1870. The deaths were then believed to be due to kidney trouble and were so reported.

When to suspect Bright's Disease—weakness or loss of weight, puffiness ankles, hands or eyelids; kidney trouble after the third month; urine may show sediment; fulling vision; drowsiness; one or more of these.

We desire to place in the hands of those having Bright's Disease a 36-page report on a large variety of test cases put on Fulton's Renal Compound for Bright's Disease. It shows 37 per cent of recoveries in this hitherto fatal disease. The pamphlet is free. F. J. Hill Drug Co., Agt., Salt Lake City.

NOVEL HOLIDAY EDITIONS.

Beautiful Assortment of Varied Books Just Issued.

The daintiest, most novel, and altogether the most attractive instances of recent book lore, have just reached the "News" establishment in the shape of seven holiday publications turned out from the elegant presses of Paul Elder & Co., San Francisco. All the binding is in a unique holiday form and the titles fully describe the range of subjects covered. These are:

"Sovereign Woman vs. Men," a medley of quotations compiled by Jennie J. Haines.

"Good Things and Graces," by Isabel Githens, a series of ethical recipes.

"Blue Monday Book," a book of happily selected optimistic quotations of prose and verse to cheer each "blue Monday" of the year.

"The Joke Book Note Book"—a boon to forgetful humanity, invented and designed by Ethel Watts Mumford.

"The Psychological Year Book," compiled by J. W. Young. Quotations for every day in the season.

"A Critique of Socialism," by Edward F. Adams, an essay read before the Ruckin Club of Oakland, Cal., a convocation of fervent socialists.

Climatic Cures.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overrated. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger to the consumptive, can be prevented by stopping by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.
