MA What he Brenght Home: Mr. Setemup came down stairs to a 10 o'clock breaktast with a vacant countenance and a backward ten-dency in his hair which made his two eyes ache. He sat down at the table, and, picking up his knife and foris, glazed in uneasy wonder at admething in the platter before him. It had evidently been fried in but-ter, and was listended for food. Mr. Setemup harpooned H with his fork and lifted it up holdly, gasing at it with ever increasing wonder." What under the sun," he exclaimed at last, "is this thing?" "Well," re-plied his patient wife, with just a shadow of a sigh, "it looks like your new soft felt hat, and that is what I thought it was; but you pulled it out of your pocket when you came home this morning and said it was a nice porter house steak, and you wanted it broiled for breakfast. You needn't give me any of it; I'm not hungry." And Mr. Setemup, who was just wild to know what else he said when he came home, and what time it was, for the life of him didn't dare toask.—Burdett.

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of Wm. J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says : "In the fall of 1976 I was taken with a VIOLENT BLEEDING taken with a VIOLENT BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS followed by a se-vere cough I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report was so far gone at one time a report went sround that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

better spirits than I have the past three years. "I write this hoping you will pub-lish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be in-duced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMP-TION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work. Sold by all druggists.
