POLITICAL.

The Territories Protest against the Abuse of Authority in Appointments.

DICKINSON FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—It is stated here on excellent authority that the democratic managers have decided on the nomination of Don M. Dickinson for vice-president. It is said by a gentleman in a position to know what is going on in administration circles, that W. H. Barnum, chairman of the national committee, Senator Gorham, his probable successor, Wm. L. Scott, the mouthpiece of the President, and several prominent members of the New York delegation had a conference on the matter in this city and arranged the programme for Dickinson's nomination. The Postmaster-General knows nothing of what has taken place and the gentlemen have no assurance that he would accept the nomination. A friend of his says, however, if the nomination should come to him by a unanimous call from the party he would not decline although he would reluctantly leave his present office.

ABOUT BLAINE.

NEW YORK, June 4.—General Lawton, Minister to Austria, arrived on the steamer La Gascoyne Sunday. In an interview Lawton said one month since he dined with Blaine in Rome. He thought from the tenor of Blaine's remarks at that time he would accept the nomination as President if selected by the convention. He said that the statesman was rapidly growing old, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

WHITE FOR CHAIRMAN.

ST. LOUIS, June 4.—The Republican says: The contest for the honor of presiding over the democratic national convention assumed large proportions yesterday. The Californians with their usual energy worked their White boom and with their hearty, good-natured, cheery ways made friends on all hands. One serious obstacle in the way up to Saturday night was the opposition of Senator Hearst. It seems that as the members of the California State Senate were opposed to the nomination of Hearst for United States senator in the democratic caucus, Hearst in turn opposed putting the gavel of the temporary presiding officer of the national convention in the hands of White. All day Saturday the mutual friends of White and Hearst labored with the senator and at last succeeded in inducing him to withdraw his opposition. This was a big point won for White, as Hearst's influence with the national committee might have been sufficient to defeat his aspirations.

CONGRESSMAN SCOTT

will doubtless be elected chairman of the national committee and have personal charge of the campaign. To an Associated Press reporter Scott said: "Nothing has been settled as to the platform or as to the chairman of the committee on resolutions."

When questioned as to the movement for Thurman and the vice-presidency, Scott said the sentiment in favor of the Ohioan seemed to be gaining ground. "But," he added, "all this may be changed later. There are not enough delegates here to enable one to predict anything, and all present calculations may be upset and today's indications changed."

of Indiana arrived Sunday afternoon. To a reporter he said: "Yes I regard the nomination of Gov. Gray to the vice-presidency of the most vital importance to national success. Since the admission of Indiana into the Union in 1816 no democrat has been elected president without the electoral vote of Indiana, and the result this year will not prove an exception in her history. Cleveland will be re-elected with the vote of Indiana or not at all. Four years ago Indiana cast 450,000 votes and will this year probably exceed 525,000. When it is considered that neither one of the great parties has a majority in this enormous vote but must succeed or be defeated by a small plurality of 6000 or 7000, it must be obvious at a glance how important it is for the democratic ticket to have every atom of strength possible. As to Judge Thurman no word of mine shall ever disparage his great ability or the love which is borne for him by the democratic party, but with the Senate equally divided and an absolute tie between the two parties from and after the fourth of next March and with the control of that body depending upon the casting vote of the vice-president it seems not unwise or unkind to suggest the uncertainties of life to one who has borne the heat and burden of battle until his days of labor seem drowing to a close.

GRAY'S PROSPECTS.

Senator Tarpey said: "There is very little doubt of Gray's nomination from what I can learn so far, although I have only been in the city a few hours. I am confident Gray's chances are by far the best of any of the candidates and his boom is growing every hour. I do not contemplate any trouble over the platform. The Pacific Slope delegations are demanding a silver plank but there won't be any trouble over it. The platform will be formulated in committee and all differences will be settled there. We may make the silver men some concessions but there won't be any trouble over it. The convention won't lose over two or three hours after it is organized.

OPPOSED TO THURMAN.

Considerable opposition to Thurman has developed in the south and the Gray men are full of fight and hopefulness. Colonel Mason and other friends of the Indiana governor have made renewed efforts to ascertain if Thurman is the choice of President Cleveland and have pressed Congressman Scott for an answer to interrogatories. Scott today said he had no intention of trying to force the nomination of Thurman or anyone else and he had not come out here for that purpose.

Other friends of President Cleveland declare Cleveland has not said one word concerning his choice for vice-president and claim he has steadfastly refused to express a preference. The Gray men are talking this to every delegate they can reach. Objections to Thurman on account of his age are heard more frequently than ever before. When the New York delegates arrive the Thurman boom is expected to take a great leap forward as both Tammany and the county democracy favor him.

Ex-mayor Grace, a leading county democracy man, says Thurman's nomination is assured. Some of the advance guard of the New York delegation, however, are opposed to the Ohioan.

NEW YORK FOR THURMAN.

The New York delegation (72 votes strong) will beyond a doubt vote solid for Thurman. Gray and Black do not take kindly to this and the opponents of Thurman of Ohio declare this "very poor politics," but all opposition seems to be in a fair way to be overwhelmed. Illinois is divided and can exert but little pressure for Black. However, his friends claim a strong following from Colorado, Minnesota, Dakota, Michigan, Ohio and many from the south. Their cry is that the ticket must have a soldier on it to win the soldier vote. Friends of Governor Gray are making every endeavor to stem the popular tide for the old Roman but at present it seems that they are losing ground. Every club and every delegation that arrives has a voice for Judge Thurman, although there are a number who don't agree with "that sort of politics." The Iowa men who arrived this morning were strong in their praise of the "Old Roman."

Watterson's friends are pushing him for permanent chairman, and though it has been conceded that Colonel Pat Collins had a mortgage on the chair, there appears to be a pretty fight now on hand for this honor.

It is reported at noon that Gorman of Maryland will be chairman of the committee on resolutions. The committee on credentials will probably be merged into the committee on resolutions.

THE TERRITORIES

opened headquarters this morning at Hurst's Hotel, where they have secured good rooms, at the corner fronting Broadway and Chestnut, overlooking the bright verdure surrounding the Court-house, disclosing to the view of the visitors the only vestige of grass to be found anywhere in a radius of a mile in this granite-paved district. Arizona, Utah, New Jersey, Washington Territory, Idaho, Wyoming, Dakota and Montana have pooled their issues here and the local questions of free pass and free water have been buried while the delegates unite in pushing what they choose to call the rights of squatter sovereignty. The vital question with them is the territorial representation, and they will ask the committee on resolutions to find room for a clause compelling the President to select appointees from residents, instead of inflicting on the pioneers of these regions the cultured office seekers from the eastern states, who do not understand the requirements of the section to which they have been appointed.

A committee of three has been appointed to accumulate anything they may deem expedient on this alleged abuse of authority, and the delegation will meet again tomorrow morning to receive and act upon their report before it goes before the convention.

No nominations were made for committees, as the paucity of delegates from the territories does not render this necessary. The committees are already named. Each delegate will take his turn on them, and no organization will be attempted after the manner of states.

UTAH IS REPRESENTED

By three delegated and one national committeeman, but the "Mormon" Territory had no voice in this morning's meeting, although the territorial delegates are anxious to learn the views of Utah on the "Mormon" question. Unofficially it is known that anti-polygamy will be espoused, owing to the action of the "Mormons" in endeavoring to pack the last democratic convention held in the Territory when delegates were ejected in dozens from the hall after failing to answer the catechism of the dyed in the wool democrats, who were not to be imposed upon by any specious returns from alleged primaries.

Utah is here with an object and will not squander their time in pressing their claims on the convention. Mr. Parley L. Williams will represent the Territory on convention resolutions. He is armed for the fray with a library of statistics and will assay to force on both political parties the anomalous situation which exists in Utah according to his assertion. He objects to the usual polygamous plank which appears in the republican and democratic platforms in every campaign and will make the fight on a different issue. The Mormon element has battled for state rights and to achieve their aim the polygamous faction has striven to secure recognition as a state under a constitution which they think would secure the privilege of perpetuating Mormon principles. The democratic delegation, assisted by Col. Ferry, the national committeeman from Utah, is and will demand from the convention an expression of repugnance of polygamy when coupled with an application for citizenship.

"The territory has sufficient population to demand admission as a state," said Mr. R. C. Chambers, chairman of the delegation, "but we insist that they do not rank as citizens, as they cling to the people's ticket, which is nominated by the Mormon element and refuse to accept democratic or other doctrines that are not approved by their elders. At our last convention, held in Ogden, the Mormon delegates were rejected when subjected to cross-fire from our committee on credentials. They made a clear back down and resolved to cling to the church. All we have to do is to fight in conventions to prevent an intermeddling Congress from interfering in our affairs, of which it knows absolutely nothing. We want to prevail on republicans and democrats to recognize Utah in its true light and open their eyes to the fact the Mormons have no politics outside of the church and are not entitled to citizenship."

THE TIDE FOR THURMAN.

Thurman will be nominated for Vice-President without contest. Sunday night the supporters of Governor Gray of Indiana were full of hope, but tonight they admit to their confidential friends that the Thurman cyclone is sweeping before it everything. They kept up a show of fight during the day, pulling on the New York and other delegations and repeating the speeches which were made yesterday to the Californians. A part of their tactics, too, was the wild, but rather ineffectual, shouting of the Hendricks Club boys in the corridors of the hotel.

The Thurman breeze developed into a tornado when the New York City delegates, the county democracy and Tammany Hall marched through the streets shouting for Thurman. The Tammanyites were the most loudly cheered by the throngs on the sidewalks and in the hotels, and within half an hour they were busily engaged helping their Pacific Coast friends pin red bandanas on the coats of all the multitude. These Thurman emblems are everywhere to be seen, and the sentiment of the grand old Roman is conceded on all sides. Scott persists in declaring Thurman is not the administration candidate, but adds, Thurman will be nominated because the party wants him and because he is the strongest candidate. He admits Thurman is his personal choice, but denies that Cleveland is in any way committed to the movement.

THE DISTRIBUTION OF TICKETS

has provoked some comment. Each was limited to five, while at the convention of 1884 they were allowed six apiece. There is great demand for tickets and the delegates must make other arrangements to fill the requisitions of friends to whom they have pledged admission.

General Sheridan.

WASHINGTON, June 4. — At 2:40 o'clock all the doctors are at General Sheridan's bedside. Mr. Matthews has just arrived in response to a summons. No bulletin has been issued since 5 o'clock this morning. The attendants refuse to see reporters until after the next bulletin which is expected very soon.

3:05 p. m.—Rev. Father Chappel is now with General Sheridan. Two messengers have just now hastily entered carriages and have been driven hurriedly away.

3:21 p. m.—Within the last hour an other attack of heart failure has occurred. The worst may be feared any time.

3:25 p. m.—Oxygen is now being administered to him. It is stated at the house since the last bulletin was issued the General has rallied somewhat and is now slightly easier.

4:25 p. m.—General Sheridan has just had a very severe hemorrhage. The blood ejected from his mouth is almost black and clotted.

General Sheridan is now weak and exhausted and in a comatose condition. He has only rallied very feebly from the attack which nearly caused his death. The which preceded the attack of heart failure came from the lungs but was not accompanied by coughing. The blood emitted was dark and thickly clotted. A recurrence of the heart failure followed closely upon the hemorrhage. His pulse beat feebler and still more feebly. His breathing grew exceedingly labored and heavy and the sick man's face assumed a bluish tint. His heart ceased to beat for a few seconds and the anxious doctors bending over him thought all was over. Prior to this time, however, extraordinary measures had been taken to prevent or lessen the attack which the physicians knew was coming and the system, when it seemed that life was at an end, slowly and weakly responded to the treatment administered, and gradually a slight rally took place. A galvanic battery was applied to his neck and back, and at last the patient was brought from the verge of the grave to consciousness again. He lay back exhausted, and every one in the room remained anxiously watching and dreading a return of the attack. It was the worst of all the attacks. He is extremely weak, but at times his mind is clear though the intervals of consciousness are followed by others, during which he appears not to realize what is going on around him. He does not talk at all, and the doctors, ever since his lungs became affected, have done all in their power to dissuade him from using his voice.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—A bulletin at 12:5 a. m., says: There has been no material change in the condition of the General. He has been sleeping since the last report.

The Papal Rescript.

CORK, June 4.—A monster meeting was held in the City Park Sunday to take action here with reference to the Papal rescript. The meeting endorsed the resolutions adopted by the Irish bishops in their recent meeting in Dublin. William O'Brien said the leaders of the Irish movement wished to drop the rescript agitation, but would continue it if necessary.

False Imprisonment.

HANANA, May 26.—La Lucho, a most liberal and outspoken Cuban newspaper, published on May 21 letters from four prisoners confined in the cabana. They confirm the opinion existing that many prisoners now in the cabana are simply ignorant and inoffensive laborers who quarreled with the policeman or colonel of the district. Don Santiago Muerto Savedua tells of his arrest April 19. He testified before the lieutenant-colonel and told the truth, he says, but was tortured with thumbscrews till his bones cracked and he was inflicted with other tortures to make him tell more.

Don Antonio Molerio Ze Feo arrested April 16, was tortured in the same way in order to make him tell where the abducted Senor Aleutado was hidden. He didn't know.

Don Carlos Sosar of Leon, states that Lieutenant Sainz of the Guardia Civilia had him arrested with his two sons, age 29, having three years before attempted to secure his murder by two guards.

Don Florencia Diaz Z. Betancourt writes a fourth letter similar in character to the other.

Terrible Cyclone.

MILTON, N. C., June 4.—A teriblen cyclone passed over this place Saturday afternoon. It extended over a tract 25 miles long and 50 yards wide. The damage is enormous, as it passed through a farming section and everything in its direction was destroyed. So far as known, no lives were lost.

Psychics and Religion.

CHICAGO, June 4.—Mrs. Elizabeth Lowe Watson, who is known in San Francisco as "the little minister," lectured before a large audience at McVicker's Theatre Saturday evening on "Psychics and Religion." She did not wish to be understood as claiming supernatural power. All she knew of her power of speech was she was dependent on influences that always accompany her to the rostrum. Her sermon was based on the infallible truths of nature. "When men search for truth they always go to Nature," she declared." "When they seek to benefit their physical well beings they always go to her storehouse to study. Men have learned through ages of grievous suffering and misery that to run contrary to Nature's laws is to bring upon themselves disaster. The glimpses of divinity gained by men are but the apprehension of the truths of Nature."

Remanded for Swindling.

NEW YORK, June 4.—A small, sickly and spectacled man named Gustave Bearwald was arraigned in Jefferson Market police court today for swindling. He is known as D. Mortier, Gaston Bear, Dela Vallaine, Walter and Levy. His method was to get loans under the pretext that he was the son of a nobleman short of money, failure to receive remittance, etc. In court he persisted in claiming he was the son of D. Mortier, a French nobleman. According to his story, he graduated at the university of Bonn, in Germany; came to America eight years ago; was a compositor by trade; had made over $8000 by swindling, but lost it all in gambling. He says he swindled President Cleveland three weeks ago on the claim of a wound in the army and not being able to find his French relatives. He says the President gave him $250. Ex-Mayor Cooper has frequently aided him. The swindler told his story as a good joke. He was remanded.

Murderer Caught.

DENVER, June 4.—A. C. Barnhill, alias Alf Anderson, was arrested Sunday at Littleton for the murder of Jno. Lane, brother of the famous Jim Lane, of Arkansas, at Eureka Springs, Arkansas, two years ago.

Fire Devastation.

ST. PAUL, June 4.—The Pioneer Press learns from Northern Pacific Junction, Minnesota, that Cromwell, a little place twenty-two miles west of there, was wiped out by fire last evening.

A similar report comes from Washburn, Wisconsin, to the thirty-first Mile, a small town south of there.

PANAMA, June 4.—A fire which broke out in the Hotel Roma at two o'clock Sunday morning entirely gutted ten large houses. It is estimated $300,000 worth of property was destroyed.

Maxwell Will Swing.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., June 4.—At the session of the supreme court this morning Chief Justice Morton fixed the day for the execution of Hugh M. Brooks, alias Maxwell, the chloroform murderer of Arthur Preller at the Southern Hotel, for July 1. Last year the execution was fixed for August 23, but the case was carried to the United States Supreme Court.

The German Emperor.

BERLIN, June 4.—Emperor Frederick had a headache today. The discharges of pus from the throat have slightly increased. His general health and spirits are good.

Minister Von Puttkamer insists upon resigning.

A Peculiar Case.

ASHBURY PARK, N. J., June 4.—The confession of the negro murderer Kearney, that he was guilty of the rape for which "Mingo Jack" was lynched, is not credited.

The Dis De Bar Case.

NEW YORK, June 4.—The trial of Madame Diss De Bar, "spook picture painter," began this morning in the court of general sessions. She is charged with conspiracy to fraudulently obtaining property from Lawyer March. Today was largely devoted to securing a jury. The Madame has aged rapidly since her imprisonment.

General Boulanger.

PARIS, June 4.—General Boulanger took his first step in Parliament for the revision of the constitution. He gave notice he would submit the proposal for the revision of the constitution and would demand urgency therefor. He read a preamble stating that the elections which had produced so many manifestations in his favor compelled him to call attention to the sufferings of the country and the imminent crisis which threatened to become serious. France, he declared, no longer feels that confidence in the future which is necessary to every well governed country.

This statement was met with loud dissent. A revision of the constitution was an effectual way to take the government from the hands of the privileged class. How could ministries last, or any national policy be permanent which rested upon a parliament divided into groups, pursuing nothing but clique interests? It was notorious that some ministers had drawn money from the public treasury in order to secure electoral votes.

At this point the General was again interrupted by cries of dissent, and the president asked him to withdraw his statement.

General Boulanger declared that he had no intention of attacking the present ministers. Continuing, he asked whether the president of the republic was really a necessity, and whether France could not do without a president.

The president of the Chamber here advised Boulanger that it was time to bring his speech to a close. The General in conclusion said: "If France reconstituted should promise the continuity of her foreign relations. Supported by a powerful army, she would become the best guaranty for the peace of Europe."

M. Floquet credited Boulanger with a desire to calm the impatience of electors by the production of his motion. He feared Boulanger would merit the epithet of "Do nothing dictator."

The motion was rejected—377 to 186.

M. Pyatt recalled the fact that General Boulanger had been colonel of the Versailles army against the Commune.

M. Cassaignac exclaimed: "You were a Communist. Your place is in the convict station."

M. Pyatt proceeded, amid an uproar, to declare in favor of voting urgency in spite of the fact that he was no admirer of Boulanger, who owed his success to Opportunist persecution.

M. Floquet charged Boulanger with giving utterance to projects for the future, wherein the glory of Boulanger was the only thing discerned.

"My glory equals yours," rejoined the General.

M. Floquet reminded him that at his age, 51, the great Napoleon had done deeds, and he asked what chance there was that the general's ambition would attain anything.

After the defeat of the motion, the Chamber resolved, by a vote of 335 to 170, that the speech of Floquet should be placarded publicly throughout France.

Clemenceau, in closing the debate, said he would support the government. It was not a revision of the constitution that was at stake. The republicans demanded a revision, but were willing to wait until the government deemed it more opportune.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Munday, Esq., County Atty., Clay Co., Tex., says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. L. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters.

This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequaled. Price 50c. and $1, at A. C. Smith & Co's Drug Store. (6)
