Cunning Did the Trick-Cunning the professional juil breaker, made good his contention at the Orpheum last night when he got out of a packing case after having been nalled in-side by four of the packers of Z. C. M. T. It took him 16 minutes to perform the trick under the canopy out when he made his appearance down the alsie from the front entrance, disguised as a policeman accompanied by an officer, and demand. ed that the case be opened as the man inside might smother to death it was found that the big box was to all intents and purposes intact and just as it was when he was nailed inside. As soon as he was recognized the huge house cheered him to the echo. There were fully 500 people turned away from the Orpheum last light, the last seat having been sold at 6 p. m. As it was the rear of the theater and the two side alsles half way down were packed with men and women standing up, while some we known people were apparently conten with seals at the rear of the balcony.
