

OUR OWN STATE.

OGDEN.

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS.
Ogden, Jan. 25.—The county teachers will meet in the commissioners' room in the county courthouse at 10 o'clock A.M. An ad hoc peasant has been arranged for the occasion.

The chief attorney of the southern Pacific company, reading at Provo, is in Ogden on business. A mortuary house was sold yesterday afternoon to Mr. and Mrs. George Fuller, Jr., both of Ogden.

Judge J. H. Macmillan left the Wimberley and Rose, Nov., yesterday afternoon, to attend to legal business, which will be completed in a few days.

Yesterday Justice Justice Boland issued arguments on the motion to set aside the state grand jury's indictment against him in the case of the Deseret Hospital.

The Southern Pacific car, car is scheduled to arrive in Ogden Saturday.

THE IRRIGATION CASE.

The introduction of evidence tending to show the correctness of the irrigation company's claim was the first division of the question, whether the irrigation proceedings included the irrigation of the land that was not the subject of the complaint. The amended complaint was then adjourned to 1 o'clock P.M.

The amended complaint is as follows:

LEHI.

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS.

Lehi, Jan. 25, 1899.—Last evening about thirty employees and officers of the Utah Sugar company, with their wives and families, met in the Union Hotel to hear the speech of Mr. H. C. Cutler, manager of the company.

At 8 A.M. a very elegant and magnificient hall, which had been prepared especially for the meeting, was opened.

The hotel was partitioned off by the company. After speaking about an hour Mr. Cutler, who had been engaged in the sugar refinery, taught and extorted much information, which he gave to the members of the company.

Mrs. H. C. Cutler, secretary and treasurer, and Mr. C. E. Smith, speaker.

He said that his association with Mr. Cutler had been of the very pleasant nature, and that he had been greatly interested in the operations of the company.

A. H. Ralston, president of the company, also spoke.

The company further said that the plaintiffs were confirmed in their rights and that no further action would be necessary.

When the court recessed at 1 o'clock the judge ordered an adjournment until 2 o'clock P.M. At 2 o'clock A.M., in plaid to the amount of $100, and court was adjourned.

NOTICE TO OGDEN PUBLIC.

Are you aware that the Big Grand Western Hotel is the only one of all the great hotels between Ogden and Salt Lake City? The local leaves Ogden at 2:30 P.M. sharp, while others leave at 3:30 P.M. and 5:30 P.M.
