

BRYAN MAKES SWEEPING CHARGES

Declares Roosevelt Purloined Democratic Ideas and Owes His Popularity to Them.

Taft CAN'T EFFECT REFORMS.

"Shall the People Rule?" Still the Overshadowing Issue of This Campaign.

Medina, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Renewing the campaign in New York state territory today, William J. Bryan denounced the record of the Republican party, accused President Roosevelt of purloining Democratic ideas and owing his popularity to them, charged Mr. Taft with being unable to effect any reforms, and declared that a Democratic victory would do more to correct Republicans in Congress than any persuasion that Mr. Taft could bring to bear, if Republican record was achieved on that party's record.

Having traveled all night from Albany, a short stop was made in Rochester between trains. Proceeding on to Buffalo, addresses were made at Brockport, Holley, Albion and at this place, where Mr. Bryan spoke from a platform in the school campus. It became evident from the outset that President Roosevelt and Mr. Taft were to be made the objects of Mr. Bryan's attack.

At Holley the president was criticized for not enforcing the antitrust law against many of the trusts. "This is their record, and they cannot escape from it," Mr. Bryan said.

At Albion the Democratic candidate made reference to Mr. Taft's lengthy absence from Washington while he was a member of the Roosevelt cabinet and in connection he spoke of the panic of last fall. According to his own theory, he maintained the Republicans could not escape the responsibility for the panic, because it must be charged to the president in power.

"Not only did that panic come under the Republican president who picked out the Republican candidate now running in his cabinet at the time and was associated with the president all the time when he was away from Washington."

Amid laughter Mr. Bryan said the only way the Republicans were able to get that panic off Mr. Taft's shoulders would be to argue "that Mr. Taft was not there, that if Mr. Taft had been there he could have prevented it."

NEW REPUBLICAN SLOGAN.

Mr. Bryan also spoke of "the old Republican slogan of the last dinner party," but said that was no longer their slogan or emblem.

"Their new slogan is," he said, "It must have been worse."

The speech here was along similar lines, with some additional remarks in which he answered several questions put to him by the Chicago Tribune.

The first question asked by the Tribune was:

"If a Republican senate would not submit to Mr. Taft's kindly suggestions concerning labor legislation, how can you promise, or even intimate, that your election would result in procuring the same senate to do whatever you say they would not do for Mr. Taft?"

Mr. Bryan replied:

"If I am elected, it is probable that the house of representatives will be Democratic. I can recommend legislation in accordance with my platform, and the Democrats of the house, being pledged to the same platform, will approve of the measure. It will then be up to the senate, and I will not assume that all of the Republican senators will be willing to disregard a deliberate expression upon the part of the American people."

"SHALL THE PEOPLE RULE?"

"Shall the people rule?" is declared by our platform to be the overshadowing issue in this campaign. Is the Tribune prepared to say a Republican senate will, as a matter of course, disregard the decision of the people as expressed in the election of a president and house of representatives? If Mr. Taft is elected, a Republican house will probably be elected also. This would mean a reelection of the plank, and Mr. Taft, even if he were better disposed toward labor legislation than he is, could hardly expect either the house or senate to endorse measures rejected at the polls."

Question 2: "How do you expect to secure any of the legislation you are promising the people unless you have the hearty support of a Republican senate and a Republican Congress and at the same time base your claim to the votes of the people upon the assumption that the Republican party is against your every policy?"

"As I said before, if I am elected, the house will probably be Democratic, and we will have only a Republican senate to deal with, and in case our victory is a decided one, we will make gains in the senate. These gains will not only add to the Democratic majority, but they will strengthen the Democratic position in the senate. The Tribune fails to distinguish between the Republican leaders and the Republicans as a majority, but we will make gains in the senate and weaken the Republican opposition in the senate. The Tribune fails to distinguish between the Republican leaders and the Republicans as a majority, but we will make gains in the senate and weaken the Republican opposition in the senate. ## AWFUL RASH ALL OVER BOY'S BODY

Weeping Eczema Kept Spreading on Little Sufferer—A Score of Treatments Prove Dismal Failures—Grateful Father Tells of

CURE ACHIEVED BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"It gives me great pleasure to express my deep gratitude for the appreciation of the innumerable benefit that the Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent did for my little boy. He had an awful rash all over his body and the doctor said it was eczema. It was terrible and used to water awfully. Any place the water went it would form another sore and he would be in great trouble. A score of more physicians failed utterly and miserably in their treatment. Then I was told to use the Cuticura Remedies. I got a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, and before we had used half the Resolvent I saw a change in him. In about two months he was entirely well. When people see him now they ask, 'What did you do to cure your baby?' and as I can say, 'It was the Cuticura Remedies.' So in us Cuticura will always have firm and warm friends. George F. Lambert, 139 West Centre Street, Albany, N. Y., September 20 and November 4, 1907."

MILLIONS OF PEOPLE Rely on Cuticura Remedies.

Millions of the world's best people use Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, assisted, when necessary, by Cuticura Resolvent (liquid or pills) for preserving the complexion, curing itching, and for eczema, irritations and inflammations, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, and the curing of itching, chafings, and many sensitive, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, as well as for all the purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. Guaranteed absolutely pure. Cuticura Soap (25c), Ointment (50c), Resolvent (50c), and Cuticura Pills (50c) are sold everywhere. can compel a Republican senate either to accept the reforms, or present a definite issue upon them two years hence. It is reasonable to assume that the Republicans in the senate will recognize the force of public opinion and see the folly of putting themselves on record in opposition to the deliberate judgment of the voters. But let us consider for a moment the opposite proposition presented by the Tribune.

"It is this: If you have a Republican senate, you must elect a Republican president and a Republican house to act with the senate. If this is true this year, will it not be true four years from now and eight years from now and 12 years from now, and forever afterwards?"

If you elect a Republican president and a Republican house, the natural effect of such an election will be to keep the senate Republican for at least two years, and then, with a Republican president and a Republican senate, the Tribune will argue that we must have a Republican house, and the election of a Republican house would keep the senate Republican for two years longer, for the legislatures which will elect senators two years hence will be elected at the same time as the house. If this is true, in 1912, therefore, the Tribune could propose the same questions to the Democratic candidate that it now proposes, and if he answers them as the people to adopt this theory, it could keep the Republican party in power perpetually, by using the Republican senate as a club. If the people want to endorse the Republican cause, they ought to vote the Republican ticket; if they want to endorse the Democratic platform they ought to vote the Democratic ticket. It is illogical, but it is absurd, to say that they must vote for a Republican congressman and a Republican president merely because the senate is so constituted that it is impossible to make a complete change in its personnel at this election."

ATTACKS REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Brockport, N. Y., Sept. 21.—In a vigorous speech at this place today, delivered to a big crowd from the rear platform of his special car, Mr. Bryan attacked the Republican party on its record of things accomplished.

President Roosevelt, he said, was not satisfied with the ability of Mr. Taft to present the Republican cause and represent the Republican party and therefore he had given two endorsements of his former war secretary.

"But," he said, "it will require more endorsement than that from the present day to convince the people of this country either that the Republican party had done all that it should do, or that Mr. Taft will do all that ought to be done."

Mr. Bryan declared that, whatever Mr. Taft's inclination may be, he must co-operate with the Republican leaders in the senate and the house, and if he did not have influence enough to secure the kind of a platform he wanted at Chicago, if the Republican leaders at Chicago were willing to do for him in the very presence of the campaign, if they were willing to reject popular proposals in the face of the voters, are they likely to harmonize with him after election, when it is not necessary to consult public opinion?"

Mr. Bryan called attention to what he said was the conflict which has been going on for four years between the president and Congress.

"The president himself," he said, "had not been able to secure from a Republican Congress the legislation that he specifically asked for, and when he asks that Mr. Taft be elected to continue the work of reform, he confesses that the work of reform has not been completed. And you must remember that the reformation he talks about is the reformation of Republican laws and abuses that have grown up under Republican administrations. And if Mr. Roosevelt had not been able to secure these things, how do you expect Mr. Taft to secure them, especially when he said that the conflict which has been going on for four years between the president and Congress."

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

"It is probable we shall have a Republican senate for the next two years, since it would be well nigh impossible to make enough changes in the personnel of the senate this year to give the Democrats a majority, but we will make a beginning this year, and then by presenting tariff reform measures, measures against trusts, measures for more effective regulations, measures for the raising of bank deposits, measures carrying out labor reforms, measures declaring for ultimate independence for the Philippines and other measures out-lined in our platform, measures recommended by a Democratic president and endorsed by a Democratic house, we

FOREIGNERS WITH BAD RECORDS

Bureau of Information Has a Plan For Ridding the Country of Them.

WORKING TO PERFECTION.

Descriptive Cards of Them Sent to Heads of Immigration and Secret Service Departments.

New York, Sept. 22.—With the arrest of an Italian here on charges of feloniously attacking the Italian woman and a policeman, there has come to light a new plan, which the police say is working to perfection in ridding the country of a great many undesirable aliens. The bureau of immigration at Washington receives credit for the plan.

At the Mercer street station where the charges were lodged against the prisoner, the police have been furnished with a lot of cards such as are used for indexing purposes. These cards are filled out in duplicate and are sent to the heads of the immigration and secret service departments. They give a complete description and history of aliens with bad records.

Upon their arrests the courts try them as soon as possible.

They are then released, put into the hands of the government and sent back to the country from which they came.

A PAYING INVESTMENT.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Maine, says: "I have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed; a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." ## STOLEN BY BLACK HAND

Guiseppa Gulnta's Father Refused Blackmailing Demands and Now His Son Has Been Kidnapped.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Detectives seeking Guiseppa Gulnta, a boy who disappeared from his father's home at 79 Oak street last Saturday, are now convinced that the lad has been stolen by members of the Black Hand society. The boy's father revealed to the police yesterday that the son had been kidnapped. He had received threats from the Black Hand. He was ordered to give up $500, or lose his child.

Since the lad disappeared the father never would admit that he had been kidnapped. He had threatened him within the last year.

When pressed by one of his countrymen yesterday he broke down and cried: "I am afraid to give the letters to the police," he said. "If the Black Hand hear of such a thing they would kill me. Many of the letters have been burned. I will not reveal their contents."

A meeting of the White Hand society has been called to meet today to find ways and means of recovering the missing lad.

ARRESTED FOR FRAUD.

San Francisco, Sept. 22.—John M. Parker, who arrived in this city a few months ago with credentials from Louisville, Kentucky, and Louisville, Kentucky, as a hotel man, and who has since been manager of the Hotel Baltimore, was arrested here today on a charge of fraud. He was accused of defrauding two guests of money and other valuables amounting in value to $2,200.

"THE PALE GIRL."

Did Not Know Coffee Was the Cause. In cold weather some people think a cup of hot coffee good to help keep warm. So it is for a short time, but the drug—acts on the heart to weaken the circulation and the reaction is to cause more chilliness.

There is a hot, wholesome drink which a pale girl found after a time, makes the blood warm and the heart strong. She says:

"Having lived for five years in N. Dak., I have used considerable coffee to the cold climate. As a result I had a dull headache regularly, suffered from indigestion, and had no 'life' in me."

"I was known as 'the pale girl' and people thought I was just weakly. After a time I had heart trouble and became very nervous, nervous, knew what it was to be real well. Took medicine, but it never seemed to do any good."

"Since being married my husband and I both have thought coffee was harming us and we would quit, only to begin again, although we felt it was the same as poison to us."

"Then we got some Postum. Well, the effect was really wonderful. My complexion is clear now, headache gone, and I have a great deal of energy. I had never known while drinking coffee."

"I haven't been troubled with indigestion since I began to use Postum, and need no medicine. We have a little girl and boy who both love Postum and thrive on it and Grape-Nuts."

Couch Maddock is endeavoring to arrange a practice game between his team and the high school boys, to get his men into readiness for the game of Saturday with the Pocatello Athletic club.

A TRAVELING MAN RECEIVED THE THANKS OF EVERY PASSENGER IN THE CAR.

"I must tell my experience on an eastbound O. R. & N. R.R. train from Pocatello to Le Grande, Ore., writes Sam A. Leiber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the car and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' At once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic, so bad, in fact, that I was almost afraid to take the risk; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them. I gave her a death-like look over my face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whiskey. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I never travel without it. I ran to the water tank, put a little dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her. I succeeded. I could not see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her a death-like look over my face. I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband, to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car."
