DESERET EVENING NEWS SATURDAY MAY 22 1909

The week's social affairs began on Monday with several pretty luncheons, Mrs. Nephi W. Clayton and Miss Sybella Clayton entertaining at one in honor of Miss Jean Spencer, with covers laid for a dozen guests. The table was beautifully decorated in pink and white, with a centerpiece of sweet peas, and the same flowers at each end of the table. The place cards were tiny fans and the details of the menu were carried out in heart shape. Present beside the guest of honor were Mrs. J. D. Spencer, Mrs. R. S. Wells, Mrs. Harry Shepherd, Mrs. Sidney G. Saville, Mrs. J. T. Young, Mrs. Joel Nib-ley, Mrs. Horace Ensign and Miss Louise Clawson.

. . . Another pretty luncheon of Monday was that given by Mrs. A. H. Ensign and Mrs. J. J. Sears, the table being decorated in yellow with sun flowers and shaded candles, and covers laid for 12.

. . . One of Monday's luncheons was given by Mrs. J. A. C. Jacobson, the table being prettily decorated in apple blos--soms and covers laid for Mrs. Harry soms and covers laid for Mrs. Harry Ganz, Mrs. M. J. Frankland, Mrs. Louis Block, Mrs. Herbert Cohn, Mrs. Ben Davis, Mrs. Sig Simon, Mrs. A. J. Davis, Mrs. Gentry, Mrs. C. H. Richards, Mrs. Tony Jacobson, Mrs. J. A. Earls and Mrs. Manderfield.

Miss Eudora Daly was guest of honor at a delightful bridge tea on Tuesday, given by Miss Estelle Clinton, the decorations being in pink and white sweet peas and pink shaded candles, and the hostess assisted by Mrs. Fred A. Hale, Mrs. J. C. Daly, Mrs. W. L. Ellerbeck, Prizes were won by Mrs. L. A. Evans, Mrs. J. Rogers, Mrs. C. E. Traver, Mrs. W. M. Hunt, Miss Daly and Miss Howard of Garfield.

Mrs. Clara Bergstrom gave a box party at the Orpheum on Tuesday fol-lowed by a luncheon at her home in honor of Mrs. Emmett Moore, who leaves shortly to make her home in Scattle. . . .

Mrs. O. J. Salisbury entertained on Monday evening at a dinner in honor of her nephew, Monroe Salisbury, and on Tuesday gave a box party at the Co-lonial, about 30 guests being present.

Mrs. Jay Rogers entertains at two teas on Wednesday and Thursday. of next week. . . .

Miss Sarah Spalding entertains at a tea this afternoon for the Misses Du-* * *

Mrs. W. A. Cavenaugh entertained the Afternoon Bridge club on Tues-day, the prizes going to Mrs. Upham and Mrs. Harker.

Miss Katherine Holmes gave a lunchcon at the Knutsford on Wednesday, followed by a matinee party at the Bungalow. . . .

Among those who entertained at luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday were Mrs. William McCaskell, Mrs. F. E. McGurrin, Mrs. Charles Rooklidge, Mrs. C. I. Tuttle, and Mrs.

Rooklidge, A. . H. Vance Lanc. ea this afternoon for Miss Bessie Patterson and Miss Carrie Atkins. Mrs. L. C. Clive and Miss Hazel Han son will give an afternoon affair on June 5 in honor of Miss Jean Spen-Mrs. W. M. Hunt will give an afternoon party next Friday in honor of the cer. Misses Eudora Daly. . . . . Miss Bessle Grace entertained the T. Miss Cary Marshall gave an informale bridge party on Thursday. O. N. O. club at her home Thursday evening. Miss Jean Spencer will be guest of Tonight Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burton give a dancing party at their home in honor of Miss Jean Spencer and Mor-by the members of the Primary asso-

Miss Florence Culmer entertains at a

June, brides.

east South Temple street.

honor of Miss Jean Spencer.

ciation, with which she has been connected. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dugan gave a ater party on the opening night of the John Drew engagement. . . .

Mrs. W. A. Holman entertained on Thursday in compliment to the James B. McKean W. R. C. * * * Miss Charlotte Holmes will entertain at a luncheon at the Knutsford, fol-lowed by a box party Saturday. May 29, in honor of Miss Emma Quigley of Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Nicholas A. Robertson will entertain at a box party today in honor of Mrs. Jack Gilmer. . . .

A card party was given on Thursday at the Smith flats by the St. Mark's altar society, 35 tables being played altar society, 35 tables being played and prizes given the winners in each apartment, seven of which were donat-ed for the entertainment. The winners were Mrs. C. A. Quigley, Mrs. G. W. Price, Mrs. J. F. Cuday, Mrs. P. S. Peogh, Mrs. Fanny Davis, iMss Emily Brackband and Mrs. Burbank. Mrs. McGanney, president of the Altar so-ciety, was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. C. Hammer and Miss Margery Mulvey, Mrs. F. J. Westcott, Mrs. W. Rivers, Mrs. J. H. Bard-A dance was given at the post on Wednesday night in honor of Lieut, and Mrs. McClure, who leave this week

Mrs. W. W. Armstrong entertained informally at a luncheon Thursday, for Nevada. Supper was served and a delightful time spent.

MRS. NICHOLAS LONGWORTH.

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth will have a cottage for the summer at Mingo Beach, Mass. Their house is only a short distance from President Taft's cottage at Beverly.

the decorations being in green and well, Mrs. Quinn, Mrs. W. W. Harvey, Mrs. Hewitt, Mrs. R. Morrison and Mrs. C. A. Quigley.

Miss Veda Beebe will entertain on President Holman of the university Monday afternoon for Miss Grace Grant and Miss Jean Spencer, two of the freshman class, entertained his class members at a delightful lawn party on Thursday night, at his home, about 70 being present. . . . Mrs. Henry C. Hoffman will entertain An elaborate out-of-town affair of the at a bridge tea in honor of Mrs. E. A. Wall, this afternoon, at her home, 294 week was the reception given by Mrs John W. Thornley on Wednesday at the Kaysville Opera House in hoonr of her The her husband's fiftieth birthday. 'Mrs. Stanley Clawson will be hostess color scheme was carried out in pink and white, with apple blossoms and cut at a Kensington next Tuesday, given in flowers, and covers were laid for 150.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Clark entertained at an informal dinner on Thurs-day evening, the table being decorat-ed in spring flowers and covers laid

. . . Miss Bella Gibson will give a large party next Friday night as a farewell affair previous to her departure for all eastern states mission. About 35 will Coach Taylor of the L. D. S. U. basketball team entertained its mem-bers and a few others at dinner on Wednesday evening and presented the team-members with gold medals. Mrs. A. S. D.

Mrs. A. S. Rowan will entertain at a box party at the theater this after-noon, followed by a luncheon at the post, in honor of Miss Davis, who is a guest of the Misses Williams, at the post.

. . . Mrs. and Mrs. H. P. Clark entertain at a dinner party, followed by bridge, Friday evening, in honor of their silver wed-ding anniversary.

On Thursday afternoon the Misses On Thursday afternoon the Misses Ann and Mary Cannon entertained at a Kensington in honor of Miss Jean Spencer, the rooms being prettily de-corated with a profusion of carna-tions and ferns, and the table in the dining room having a large basket of flowers for a centerpiece and pink shaded candles. The hostesses were as-sisted by the Misses Helen and Clara Cannon and a guessing game was played in which prizes were won by Miss Barnice Young and Mrs. Grace Woolley, Special prizes were to the guest of honor. Present were the Misses Jean Williams. Bernice Young, Maud Riter, Mamie Needham, Misses Jean Williams, Bernice Young, Maud Riter, Mamie Needham, Zina Lambert, Naomi, Stella and Beulah Woodruff, Mignon Denhalter, Alabo Dunbar, Alice Nibley, Grace Grant, Alice Wells, Retta Young, Josephin* Clawson, Alice Hardy Connie Young, Naomi Spencer, Emily Hardy, Margaret Can-non, Nora Murdock, Nellie Young, Woolley, Mary Bell Craft,

Young, Woolley, Mary Bell Craft,

A pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Edith Holley and Joseph C. Westwood, the ceremony being per-formed by Bishop Parry, and a recep-tion following. The rooms were dec-orated with a profusion of flowers, and a number of relatives and near friends a a number of relatives and near friends assisted. . . .

Another of Wednesday's weddings was that of Mary Jeanette Yundt and John F. Hartman, Rev. C. G. Perkins perfoming the ceremony, and only members of the family being present.

Mrs. C. H. Stevenson, who will be in charge of the Utah building of the Alaska-Yukon-Facific exposition, left this week, accompanied by Miss Florence Hull of this city and Miss Ethel Orth of Ogden, who will be assistant hostesses of the Utah building. Schator and Mrs. Kuchler of Ogden will accompany the party to Seattle, Washington. * * *

Mrs. Redall has gone to Omaha and Kansas City, where she will spend a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Shelton.

Miss Ruth Dakin of Denver, Colo., is here the guest of her aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, in the Caithness apariments.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay R. Rogers, who formerly lived here spent Wed-nesday here on their way to their home in Fresno, Cal. . . .

Mrs. D. Guernsey has gone to Ely, Nev., where she will spend a few

WIDE-BRIMMED SAILOR FOR YOUNG GIRL.

The simply trimmed hat is always most charming on a young girl, and this is a particularly youthful and attractive model. The hat is of yedda braid in a light rose color and around the crown goes a silk fold of the same shade. Over this silk fold is a strip of fancy galloon trimming in rose and green colorings, and the silk is arranged in a big chou high on the left side.

Rehan Spencer. Hazel Hanson, Leah Farr, Gertrude Romney. Harriet Martineau, Mrs. L. C. Clive, Mrs. Grace Woolley and Mrs. J. D. Spen-

Mrs. E. A. Greenwood, son and daughter expect to spend a few weeks this summer in Portland and Seattle. Mrs. A. S. Rowan gave a pretty spending a few days with her cousin, Miss Adrian King. Gray

Mrs. Harry Lane, who has been visiting here left Monday for the east.

Mrs. O. J. Salisbury, Mrs. L. B. Mc-Cornick and Miss Anna. McCornick left Thursday for San Francisco, and later wil go to Pasadena for the Mc-Gilvray-Salisbury wedding.

Mrs. William McGrath leaves this week for California for several months. Later she will be joined by her sister, Miss Caroline Paine.

The Misses DuFuy of Erie, Pa., who are on their way home from Call-fornia, are the guests of Miss Spald-ing for a week.

was an Ogden visitor during the week. Rudolph Kuchler and wife and Miss Ethel Orth left during the week for Seattle to attend the opening of the Alasko-Yukon-Pacific exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Carver left the coming week for Seattle where Mr. Carver will attend the National Grocer's convention.

many and England.

June 1.

with friends in Ogden.

week in June.

summer with old friends.

Miss Bessie Primeaux, who returned Saturday from spending the winter in New York, will be here about two weeks when she will go to her home in Nevada.

Mrs. Joseph Rawlins and two daugh. ters the Misses Alta and Lara Rawlins who have spent nearly a year abroad, sailed for home last Saturday.

Miss Frances Cowan will be here the first week in June from her freshman ear at Vassar college.

THE LARGER OUTSHOE TIES

OGDEN.

President A. R. Heywood of the Weber club left for New York on Thursday on a business and pleasure trip combined. When he returns he will be accompanied by his son, John, who has been attending the University of Virginia during the past year.

R. K. Cobb of Salt Lake, entertain-R. K. Coob of Salt Lake, entertain-ed a party of friends at the Weber club at dinner the early part of the week. Those present were LaMar Nel-son, J. Fleiding Eurton, C. H. Brton, W. A. Hickenlooper, Carl A. Allison and H. I. Cobb of Salt Lake.

On Thursday afternoon the Order of Eastern Star entertained at tea at the Masonic temple.

Tuesday afternoon at the races was one of the big social events of the week. . . .

Harry F. Segur of San Francisco spent the latter part of the week in Ogden. . . .

Wednesday evening at the Hermit-age the local lodge of Elks was the host at a very pleasant dancing party and banquet given in honor of the Salt Lake with her grandmother, Mrs. Eldredge. . . . Governor's day in Provo was a great social success. The governor and his staff were met in the morning by the leading citizens of the city, escorted through lines of thousands of public school pupils and students of our institutions of higher learning, and after formal exercises at the university, the domestic department, in charge of Miss Ward, served a splendid luncheon. After this, the governor and the gentle-men members of his party were taken in automobiles for a ride through the fruit belt and over the proposed boule-vard to Olmstead, where a short stay was made and refreshments served. The ladies were taken in carriages to the State Mental hospital and shown the residence part of the city. In the even-ing, the leading citizens of the city met ing, the leading citizens of the city met the governor at a banquet in the Hotel Roberts, where about 80 plates were served. Postmaster Clove acted as toastmaster, and after a welcoming address by Mayor Decker, the governor and members of his staff responded to short toasts. The whole affair concluded in the evening with a brilliant ball at the gymnasium. The governor there held an informal reception. The Knights of Pythias held their twenty-sixth annual convention in Provo, Tuesday and Wednesday, While business meetings have been held the social part was taken caro of also. Tuesday at noon a banquet was given n honor of the visiting knights :

"WALNUTTA HAIR STAIN" - 41 A Restores Gray, Streaked or Bleached Hair or Moustached Instantamenasly. Gives any shade from Light Brown to Black. Does not wash or rub off. Con

Mrs. R. G. Seagon of Los Angeles is visiting her son, Albert Seagon, 270, Twenty-Sixth street.

Fred G. Taylor of the Amalgamated

L. P. Knelpp of the forest service at Washington was an Ogden visitor dur-

James H. McLaughlin, of Salt Lake,

PROVO.

The Utah Sorosis met Wedness

Hodson. Mrs. Anna Craig gave an a number of readings. Ice cream ake were served by the hostess.

Mrs. David John entertained a friends at dinner at her home Friday

Mrs. Mabel Warner entertained about 30 of her lady friends at a Kensington at her home Tuesday afternoon. A pleasant time was passed and a dainty

Mrs. Lizzie Wood has returned home after a pleasant visit with friends in southern Utah.

The Nineteenth Century club met Fri-day afternoon with Miss Bonham. Mrs. George Havercamp gave the first paper of the afternoon on "Greek Drama."

After recess Mrs. Brim gave a paper on "Greek Painting." The club adjourned to meet this week with Mrs. Brim.

Miss Chloe Smoot spent Thursday in lunch enjoyed. * * *

ing the week.

afternoon.

Mark pr we will send you a Trial Bis for 300 at 100 at 1 Olive St. St. Louis, Mo.

Sold by F. J. HILL DRUG COMPANY.

Col. Heckett, well known mine owner of Louisville, Ky, was the guest of M. S. Browning during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Young of Rock Springs, Wyo., are visiting at the home of the former's brother, Joseph Young, No. 849 east First South street.

Mrs. F. J. Fabian is home from several weeks spent in the east. Miss Stella Fabian and Harold Fabian will be home early in July.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Thomas and daughters, the Misses Lilly and Emma Thomas, with their son, W. C. Thomas, Jr., expect to leave here about June 6 for a six months' trip in Wales, Ger-

Mr. and Mrs. Carter of Los Angeles. Cal., who have recently come here, will be at home for the summer in the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. Moore Lindsay, at 551 east South Temple street. Dr. and Mrs. Lindsay will be at home at the visited his parents in Ogden during the past week.

Knutsford for several weeks after

Mrs. A. T. Sanford returned Thurs-day evening from spending a few days

. . .

teresting talk on Kindergarten and Mrs. Pearl Yates entertained Miss Nan Clawson, who graduates May 28 from the Horace Mann school in New York City, will be home the first

Mrs. Kate Shelley expects to leave the first of June for St. Louis and Kan-sas City, Mo., where she will spend the

* * *

for about a half dozen.

Mrs. Sarah and Miss Lilias Swart entertained at a progressive whist-party on Wednesday, prizes being won by Miss Edna Shepherd and Frank Stessel. . . . Mrs. J. W. Smith gave an informal luncheon on Thursday in honor of her luncheon on Thursday at the post, the decorations being in white lilacs and maidenhair ferns and covers laid for eight. . . .

cer.

Mrs. Frank Johnson was hostess at a second bridge tea on Thursday, about three tables being played and about 25 present. The table had a Cluny lace cloth over red satin with a mound of red carnations for a centerpiece and red-shaded candles at the corners Mrs. Thomas Marioneaux presided in the dining room assisted by Miss Ruth Dakin and Miss Geneva Savage, Prizes went to Mrs, Fred Hornung and Mrs. M. E. Lipman.

Mrs. J. F. Evans of San Francisco, Cal., is here spending a few days with old friends,

W. A. Hickenlooper left during the past week for Blackfoot, Idaho, where he will visit friends for a few days. * * * Miss Helen Monroe, who is in her junior year at Stanford university, re-turned Thursday to spend the summer here. Miss Zulu Houtz of Provo is here Mrs. W. A. Middleton and daughter have returned from an extended visit in southern California.

young ladies and gentlemen who took part in the annual show given at the opera house some weeks ago. The party was taken from the city to the popular resort in automobiles. The their ladies and in the evening a social was held in the lodge rooms, which were elaborately decorated for the occasion. A very pleasant evening was passed in "getting acquainted" music and cards. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Roylance entertained a number of their friends at a fruit festival at their home Wed-nesday evening. The dining table pre-

Beautiful Hair is now within the reach of every woman who will use

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

The ORIGINAL remedy that kills the dandruff germ.

Herpicide is the only remedy that strikes at the very root of hair trouble by destroying the dandruff germ, after which the hair is bound to resume its natural beauty and abundance. The wonderful success of Newbro's Herpleide has brought out many preparations claiming to kill the dandruff germ. There is but one genuine dandruff germ destroyer and all other remedies, making such a claim, hope to trade upon the reputation of genuine Herpicide.

Just begin the use of Newbro's Herpicide in secret and see how soon your friends will notice the improvement in your hair.

A' Pennsylvania woman, whose hair is of extreme length and beauty, writes: "I find that by the con-tinued use of Herpicide my hair is growing longer and thicker than ever before."

Don't waste your money on new and untried remedies that claim to equal Herpicide when you can buy the original and genuine article at any drug store. Herpicide stops itching of the scalp almost instantly.

Send 10 cents in stamps to THE HERPICIDE COMPANY, Dept. L, Detroit, Mich., for sample and booklet. One Dollar Bottles Guaranteed. At Drug Stores. When you call for Herpicide, do not accept a substitute. Applications at prominent Barber Shops.

Mrs. J. C. Daly entertained at a kitchen shower on Thursday for Miss Eudora Daly, the decorations being in green and white with a center-plece of carnations and ferns. A guess-ing game was a feature, and the prize was won by Miss Primeaux. The latter also assisted in serving with Mrs. W. McCrea and Mrs. E. J. Rob-erts. . . .

Two large box parties were given at the Salt Lake theater on Thursday night, one by Samuel Newhouse in honor of his cousin Miss Wolsey of Chicago, and the other by Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Howard.

Mr, and Mrs. William Upton gave an informal card party on Thursday in honor of Mr. and Mit. W. C. Thomas who will leave shortly for a trip abroad. The rooms were decorated in iris and ferns and about three tables were played.

N. C. Christensen of American Fork anounces the engagement of his daughter Olive Marie to William T. Nuttall of this city. Mr. Nuttall is the son of the late L. John and Sophia. T. Nuttall. The marriage ceremony will be performed in the Salt Lake temple on Wednesday. June 18 by Filtemple on Wednesday, June 16, by El-der John Henry Smith, afetr which the young people will leave immediately for the coast, to be gone for from two to three weeks. Upon their return they will locate permanently at the present home of the prospective groom, 43 north West Temple street.

Mrs. George J. Maack announces the engagement of her sister Bessie Tul-lidge to F. M. Shurtliffe, the marriage to take place June 16.

Mr. H. J. Bull announces the engage-ment of his daughter Nell to A. E. Peterson, the marilage to take place the latter part of June.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Peterson an-nounce the engagement of their daugh-ter Lulu to Walter W. Griffin. The wedding will take place early in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pugsley announce the engagement of their daugh-ter Dora to Horace Goodfellow. The wedding will take place the latter part

. . . The marriage of Miss Gladys Emma Linnen and Ira B. Le Vesconte will take place today. Another wedding of to-day will be that of Miss Ella Lowenstein and Joseph Gettleson.

Trimmed Hats, $5 to $15

Mid-season styles are now ready-each creation expressing the very latest authoritative Millinery thought from Paris.

New Ideas hurried here by our Paris Representative

Copies and adaptations emanating from our own corps of skilled milliners, showing radical departures from former fashions.

The Mehesy Millinery has an exclusive individuality expressive of the higher type of Trimmed Hats.

Special showing at $5 to $15 Others up to $50.

Sailor Hats from $1 to $2.50

Special sale on all Foreign hats that have been in the house prior to last Tuesday.

156 Main Street