

asking her majesty to use her influence to procure a prompt execution of the treaty and also to endeavor to procure from Greece a rectification of her frontier, as agreed upon by the powers. Sir Charles complained of the government's isolated policy with regard to Greece.

Shaw Lefevre (liberal) seconded Dilke's motion.

Hanbury (liberal conservative) moved an amendment that the government had successfully carried out the treaty.

Sir Henry Wolf (conservative) seconded the amendment.

PANAMA, 22.—The revolution in Magdalena is over and President Robles is in prison. About 600 lives were lost in the struggle.

Guatemala has increased its duties 25 per cent. payable in cash.

The claims of Italian subjects against Chili amounts to 1,200,000 soles, from losses occasioned by the bombardment of Pisagua. A forced loan is feared in Peru.

LONDON, 23.—It is said the government has information that Lord Chelmsford has defeated the Zulus, inflicting an immense loss.

In the House of Commons yesterday, the under secretary of the State declared if Turkey and Greece failed to come to an understanding in regard to the frontier, the British government was always ready to join in mediation. Government had never isolated themselves from the other powers.

The bill introduced by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, to enable banks to limit the liability of shareholders to twice the amount of their paid up capital, was "talked out" by Wm. Holmes, liberal member for Paisley, who objected to the government amendments restricting the operation of the bill to England. The bankruptcy bill was also recently "talked out." These excite much comment and dissatisfaction.

DeLesseps has issued a prospectus of the Darien Canal Company. Capital is fixed at 400,000,000 francs, only 125 francs per share will be called up in the first instance. Interest at the rate of 5 per cent. will be paid on the actual money received during the course of construction. DeLesseps estimates the income at 90,000,000 francs from the canal, and reckons the shareholders will receive 11 1/2 per cent. per annum.

WEBER STAKE CONFERENCE.

The Quarterly Conference of the Weber Stake of Zion was held in the Ogden Tabernacle, on Saturday and Sunday, July 19th and 20th, 1879.

Saturday, 10 a.m.

On the stand were Elders Franklin D. Richards and Joseph F. Smith of the Council of the Twelve; Presidents L. J. Herrick and C. F. Middleton, of the Presidency of the Stake (President David H. Peery is absent on a mission in the East).

After singing and prayer Elder L. F. Monch addressed the meeting on the signs of the times, and urged upon the Saints the necessity of their being prepared for the great events which, in all probability, will transpire in the near future, and which immediately precede the coming of the Son of God to reign on the earth.

Bishop F. A. Hammond related some of his experience at the time he first embraced the gospel, and matters which, at that time tried his faith, until he gained experience.

Elder James Taylor followed. In his remarks he contrasted the situation of the people in this city at the present time with that of former years, when there were no saloons, grogshops, houses of ill-fame, no profanity or drunkenness existing here.

Elder Joseph F. Smith, of the Council of the Twelve, also made a few pertinent remarks, corrected some errors, and counseled and instructed the Saints in relation to their duties.

Adjourned till 2 p. m.

AFTERNOON.

After singing and prayer reports from most of the Bishops were given, showing that the Wards of the Stake were in general good condition; that their prospects for crops were much better than they were early in the season. Ogden Valley has been the chief sufferer, and that through locust ravages. The Saints feel well in the work of the Lord, and are willing to do all they can to advance its interests in all its departments.

Female Relief, Mutual and other improvement societies were in good condition. In nearly all the Wards the day and Sabbath schools were in session, well attended and the scholars making good progress in their secular and religious education.

Meeting adjourned to Sunday, 10 a.m.

SUNDAY MORNING.

Shortly after 10 o'clock, the Tabernacle was well filled by the saints and others.

After the opening exercises, the Bishops' reports were concluded.

Elder R. Ballantyne then reported the condition of the Sabbath Schools in Weber Stake, which was very encouraging; there was in most places an increase of attendance, and all who are engaged in this holy work were devoted and earnest. He exhibited a specimen copy of a new book, entitled, "The Deseret Sunday School Reader," which is got up by the Deseret Sunday School Union, and ought to be introduced in every Sabbath School in the Territory. Elder Ballantyne also spoke in advocacy of the Juvenile Instructor, and concluded with some remarks on the necessity of keeping holy the Sabbath day, protesting against its desecration by pleasure excursions or any other kind of recreations. He read copious extracts from a revelation given to the Prophet Joseph Smith.

Elder John H. Smith then addressed the meeting on the principle of self-government. It is the duty of every Latter-day Saint to guard his honor, the honor of his friends, and the honor of his father and mother. It is our duty to love our neighbor as ourselves, as far as it is in the nature of man to do so, and to promote the best interests of the kingdom of God. He counseled the Saints to cease every practice and shun every path that leads to ruin and death. He spoke of the spirit of pride and undue ambition, and self-aggrandizement which had caused the decay and ruin of many of the kingdoms and institutions of the earth.

Adjourned till 2 p.m.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

The Tabernacle was again filled to its utmost capacity, and many there were who could not gain admittance.

After singing and prayer, the sacrament was administered. Elder Monch presented the general Stake and local authorities of the Church, all of whom were sustained by a hearty unanimous vote of the vast assembly.

Elder Joseph F. Smith read a great portion of the 28th chapter of Deut., and asked if no part of this chapter would apply to the Latter-day Saints in this valley. He exhorted them to read it, and examine themselves, and see what part of it would apply to them. He referred to our first arrival in and settlement of this country. We were then contented and happy, and the blessing of God rested upon us. Many of us have changed, become discontented, filled with pride, have emulated the fashions of Babylon, and are ambitious to become rich. Some have mortgaged their farms and their homes, all of which have passed into the hands of the stranger—their farms, orchards and their homes are gone, and they are destitute! All the blessings promised to, and the curses denounced against, ancient Israel in the chapter read, are applicable to modern Israel.

Elder Smith then spoke of the imperative duty of the Latter-day Saints to observe and keep holy the Sabbath day. He denounced in strong terms the violation of the law on this subject, in any manner whatever; and showed conclusively that no man had any right to do any other thing on the Sabbath day than that which God had commanded. He also urged upon parents the importance of instructing their children, at the proper age, in the principles of the gospel of salvation, that they may grow up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. He concluded with a promise to the Saints, that if they would be faithful and diligent in keeping the commandments of the Lord, Israel should prevail and ultimately become the head of all nations.
