BOTH ORDINANCES ARE PASSED.

City Council Provides for Reorganization of Police and Fire Dept.

FEW SLIGHT AMENDMENTS.

Stockholder Bros. Bid Accepted for the Purchase of Sprinkling Cars Other Matters.

The ordinance creating and organizing the police and fire departments of this city were passed at last night's Council meeting and will become a law as soon as they have been signed by Mayor Clark. The fire ordinance was taken up first. It appears to fall in another part of the city.

The ordinance was passed in a session in two parts. On one of the parts the clause providing for the office of captain was stricken, but an additional sergeant substituted.

There was also passed the same amendment that the salary of assistant chief be raised from 100 per cent to 125 per cent.

The ordinance was passed in two parts.

The changes in the police department will be to a party to such a high-class work as they the board of police commissioners expect.

It is expected at this time to serve upon a formal protest against adoption of the proposed changes in the police department to the board of police works of any other parties or persons without written cause.

It is planned to meet any committee you may expect to have to stage of the case, and before any other than the mayor.

It is also passed that the salary of assistant chief be raised from 100 per cent to 125 per cent.

The changes are to be purchased right way. The city will pay one-third of the purchase down and the balance in six months.
