PRESIDENT IS REPUBLICAN FIRST

For That Reason Wished That His Name Be Dropped from The Reform Club Rolls.

CLUB FOR TARIFF REVISION.

Tariff Reform Committee of It Opens What Promises to be a Vigorous Campaign.

New York, April 14.—With a letter of endorsement from William J. Bryan and vigorous speeches on tariff reform, the tariff reform committee of the Reform club tonight opened what it promises to make a vigorous campaign for the revision of the tariff.

The occasion was a dinner of the committee at the Hotel Astor, attended by more than 150 members and guests. Mr. Bryan's letter, addressed to Bryan W. Holt of the committee, was received with applause. It follows:

"I regret that I cannot be present at the tariff reform dinner. Tariff reform is sure to occupy a prominent place in the coming campaign and our cause is greatly strengthened by the confessions that are now being made by Republican leaders.

"The excitement is increasing, and it may yet be necessary to require the candidates to submit sealed bids for the tariff reform sentiment in order that all may be upon equal footing. Those who platform last platform best.

"But it will be seen that all the Republican reformers give more space to defense of the protective system than they do to the need of tariff reform, and the fact that they have allowed all these years to pass without any effort to respond to public sentiment on this subject, and the further fact that they now refuse to make the slightest concession, even where the rates are over 100 per cent, ought to convince the tariff reformers of the conviction that the reduction of the tariff cannot be entrusted to the Republican party.

"The Democratic party, looking at the question from the standpoint of the taxpayers, rather than from the standpoint of a few beneficiaries, and strengthened in their position by the fact that our manufacturers are selling abroad cheaper than they have sought to be able to make a successful appeal to those who want to restore the government to its old foundation and make it a defender of the rights of all. Very truly,

(Signed) "WILLIAM J. BRYAN."

After the reading of Mr. Bryan's and other letters, John De Witt Warner, who presided, stated that he had written to Poutline Bigelow to ascertain the possibility of President Roosevelt attending the dinner. Mr. Bigelow's reply, he said, contained the information that the president wished to be dropped from the rolls of the Reform club, for the reason that he was a Republican before he was a tariff reformer.

Among the speakers at the dinner were Henry T. Rainey, Miss Ida M. Tarbell, William Lloyd Garrison and Herman Ridder.

Judge Shackelford Hears Argument For Change of Venue.

N. CONGO FREE STATE DENIES CERTAIN CHARGES

Brussels, April 14.—The government of the Congo-independent state has issued a reply to the British white book containing reports from British consuls in the Congo. The statements that transportation on the upper part of the Congo river is a monopoly, that collection of taxes in the Katanga region is turned out and that a commercial agent sentenced to death for murder has been released, are declared to be false.

WISCONSIN TELEGRAPH LAW.

State One Held Constitutional, Federal One Unconstitutional.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 14.—The Wisconsin telegraphers' eighth-hour law is constitutional, in the opinion of Judge Tarrant, who today handed down his decision in a test case.

Judge Tarrant believes that the federal law limiting the hours of employment of telegraphers and train dispatchers to nine hours is unconstitutional in that it interferes with the rights of the states to regulate commerce within their borders.

CHELSEA FIRE VICTIMS.

Remains of Two Persons Found in Ruins, Making Total Victims Six.

Boston, April 14.—The remains of two persons, a man and a woman, were found today in the ruins of Sunday's fire at Chelsea, and tonight a human skull was found in the cellar of No. 62 Chester avenue. The bodies of three unknown persons had been recovered previously, and the death list is now six, but the authorities expect to find the remains of other bodies in the ruins. NEW WERNER 20th CENTURY ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA

For several months past we have been offering this great million dollar library upon a Co-operative Club plan, which cut the publisher's price squarely in two and also allowed little at a time payments, amounting to only 15 cents a day. The success of this club has been enormous. We have distributed no less than 135,000 sets, or over FOUR MILLION VOLUMES, at a total saving to our club members of a round FIVE MILLION DOLLARS! This is by far the most wonderful record in the whole history of book-selling, and we were enabled to achieve it only by our wide advertising and public facilities, reaching every state in the Union. But now the English and American publishers have "got together," with the result that this less expensive edition is to be withdrawn at once. As a matter of cold figures we have for Deseret News readers. These will soon be gone—then we must stop. We are powerless to supply any more books. This untold work is a necessity in every home. Its 31 massive volumes, with their 25,000 large pages and wealth of maps and illustrations, are a library in themselves. They stand ready to help you—as they have helped thousands of others—to succeed in life.

YOUR LAST CHANCE

As a result of an agreement between the English and American publishers the Twenty Century (American) edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica is to be entirely withdrawn. Our Encyclopaedia Club must close at once. Then the remarkable opportunity we have been able to offer you will be a thing of the past. Do not mistake what this means to you. A small first payment, and we at once deliver to you the set of 31 superb volumes. You pay for the books from month to month in sums so small as to amount to but a few cents a day. You can not afford to neglect this opportunity to equip your home with this splendid library, which will bring you and your children pleasure and profit for the rest of your days.
