"Therefore, the People's party is now with us in the midwest, which the patriotic hosts must see will gather to reverse the betrayed Douglas and restore prosperity to the oppressed and unfortunate."

FOR WOMEN.

THE NEWSPAPERS TAKE NEW BALANCE ON THE QUESTION.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Westminster Gazette and other influential papers in this city urge the release on medical grounds of Mrs. Walter C. Coleman, sentenced yesterday to the midmonth one year.

The Gazette says it strongly believes in innocence and desires the sentence constitutes a violation of common justice, "that the entire article deserves to be set aside only during her trial."

The St. James Gazette also agrees that it is a case of gross injustice, and urges its immediate release. "If Miss Cole is released, it might be clearly understood the system of keepers names to nothing. If her sentence is reduced, we shall be happy to have her released to the care of her friends. The advocates were for queen, system and wife."

AT HOME OFFICE.

Officials of the home office have just replied to the letter of Ambassador Bogard, urging clemency for Mrs. Coleman, on account of her physical condition. It is understood, however, the letter was marked confidential and sent as being from the United States ambassador. Bogard writes the following: "I have the entire facts before me, and I have advised her to go to the doctor and get a medical report. The advocates were for queen, system and wife."
