SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Last night Miss Hattie Lyman aughter of Mrs. Matilda Lyman and Will G. Hampton a nephew of Mr. George T. Odell, were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by Rev. E. G. Hunt at the home of the bride. The rooms were beautifully decorated with sweet peas, asters and snapdragons, with vines used in artistic arrangement on mantels, chandellers and curtains. The bride was charmingy gowned in white Perslan lawn with trimmings of white applique lace and carried a boquet of white sweet peas. Miss Anna Lyman was bridesmaid, and was attired in white brilliantine. Mr. Ben Hampton of Park City acted as best man. About forty friends were present to enjoy the pleasant affair. The marriage of Miss Minnle L. Edwards and Mr. John Balley, Jr., took place last night at the home of the oride's parents, the ceremony being perormed at 8:30 o'clock by Bishop Whitney. After the ceremony light re-freshments were served to the relatives and few intimate friends present, and at 10:30 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Bailey eft for the east where they will be ab sent for some time.

The guests num-bered nearly 100. A musical program rendered by several accomplished plan-ists was highly appreciated. A pleasing feature of the entertainment was the presentation of a pair of handsome picwas the ures to Mr. Hartshorn and his amiable wife. Mr. Knucky was master of ceremonies and accompanied the "presen tation act" with a neat and appropriate little speech, which was feelingly responded to by the reverend gentleman. In the course of his talk the pastor racefully commended the members of Heath church for their loyalty and steadfastness. Mr. Hartshorn has had most successful year and many regrets were expressed that circumstanc-es take him away. During the evening delicious cake and ice cream were served in abundance. At a reasonable hour after singing "God be with you till we meet again." the guests, with many well wishes for the success and happi-ness of their retiring pastor said, "Good bye," and departed. It is said that some difficulty is being experienced by the local lodge in securing harmony. The trouble is ocsecuring harmony. casioned by the fact that out of the 500 members of the lodge, it takes only three blackballs to keep a man out, and that some of the members are not using their votes as thoughtfully as they might, letting feelings of business and political rivalry interfere with the interests of the lodge. It is proposed, in order to obviate this difficulty, to turn the election of new members to a discriminating committee. This has been done in the Colorado lodges, and the probabilities are that it will be begun here.

attention of the audience. Miss Gert-Harrison's song, accompanied by Miss May Lisonbeg followed, and was well rendered.

Captain Adam Paul of Salt Lake county, made a speech, concluding with an original poem, and possibly drew more applause from the listening comrades than any plece rendered. The veteran fifer, Wm. Robins of Santaquin, supported by two juvenile drummers, then came to the front, and fired up the hearts of the comrades with the mar-tial music rendered. After the ap-plause had somewhat subsided, a duet by Miss Sadie Stoddard and Sadie Davis of Lehi was next in order and was pleasingly rendered. Comrades Orson Creer of Spanish Fork, Wm. M. Bromley of American Fork, then respective-ly addressed the assembly. Judge John E. Booth also spoke. The martial band then held the center of the stage and played a number of patriotic airs. Dr. Chas. H. Utter, a prominent physician, of Panama, Columbia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had as a patient a young lady sixteen years of age, who had a very bad at-tack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every h Her parents were sure she would die. She had become so weak that she could not turn over in bed. What to do at this citical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort prescribed it. The most wonderful result was effected.
