I Wish Everybody to Know.
Rev. George H. Thayer, an old citizen of this vicinity known to every one as a most influential citizen, and Christian Minister of the M. E. Church, just this moment stopped in our store to say, "I wish everybody to know that I consider both myself and wife owe our lives to Shilo's Consumption Cure. It is having a tremendous sale over our counters and giving perfect satisfaction in all cases of Lung Disease such as nothing else has done."

THE SCARCITY OF DIAMONDS, Gold and Silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value.

Thus it is with a valuable medicine. Dr. Aug. Kaiser's Celebrated German Pulmonic Elixir, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom or put out a prairie fire with a tear.

For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchial Affections, it is unequalled. Its cures are truly magical. Ask your Druggist for it. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the facsimile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. Trial bottle, 25 cents.

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, January 5, 1880.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

The "Sorcerer."—The members of Zion's Musical Society will please take notice that the rehearsal of the "Sorcerer" is adjourned till tomorrow night, at the Theatre, at 7 o'clock.

Lecture Deferred.—In consequence of the Sunday School Union to be held this evening, the lecture that was to have been given by Elder C. W. Stagner, in the 11th Ward, to-night, has been postponed until Friday evening, at the same time and place.

Large Conference.—The Conference just over was probably the largest Stake Conference ever held in this city. Yesterday the building was crowded to its utmost capacity, and hundreds turned away who were unable to gain admittance.

The Wilhelmj Concerts.—On Friday evening, the 9th inst., Herr August Wilhelmj, the great violinist, will make his debut before the Salt Lake public, assisted by Herr Max Vogrich, the celebrated Hungarian pianist and Mlle Marie Salvotti, the charming prima donna. This is an unusual attraction.

"Leader" Lines.—The Logan Leader says: Nellie Gyllenskog is now able to make his appearance on the streets.

Miss Whitney, whose arm was recently broken at Mendon, has now almost recovered.

Young HEN, of Mendon, whose leg was recently amputated by Dr. Ormsby, is now able to be out on crutches.

General Priesthood Meeting.

A general priesthood meeting of the Stake convened in the Assembly Hall at 7 p. m. last evening. There were present on the stand, of the Twelve Apostles, Elders Brigham Young and Joseph F. Smith, and Counselor D. H. Wells; presidency of the Stake, Angus M. Cannon, David O. Calder and Joseph E. Taylor; First Presidents of Seventies, John Van Cott; High Priest's Quorum, Presidents Elias Smith, Edward Snelgrove and Elias Morris; R. T. Burton, Counselor to the Presiding Bishop, and the Presidents of the 1st, 3d, 4th, 5th, 8th, 11th, 12th, 15th and 16th Quorums of Elders. Remarks were made by President Elias Smith, Elder John Van Cott, and by the presidents of the 1st, 3d, 4th, 5th and 8th Quorums of Elders.

After which, Bishop R. T. Burton spoke, urging upon the Bishops the importance of their duties. Acting as they did as fathers to the people, they were measurably responsible for evil when it exists, in their Wards, as they had the remedy which God had provided, the Lesser Priesthood for the prevention and cure of evil. President Angus M. Cannon spoke upon the importance of the offices of the Lesser Priesthood and the necessity for men of experience and faith to officiate therein, for the salvation of God's people, taking with them, however, young men, that they might gain an experience. He also showed the importance of sustaining each other, and concluded by urging the Priesthood to awake to the responsibilities devolving upon them.

The Twelve Apostles had called for twenty or thirty families to colonize new settlements adjacent to the Territory. An expression of the meeting was requested, to ascertain who were willing to go if called upon, which met with a general response.

Wasatch Marble.—This morning we were shown some fine specimens of native marble, from the hills of the Wasatch Mountains, in the Provo Valley.

It was the first consignment from the works of the company, since its incorporation last June, and was on its way to the stone and marble works of Watson Brothers, east of this office, where it may now be seen. The quarry from which it was taken is located in the Wasatch range, just over the divide between Big Cottonwood and Snake Creek, on the slope leading down into Provo Valley. The marble has been discovered for several years, but the company was not organized until June 21, 1879. They have a claim of about 10 acres, and as yet have only used a portion of the surface rock, which nevertheless, is of superior quality.

"Uncle" John Dobbie, whose death we noticed a short time ago, quarried the first specimens from this claim, and the present lot was all cut out by his hand. This marble is of exceedingly fine texture, hence very good for lettering, and weighs from six to nine pounds to the square foot heavier than States marble. It is mostly white and pure also, and of easy polish, and will become better and better, the deeper the quarry is extended. Mr. S. H. Epperson, the superintendent of the hills, is in town, having accompanied this shipment to its destination. The marble trade is a useful and growing industry here, and we shall note, with pleasure, anything that tends to its development and progress.

Meeting of Associations of the Stake.—Pursuant to an announcement, a meeting of the various associations of the Stake, convened at 7 p. m., on Saturday, January 3, 1880. There were present on the stand: President John Taylor and Elder Joseph F. Smith, of the Twelve Apostles; the presidency of the Stake, Angus M. Cannon, David O. Calder and Joseph E. Taylor; also representatives of the presidency of the various societies of the stake, a number of whom addressed the meeting.

The authorities of these associations were presented and unanimously sustained as at the previous conference.

President John Taylor, in conclusion, made a few encouraging remarks to the officers and members of those organizations, for the energy and faithfulness they had displayed in seeking to improve the condition of their fellow beings, temporally, spiritually and intellectually.

Unlucky Tramps.—The Junction of Sunday contains the following: Last evening the Union Pacific Express brought in two prisoners from Utah, charged with breaking into the baggage cars of that company.

A few days since a tramp riding on a break beam was fatally injured by a slight railroad accident. Upon being taken up and cared for as well as possible, he inquired if he could recover. The near approach of his death was communicated to the man, when a shade of sadness passed over his face, and he exclaimed:

"That's just my luck! Three days ago I swore off drinking, because I knew it was killing me. Now that blasted train comes along and finishes me. For a man of my travel and experience, them's hard lines, pard. Give me some brandy."

Before the liquor could be procured, he passed in his checks, without breaking his pledge.

"Woman's Exponent."—The Exponent for January 1st, is at hand. Its principal contents are as follows, prose: "New Year's Day," E. B. Spencer; "Philanthropy," L. L. D.; "Opening of Fifth College," H. T. King; "Thoughts on the New Year," (editorial); "Remarks of President Joseph Smith," (extract Times and Seasons); "Home Affairs," "A Letter," "Correspondence," H. T. King; "Charles Dickens and religion," B. F. C.; "The Sabbath Day," Mary Stuart, etc. The poetic pieces are "Address to the Closing Year," by L. M. Hewlings, and "Ireland—Infelix," by Hannah T. King. It is an interesting number.

This Evening.—The Sunday School Union meets this evening in the Assembly Hall, at seven o'clock. All persons interested in Sunday Schools are invited.

Children's "Grand Duchess."

Rehearsals of the "Grand Duchess," by the juvenile opera combination, under the leadership of Professor A. C. Smyth, are going on steadily. The style in which the little folks go through the military drill incidental to the piece, is something as amusing as it is admirable. Ere long, we expect to see the children eclipse their former reputation, by presenting Offenbach's masterpiece to the public.

Concert To-Night.—This evening the first of the Concert Series by the Carleiss Orchestra will be given in the Theatre. Enough has been said concerning the merits of this artistic enterprise to recommend it to the public and insure the patronage and encouragement of all who are interested in the growth and progress of the fine arts in our community. It should not be forgotten that these concerts are of home origin, and the talent utilized in their presentation chosen entirely from the ranks of our local musicians.

Sounds from the South.—The Beaver Watchman of the 31st ult. says:

At about 12 o'clock noon, on Friday last, Samuel Jackson, Sen., died at his residence in Beaver at the ripe age of 64.

A Spanish woman who resides at Charley's restaurant on Main Street, was shot through the hand by a soldier on Friday night last.

The terminus of the Utah Southern will be at the California Ranch, 14 miles south of Decatur, till the road is completed to Millford.

Wm. McBride got his hands and feet badly frozen last week at the Homoeo Bend.

Work on the railroad is suspended till spring. It is claimed that the grading will be resumed in April.

Bold Robbery.—Two days ago a man by the name of Blackburn, who resides in Mineralville, was entrapped about a mile and a half from Frisco in broad day light and robbed of $25. He had been to Frisco with a load of grain and having disposed of the same was returning home and came upon two footmen who asked him for a ride. He allowed them to get aboard his wagon and by this means they obtained the advantage sought. B. was firmly tied with a rope and after being relieved of his money was left in that condition to continue his journey as best he could. The team came on the road to the Horse-shoe Bend, where assistance was obtained and the rope cut off. While the robbery was being perpetrated, the stage passed, but the robbers warning B. that if he halted the same, they would blow his brains out, he kept still.

The night previous, Dunan, Wells, Fargo & Co. messenger, was robbed of $35, at the hotel in Frisco, while asleep. —Beaver Watchman

Acquitted and Re-Arrested.—John H. Hougom, (not Hougan), the young man arrested for forgery and false pretense, underwent an examination before Justice Pyper, to-day, and at its conclusion, was discharged from custody. His father, John H. Hougom, Sen., appeared and testified that the land for which the mortgage was given, was really his son's property, and not his own, as had been alleged. As to the young man's forging his father's name, it was claimed, also, to have been a mistake, as the two names were identical, except in the affixes of senior and junior, which were not always used by them. Young Hougom is being examined this afternoon on a charge of unlawfully converting a harness to his own use, last December, which had been left in his care a month previous, by the owner, W. R. Starmer, who makes the complaint.

Death from Epilepsy.—Yesterday forenoon, Bro. Jonathan Wright, of the 18th Ward, the watchman at the water works in City Creek Cañon, departed this life. The cause of his death, as reported, was an epileptic fit, which attacked him during the afternoon of Saturday.

His wife went to meeting on the morning of that day, leaving him entirely well. He urged her to remain all-day at his residence, and not return at noon, as their home was quite a distance from the Hall, and thinking all would be well she followed his counsel. When she returned, about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, he was sitting in a chair beside the lounge, resting his head upon the foot-board, trembling and working his hands and mouth spasmodically, and entirely without the power of speech, to tell what had happened, or to express his wants. He was immediately assisted to bed and help summoned, when he revived and partially regained himself, not sufficiently, however, to tell what time the fit came on, though it is presumed to have attacked him, as stated, in the afternoon. He did not relapse into insensibility again, and retained his speech from that time forth, but having passed a very bad night he began sinking rapidly Sunday morning, his face becoming livid and his limbs and hands turning cold, until finally he expired. One of the prominent symptoms was terrible cramps in the stomach. Saturday morning he was taken by a neighbor that his father had died from epileptic fits, and that he expected to go the same way. His demise was probably induced by cold, as his anxiety over the water works of which he was the guardian, had perhaps led him to expose himself. He was a good, faithful man, a firm Latter-day Saint, and his death will be much regretted in the community.
