SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION.

Its Semi-Annual Conference.

A Large Attendance of Officers and Members of the Sunday School Union convened in the Tabernacle Friday evening, October 5th, for its semi-annual conference.

The combined chorus belonging to the Sunday Schools of the city and twenty-first wards, conducted by Brother Thomas McIntyre with Prof. J. J. Daynes at the organ, furnished excellent music during the evening.

Opened with singing, "Glorious things of thee are spoken. Prayer by Elder Wm. Fotheringham. Choir sang, "Zion stands with hills surrounded."

The roll was called showing fourteen States represented.

Superintendent George Goddard said that he was pleased to see so many of the officers belonging to our Sabbath Schools present, remarking that it was an evidence that the brethren and sisters had the welfare of the youth of Zion at heart. Brother George Q. Cannon, our General Superintendent, though unable to be with us in person, was one with us in spirit, and the deep interest he took in our work was evidenced by the fact that he had sent a letter to the effect that he would report some of the work of the Union to the conference.

Elder Karl G. Maeser was then called upon to deliver a brief address to the conference. He said that he was pleased to see so many of the officers belonging to our Sabbath Schools present, remarking that it was an evidence that the brethren and sisters had the welfare of the youth of Zion at heart. Brother George Q. Cannon, our General Superintendent, though unable to be with us in person, was one with us in spirit, and the deep interest he took in our work was evidenced by the fact that he had sent a letter to the effect that he would report some of the work of the Union to the conference.

It is quite certain, however, that whatever may have been the foundation upon which the rumor was based, and whatever may have been the opinion of the Assistant Commissioner upon the subject at the time of the publication, no such decision was promulgated, and that the Union is now in a position to make an entry of public lands under any of the laws where citizenship is a prerequisite.

It appears that the district land officers in one of the Territories permitted three Chinese, who had filed their declarations of citizenship in 1885, to make a mineral land entry, and the case came before the Assistant Commissioner for consideration. His judgment was emphatically recorded against the legality of such an entry, and an order of cancellation was made at once, no holding for cancellation with privilege of appeal, was made, but the entry was canceled outright, without a word in the decision about the right of appeal on the ground that only citizens of the United States and those who had legally declared their intentions to become such, can make entry for mineral lands, and that the Chinese are not citizens of the United States.

Very few Chinese have ever become citizens of the United States. I am informed that out of the thousands that have come here only sixteen were ever naturalized. If this be true, and no change occurs in our naturalization laws, the public domain will not be absorbed to any great extent by Chinese unless those sixteen prove unusually prolific in offspring.

Conference in Arizona.

St. Johns, A. T., September 28, 1888.

Editor Deseret News:

The quarterly conference of the St. Johns Stake of Zion was held at Springville, Apache County, Arizona, on September 28th and 29th. One of the most interesting and profitable sessions were present, including President Jesse N. Smith, of Snowflake Stake.

Good much instruction was given and a good spirit prevailed. The Saints were counseled to remain faithful to their missions.

Adjourned to meet at St. Johns three months hence.

Attention (with the greatest and most stupendous show of politeness on earth)—I suppose it does seem like a small piece of meat to you, me 'an' but it's enough for the lion.

Wife (to country editor)—Aren't you feeling well tonight, John?

Country Editor—Not very, my dear. I am feeling about as you feel.

Wife (anxiously)—Heavens, John, I hope he didn't stop his paper, too.

LAND REVIEW.

The Chinese and the Public Domain.

Editor Deseret News:

The Chinese question is just at present the all-absorbing topic of public and political discussion, and a bill prohibiting the immigration into this country of Chinese persons has been passed by Congress, and is now before the President, who will probably sign it now that official information of the rejection by the Chinese government of the treaty recently proposed, has been received.

Quite a flutter of excitement was created a few days ago by the announcement in the public prints that the General Land Office, had rendered a decision to the effect that a Chinaman who in 1885 declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States could legally initiate a homestead entry.

It is quite certain, however, that whatever may have been the foundation upon which the rumor was based, and whatever may have been the opinion of the Assistant Commissioner upon the subject at the time of the publication, no such decision was promulgated, and that the Union is now in a position to make an entry of public lands under any of the laws where citizenship is a prerequisite.
